GLOBE CLOTHING HOUSE

YOUNG MEN'S CLOTHING

There is not a break in our line of CLOTHING. We fit anyone from a three-year-old boy up to a full grown man. When a boy steps out of knee-pants he steps right into our young men's CLOTHING. Styles are the main thing that young men think of. WE think farther and make their CLOTHES as good as the men's. But style is our first thought too. And we pick out patterns for our young men's CLOTHES that don't go into our men's—brighter, livelier and more dashing, and we cut the young men's CLOTHES different—swell garments for spring. Come in, young man, and take a look at the new things.

A MODERN JOB

Faith, patience and six bottles of South American Nervine "made over" Dr. Wright—and all his troubles stand in a disordered stomach.

"As a general builder up of the system I believe nothing can equal South American Nervine. At one time I seemed to be afflicted with almost all the ills that flesh is heir to—indigestion, nervousness, gastric and nasal catarrh, and liver and kidney disorders. This great remedy was recommended to me. I took six bottles in all, and what was apparently a hopeless case was quickly and permanently cured. I felt myself improving from the first few doses."—Noble Wright, Orangeville, Ont.

An exchange says that in order to fit the present days, Franklin's old maxim has been changed. It now reads: "Late to bed and early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise."

It would be well for those interested to remember that the open season for shooting muskrats expired on Tuesday, April 1st, and the season for trapping them closed on Tuesday, the 15th.

Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III, may be bought by the St. Lawrence this summer and taken to Chicago to compete in the international yacht race which is to be held at that place.

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING.

TOPICS OF INTEREST GATHERED FROM FAR AND NEAR FOR REPORTER READERS.

Ernest Nevins, a lineman employed by the Bell Telephone Co., was killed on Tuesday of last week by the breaking of a pole on which he was engaged repairing the line.

A convention of the Liberals of Leeds will be held at Delta on Tuesday, April 22, for the election of officers and other business. It is desired that there shall be a full representation from each municipality.

A farmer in Pennsylvania has started a crow hatcher. He expects to make money from the birds he will raise by selling their heads to milliners for 75 cents each and their wings at 25 cents a pair. That will make the value of a crow $1.

Mrs. James Neville, of Pembroke, lost her voice completely some time ago. A couple of weeks ago she went to Montreal for treatment. Electricity was applied and under the fourth application her voice was regained and is now as strong as ever.

Mr. J. A. Riddick, chief of the Government Dairy Department, has called a conference of all the dairymen in the Dominion for April 29th and 30th to meet at Ottawa. The object of the conference is to discuss prevailing systems of manufacture and also to arrive at a more uniform method of dairying, which may be carried on in future.

THE COUNTIES' LICENSES.—In the discussion of the evils of the liquor traffic we are apt to overlook the steady, persistent gain in the temperance sentiment of the people at large within the last twenty-five or twenty-seven years. In the united counties of Leeds and Grenville alone it is very noticeable. The number of tavern licenses has been reduced from 145 in 1874 to 56 in 1901, while the number of shop licenses has decreased from 35 to 8. In 1876 the number of prisoners committed to the county goal for drunkenness was 84, which was reduced to 58 last year. The greatest number of commitments was made in 1894, when 135 persons served sentences.

Clarence Willix had a lively experience at Alexandria Bay last week. He had brought C. J. Estes' gasoline launch around to Cornwall's dock to take Mr. Estes and Architect Williams up to Cherry Island. There was a leak in the gasoline tank, which let the gasoline flow into the bottom of the boat. As soon as the spark was turned on the flames burst out, completely enveloping Mr. Willix. He jumped overboard head first, the flames following him until he was entirely under water. The boat was quickly turned over and flooded, before the fire had done any damage to the woodwork. This is a warning to owners of boats to thoroughly examine their gasoline tanks before starting out this spring. Don't wait until they rust out, but examine them carefully.

Old John Barlow, of Oak Ridge, Montgomery county, N.Y., puzzles us. We want to do right, and uphold that which is also right, condemning that which is wrong. We have felt that it was our duty to strike the fur of virtue carelessly and deal vice a crack on the head whenever opportunity offered, pointing to one as the angel of peace, purity and long life, and the other as the general passenger agent of the route to damnation. But, as we remarked, when we consider old John Barlow we are mystified. All his life he has drunk liquor, chewed tobacco, smoked a dirty, short-tail, nicotine-saturated, clay pipe, used intense language, been married four times and is willing to marry again and the old duffer is 107! We desire to propagate only correct principles and have thought that our course should point towards sobriety and temperance in all things. But when we would do so, up rises some ancient paradox as John Barlow, with his 107 years, and rears his guide-board with the hand pointing the other way. Such examples are embarrassing to say the least. Old John walks briskly, enjoys life, has unfulfilled hopes of an earthly future, is the father of two sons who are great grand fathers, and is courting a dashing Oak Ridge widow aged 97. We leave the subject without recommendation.

A rule relating to the carriage of baby carriages went into effect on the G.T.R. and other Canadian railroads on April 1st. From that date passengers are denied the privilege of checking them as baggage, but will have to pay a charge regulated by the distance travelled. The minimum charge is 25c.

As an experiment, W. Bailey, of South Mountain, left a hive of bees out all winter in the same place as they were during the summer without covering or protection of any kind, and many times they were buried in the snow but came out all right and are doing well at the present time.

