Your Mother
(By George Matthew Adams)

The sweetest word in the Language of Languages is that of—Mother.
There is in each letter of this word a wealth of music so Divine—there are vibrating chords of Love so Angelic—that the whole world often pays Homage to Mothers whom it honors.

Nancy Hanks—the Mother of Lincoln; Frances Willard and Jane Adams—Mothers to the Motherless; Queen Victoria—the Mother of a Nation of Mothers.

You—whoever you are—your greatest Asset is your Mother. You—bankrupt, discouraged, failure-riddled, hope-wasted, heart-wrenched, self-estranged—there remains still a Day, glorious in Sunsets for you if you will but get back again, in Thought, or Heart, or Person—to your Mother.

The most wonderful Event in the History of the World was when the first Woman became—a Mother.
Human Life has become a beautiful thing because the world has had its Mothers.

The greatest Characters in every community are the Mothers. The greatest community is that which honors its Mothers most. The greatest men in any community are those who render the highest tribute to Motherhood.

No one ever has Surpassed or ever will Surpass the achievement of a Woman when she becomes a Mother.

When did you last write to your Mother? If she has gone from you, how often do you think of her? Do you realize that all you are or ever hope to be, started away back there when your Mother, her whole being pulsating with Pride, held you tight, and with eyes lustrated and watered with Love, watched you very Breath, and kept pace, over the hours, with your faintest Heart Throb? Think of how, all through those days she wrapped you in her Unselfishness and her Sacrifices.

The measure of your Success will be the degree of Honor you pay to your Mother and to Motherhood.

How many indelicate stories would you tell if your Mother could always be present? How many mean and unjust affairs would you bring to pass if you had the eyes of your Mother looking on? Never mind about the "Apron Strings." There always comes a time when there are no "Apron Strings" to be tied to. And then you will long for them to come back.

If ever Failure begins to press; if ever Friends begin to fade away; if ever the grand figure of your Will shall begin to bow its Power—do this —think of your Mother and live up to her ideals of you.

Kiss your Mother as you go into the fight of this day. And at its close fill her furrowed forehead with your Smiles, Ease her Cares. Write to her though business go to Smash. Go and see her often though it takes you across the Globe. And let her Memory Guide and Inspire you as once you Guided and Inspired her Faith.

Judge Adam Johnston Dies at Vankleek Hill

Vankleek Hill, Oct. 29.—Adam Johnston, Junior Judge of Prescott and Russell counties, died at his residence here this evening at 7 o'clock.
He had been ill for several months, but his death was unexpected until about two weeks ago. He leaves a wife, two sons three stepsons and a stepdaughter. He was born in Williamsburg, Dundas county, in 1853.
He was gold and silver medalist in classics and moderns at the University of Toronto. He unsuccessfully contested Dundas county several times against Sir James Whitney. He was appointed Judge here in 1904. He practised law in Morrisburg for several years. He was formerly Principal of the Gananoque High School, and was one of the best-read men in Canada. His funeral will take place from Morrisburg on Monday next.

National Anthem In Schools

Commencing soon after the issuance of the regulation, every morning at nine o'clock, from every class room of every school in Ontario, the strains of the "National Anthem" will rise, sung by childish voices.

This regulation is to be issued by the Department of Education within a few days, and will take effect at an early date. It provides that the singing of the first three verses of the "National Anthem" shall hereafter be a portion of the morning exercises of every school in the Province.

"It is purely a matter of stimulating patriotic sentiment in the minds of the children," said Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, acting Minister of Education, by way of explanation. There is not too much of that sort of thing in our schools and we thought this might help."

Local Option Campaigns

More than one-seventh of all municipalities in Ontario that remain under license are being attacked by temperance forces, voting to take place at the next municipal elections.
The present situation in the Province is, that of the 847 municipalities, 556 are already dry. Of the 291 remaining under license, 44 vote upon Local Option by-laws in January next. Involved in these campaigns and in the license reduction campaign in Ottawa City, are more than one-sixth of all the licenses of the Province.

Youth Shot and Seriously Injured

Saturday evening about 8.30, a lad named Fred Denby was shot in the leg by another boy named Keith Moxley. The latter was at the home of his father on the corner of Halladay and John Streets, and was watching some boys among whom was young Denby, who were in the vicinity. A wagon belonging to Moxley's father was standing on the street and young Moxley thought the boys intended to play a Halloween prank by taking the wagon away. He had with him a .22 rifle and states that when the boys took hold of the tongue of the wagon, he fired the rifle to frighten them. He had no intention, he says, of hitting anyone, and in fact, did not know until afterwards that Denby was hit, as all the boys ran away when the rifle was discharged.

The wounded boy, who is a son of Mrs. Denby, who keeps a boarding-house on King Street, is receiving treatment at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital. He passed a comfortable night and is resting easily this morning.
At first, he did not know that he was shot by a bullet, thinking that a charge of shot had been used. With his companions, he visited the Grand Trunk Railway station after the shooting and it was not until then that he discovered he was wounded and bleeding. He then walked down to the office of Dr. Macauley, on Court House Square, and, not finding the physician in, proceeded to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, where he was treated by Drs. Macauley and Robertson.
It was found that the bullet had passed through the fleshy part of the right thigh, and the X ray will be used to ascertain if the bone was injured.

Keith Moxley, who is sixteen years of age, and son of Robert Moxley, a traveling salesman, was brought before Magistrate Deacon charged with shooting with intent to do grievous bodily harm. He was defended by J.
A. Hutcheson, K.C.; M. M. Brown, Crown Attorney, appearing for the prosecution. Young Moxley was committed for trial without bail.—Brockville Times.
