WHY BUY AT HOME?

Because my interests are here.
Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in.

Because I believe in transacting business with my friends.

Because I want to see the goods I am buying.

Because I want to get what I buy when I pay for them.

Because my home merchants will take care of me when I run short of cash.

Because some part of every dollar I spend at home helps work for the welfare of the town and the county.

Because the home merchant I buy from stands back of his goods, thus always giving value received.

Because the merchant I buy from pays his share of the county and town taxes.

Because the merchant I buy from helps support our poor and needy, our schools, our churches, our lodge rooms and homes.

Because if ill luck, misfortune or bereavement comes, the merchant I buy from is here with his kindly expression of greeting, his words of cheer, and, if needed, his pocketbook.

Let us make this town a good place in which to work and live. It's easy and certain if everyone will do his share.

The dollar spent away seldom returns, while the money spent at home is apt to leave a scraphing at your door.

Rev. J. F. Wedderburn Accepts Port Colborne Call

Rev. J. F. Wedderburn, who for the past six years has been minister of Knox church and one of Waterdown's best type of citizens, has accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church of Port Colborne, Ont. and will leave for his new charge next Tuesday. Rev. and Mrs. Wedderburn during their residence in the village have made a host of friends here, and will be greatly missed by all. They have always taken a keen interest and active part in causes for the welfare and betterment of the village and its people. Rev. Mr. Wedderburn will preach his farewell sermon Sunday.

The Review along with the large number of friends, extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Wedderburn in their new home.

Gillrie-Matthews Wedding

A marriage of interest took place in Cook's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, on Saturday last between Dr. R. Bruce Gillrie, of Waterdown, and Mrs. Jean Matthews, widow of the late Lieutenant H. E. Matthews, B. S. C., and formerly Miss Jean Johnson, B. A., of Kingston. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Wm. Patterson, and took place quietly in the presence of a few intimate friends and immediate relatives. Dr. and Mrs. Gillrie will reside in Waterdown.

Rah! Rah! Rah!

The coons are coming out May 4th night;

Rah! Rah! Rah! they'll meet you with delight.

When you hear their songs and jokes, elite,

There'll be a hot time in Waterdown alright.

Day by day, in every way, the minstrels are getting better and better. They may sing a false note now and again, but believe me, "Public" efforts will be made to give you one of the best entertainments outside of professionals. So keep the date in mind—Friday, May 4th.