Wm. Gardiner, of Easton's Corners, met with a very painful accident last week. While lifting a can of milk with a crane at the cheese factory part of the handle gave way. The remaining part flew back striking him in the lower part of the face cutting the upper lip through to the gum, and knocking out two teeth. Three stitches were found necessary to close the wound.

Some genius has, according to his own advertisement, invented an apparatus to dispense with getting up so early in winter time to set the kettle boiling. As far as we understand it, you fix the new invention on your clock, and at the hour required it starts a fire under a kettle of water. As soon as the water boils, a bell rings and you wake up. This is not the sort of thing that takes the cake; it simply grabs it. What a blessing this would be to some people in Athens.

E. Frank Fuller, of Syracuse, N.Y., is looking for a job as housemaid. He says the worm has turned, and if the women are going to throw men out of employment by taking their jobs, it is time for the men to do the work abandoned by the women. Mr. Fuller is a widower, evidently well trained by the late lamented Mrs. Fuller who took enough time off from wearing the breeches to teach him all kinds of housework. In an advertisement in an evening paper he proudly announces that he can pickle, cook, bake, wash, iron, do chamber work, sew and darn, scrub, scour, mind babe, knit and crochet. He will work by the day or hour, and guarantee not to flirt with the husband of his employer. He says he is neat and clean about his work, and that he just loves to dabble in dish water. His terms are moderate, and he wants only one afternoon out of a week to do his shopping, and every other Sunday. He will not expect to receive his company in the parlor, but will be satisfied with the kitchen. There will be no "hands out" to the policeman on the beat, and he will not expect the cast off clothes of his mistress as perquisites. Surely, E. Frank Fuller will be a gem of a bird-catch to any one in need of the article. Whoever gets him will have the servant question settled the best way.

LOSS OF APPETITE.

A person that has lost appetite has lost something besides—vitality, vigor, tone.

The way to recover appetite and all that goes with it is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, and makes eating a pleasure.

Thousands take it for spring loss of appetite and everybody says there's nothing else so good as Hood's.

OUR TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

DR. FUNK TO BISHOP POTTER.

A fortnight has elapsed and Bishop Potter has not explained, given proof of, or apologized for, his astounding statement at the church club, on December 30, that "Whosoever prohibition has triumphed, it has educated a race of frauds and hypocrites." In Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont to-day by actual statistics, the consumption of certain preparations containing from 17 to 61 per cent of alcohol, while claret contains only 10 per cent, is larger than anywhere else in the country, and great multitudes of people who are sworn prohibitionists are the consumers.

I have personally requested Bishop Potter—as courteously as I knew how—to let me know where these "actual statistics" can be seen. Many others have asked him the same question through the press. He remains silent. I have written to United States Senator Frye, of Maine, asking whether the Bishop's statements are true. This is the Senator's reply:

"U. S. Senate, Washington, Jan. 8, 1902

"My Dear Sir,—I never heard of the statistics referred to by Bishop Potter, nor do I believe that they exist. The prohibitory law has not 'educated a race of frauds and hypocrites.' . . . In the rural parts of the State there is very little use of intoxicating liquors. There are several hundred fishing and hunting guides in the northern part of our State with whom I am entirely familiar, and I do not know a drunkard among them. Can Bishop Potter say the same about the Adirondack guides? For the last year a law has been enforced in our largest city, Portland, and I am informed by good authority that it has been very effective in suppressing the sale of liquor. If Bishop Potter were right, it seems to me the people of Maine would gladly repeal the law. In my opinion, any attempt to do so would be defeated by a very large majority. "William P. Frye."

I asked the same question of the Governor of Maine. His private secretary, N. S. Parinton, writes, January 9:

"The statements of Bishop Potter are false. No one here is aware of such 'actual statistics' as the Bishop refers to."

The mayor of the city of Portland denies the statements of Bishop Potter with a strong emphasis, and the president of the State Board of Health of Vermont writes that he knows of no trustworthy statistics bearing on the relative sales in different States of proprietary medicines containing alcohol. Now it is certainly "up hard" to the Bishop to speak. When he made his speech he either knew that such "actual statistics" existed, or he did not know it. If he knew it, he can easily say where they are; if he did not know it, then he is guilty of an awful libel

SOME BIG FIGURES.

The Independent Order of Foresters is so well known in Canada that probably those who are specially interested in its work do not pay particular attention to the magnitude of that work. Those who do not will be somewhat surprised to know that during the last year 28,826 applied for membership. As an evidence of the value of this institution in the homes of the country where it is operating it may be said that last year it sent cheques for insurance to 1,455 widows, totalling altogether in payment to widows and orphans and totally disabled brethren, $1,730,920. This, in other words, means that during every hour of the year 1901 the I.O.F. paid to beneficiaries $200 as nearly as may be. It is still more surprising to know that it increased its accumulated funds during the same time by $800,000, or an average of $90 per hour. The I.O.F. and Dr. Oronhyatekha, its Supreme Chief Ranger, are to be congratulated upon these splendid results. The doctor took hold of this institution when it was a struggling, and most people thought, a failing one. It has been largely by his energy and genius that the marvellous results which have been mentioned above have been achieved. Canada owes him a debt of gratitude for bringing such a measure of success to an institution that has done so much to make Canada favorably known abroad. The Supreme Court will shortly meet in Los Angeles, Cal., and it is safe to say no governing body of an institution ever met under more favorable circumstances or with a better report of work and progress before it.—Toronto Daily Globe, March 14.
