THIS IS HORRIBLE.

A Negro Burned at the Stake Down in Alabama.

His Cries Could be Heard for Miles—Had Assaulted a White Woman.

Wetumpka, Ala., October 3.—Winfield Townsend, alias Floyd, a negro, was burned at the stake in the little town of Eclectic 15 miles from this place, a half hour after midnight. The negro's crime was an attempted assault on Mrs. Lennie Harrington, whose husband set fire to the fuel which reduced Townsend's body to ashes.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Harrington was away from home. The negro Townsend came to the house and told Mrs. Harrington that her husband had sent him to get 20 cents from her. She told him she had no change. Then the negro left, but returned in about 10 minutes. The woman's screams were heard by Bob Nichols, a negro who was passing along the road at the time. He ran to the house in time to see the negro escape. As soon as Mrs. Harrington was restored to consciousness, Nichols gave the alarm. The news spread rapidly. All the stores at Eclectic were instantly closed, the ginners and sawmills shut down, the people left their wagons in the road and their plows in the field and gathered for a pursuit of the negro.

FIVE DOLLARS A BOX.

The Price Cut no Figure With Him.

"I want to say for the benefit of some poor dyspeptic that Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets will give comfort and cure every time. Five dollars a box would not stop my purchasing them should I ever suffer again as I did for a week before using them."

The one 50 cent box I bought at my drug store did the work and my digestion is all right again.

Many of my neighbors have also tried these tablets and found them to be just as represented and Mr. Elms also wanted to use his name in endorsing Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets. Signed,

A. ELMS and

CHAS. F. BUZZELL, Asst. Postmaster.

South Sable, Mass.

Mrs. Jas. Barton, of Toronto, Canada, writes: "For eight months I suffered from what I supposed was bladder and kidney trouble, and took medicine from three different doctors, without any sign of cure. I felt all at last I was hardly able to do my work."

I thought I would try a box of Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets and see if they would make me feel any better, never really thinking I had dyspepsia but after only three or four tablets had been taken all the acid trouble disappeared and then I discovered I had had acid dyspepsia, while the doctor had been treating me for kidney and bladder trouble and one of them treated me for rheumatism.

My digestion is fine, my complexion clear and I am able to do my work and law suits are unknown to me.

I am so thankful for finding a cure so good and so pleasant to take as Stuart's Dyspeptic Tablets, because they contain only the simple natural digestives, and taken after meals prevent acidity and caused prompt digestion and assimilation of food.

Physicians everywhere endorse them because they are as safe for the child as the adult; they are invaluable for sour stomach, nervous dyspepsia, heartburn, gas on stomach and bowels and every form of stomach derangement.

BLISS DEFINED.

Mr. Stayathome—Well, did you have a nice time this summer?

Miss Gowan—Oh, perfectly lovely. I was engaged seven times and ate thirty-five pounds of candy.

THE MARKETS

CHATHAM GRAIN MARKET.

Planet Office, Tuesday evening, October 2.

Harry Stevens, of the Kent Mills, gives the following grain gossip:

Wheat.—The deliveries of wheat are not very large at present, owing to the seedling, which is occupying the attention of farmers through the country. The seedling, however, should be through this week, when larger receipts are expected. The demand for flour has been very good, of late, and millers are able to take care of what wheat is being offered on cars to better advantage than exporters, owing to the higher prices they are able to pay.

Oats.—The market is dull. The excellent demand that prevailed for new oats since they came into the market has dropped off and it is very difficult to find buyers now at the price paid during the past month. Mixed are quoted at 21c, and white at 23c.

Barley.—This market is rather active and fair quantities, are arriving at 78 to 80c per cwt.

Beans.—There has been a somewhat improved demand during the past week, and values now stand at the wide range of from 70c to 90c. Some samples will shrink six pounds to the bushel in picking. The active demand is for early deliveries. November are selling at from 10c to 15c per bushel under October, so that growers are anxious to market the crop as early as possible.

Corn.—Deliveries so far are light and the price is nominal at 40 cents per bushel.

Wheat, 65c. Mixed oats, new, 21c. White oats, new, 23c. Corn, shelled, 40c. Beans, 70 to 90c. Barley, 78 to 80c per cwt. Alsike, $6.50 to $7. Red clover, $5.25 to $5.50. Timothy, $1.25 to $1.60.

HAY AND HOGS.

Hay, timothy, per ton, $7 to $7.50. Hay, clover, $5.50 to $7. Hay, mixed, $5.50 to $7.50. Buyers are paying $5 to $6. Live hogs, $5.50 to $5.75.

LOCAL WOOL AND HIDES.

Wool, washed 15c cash; 16 trade. Wool, unwashed, 10c trade; 8 to 9c cash.

Calf skins, No. 1, 7c, No. 2, 6c. Lamb and shearings 40c. Cow hides, No. 1, 6c, No. 2, 5c. Horse hides, $1 to $1.75. Tailors, rendered, 4 to 4 1/2c, and rough 2c.

HOUSEKEEPERS' PRICES.

Butter, 19 to 20c. Eggs, 11c. Green onions, 2 bunches for 5c. Squash, 2 for 5c. Carrots, 10c a peck. Potatoes, 12 1/2c a peck. Apples 10 to 15c a peck. Grapes 25c. Plums, 40 to 50c a basket. Cabbage, 3 to 8c a head. Celery, three bunches for 10c. Chickens, 25 to 35c. Ducks, 25 to 30c. Turkeys, 75 to $1.25. Lamb, 6 to 7c. Mutton, 5 to 6c. Beef, 5c to 6c.

FISH MARKET.

TORONTO BEAN MARKET.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—Beans and plenty coming forward. Choice picked beans are quoted at $1.55 to $1.60.

TORONTO DRESSED HOGS.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—As usual on Monday, deliveries of dressed hogs were light. Prices were firm at $8 to $8.25 per cwt.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKET.

Toronto Oct. 2.—Wheat—Western markets were weak early in the day but closed with a good tone. Local prices were steady. Quotations are as follows:—Red winter, 66 1/2 to 67c; and white, 68c, north and west; goose wheat 65 to 65 1/2c; west; spring wheat, east, 67 1/2c; Manitoba No. 1 hard, g. t. l., 99c; Toronto and west, 96c; same, upper lake ports, 93c, and alfalfa, Fort William, 89c.

A BICYCLE CASE.

Robert S. Dunlop, the South Chatham merchant, was a defendant at this morning's police court. Mr. Dunlop is an enthusiastic cyclist, and was charged with so far neglecting the civic ordinance as to take a forbidden spin upon the sidewalk on the night of Sept. 25. Mr. Dunlop pleaded not guilty, but the evidence of two witnesses, Thomas Tew and Patrick O'Rourke, was produced to the effect that they had witnessed the violation in front of the Station Hotel about 9:30 in the evening. Mr. Dunlop did not put in any evidence for the defence, but briefly addressed the court, explaining that the witnesses were mistaken and claiming that the information resulted from spitefulness on the part of the witness Tew. His Worship regretted any feeling entered into the matter, but pointed out that he must find judgment on the evidence submitted. The defendant, was assessed $1 and costs, in all $5.75. Mr. Dunlop's object in fighting the case was largely to find out who the informer was.

HE IS GOING AWAY.

Father De Paul Has Received a Deserved Promotion.

Father De Paul, after a residence of a little over a year in this city, has received orders to take charge of St. Boniface church in Lafayette, Ind. The news of Father De Paul's advancement only reached this town yesterday but it rapidly circulated throughout his congregation amongst whom he is much respected. Father De Paul, although a resident here for a comparatively short time, has won a warm place in the hearts of all with whom he came contact. His pleasant manner and kind ways have endeared him and his departure will be a decided loss and one none too easily placed. Ever at the call of the sick and needy his warm heart and pleasant words carried sunshine wherever he went. Father De Paul was born in Hamilton, Ohio, and educated at Cincinnati and Louisville, Ky. He has been in the priesthood 10 years and for a young man is making rapid advancement in the church.

In speaking of his departure the Father said it was a great sacrifice for him to leave Chatham and his many friends here. The people, he said, were rather reserved but once you became acquainted with them they were the finest and warmest-hearted people to be met with anywhere. It was impossible for him to express in language his feelings for Chathamites. Not only in the church, but also in the Young Men's Catholic Club, of which he was director, and in the Catholic Order of Foresters, of which he was chaplain, will Father De Paul be missed when he takes his departure on Friday morning.

LIBERALS ARE HOT

At Ex-Ald. Marx For Raising the Question of Prices.

"Say," said a member of the local Liberal "push," "what was the use of putting in that letter of Ex-Ald. Marx? There wasn't anything to it. Why couldn't you drop it in the waste basket and be done with it?"

"The columns of The Planet are open to all readers, irrespective of politics. We couldn't refuse Mr. Marx's letter, and besides he brought up a very interesting question, that of prices."

"Yes, he did. Why in thunder couldn't he keep quiet? If you fellows go into price, I'll cost us fifty votes right here in town—mind, I'm not saying this for publication. Why, everybody knows prices are higher. I don't admit the Government has done it but you can't explain that to people, they're too confounded thick-headed. But we lose votes every day on that price question and why anybody on our side wants to raise it beats me. Just wait till I see Marx."
