Must Pay Idle Employees' Wages.

Warsaw, Feb. 15.—Considerable comment has been caused by the judgment of the Municipal Court at Warsaw, near Leds, ordering the Cedar Street factory to pay the wages of eight hundred employees during the ten weeks the works were closed. The court in rendering judgment said it was not lack of coal, but the price of coal which induced the closing of the works.

Unemployed Pillage Farms.

Madrid, Feb. 15.—The famine in the Meridional Provinces again is grave. The intense cold of recent days has killed the sugar crop in the provinces of Seville, Cadiz, Malaga and Granada. SECOND RHODES' SCHOLAR.

Honor Goes to R. C. Reade Who Has An Excellent Record at the Provincial University.

Robert Cyrus Reade, B. A., '05, of Toronto, has been selected by the University of Toronto to hold the second Rhodes' scholarship open to a nominee of the provincial university. Mr. Reade will join Mr. E. R. Paterson, the Toronto Rhodes' scholar nominated in 1904, at Oxford next October.

There were eight candidates for the coveted scholarship, which is of the value of $1,500 per annum, and is tenable for three years. All the candidates were men of exceptional ability and strength of character. Mr. Reade's nomination is a recognition of merit that will be acceptable to all the students of the university.

He was born 21 years ago in St. John, N. B., but the last 17 years of his life have been spent in Toronto. He attended the Jarvis street and Harbord street Collegiate and Woodstock College, entering the university in 1899 with the prestige of having won the Mary Mulock scholarship in classics. In his first year he won the Mulock scholarship in classics, and stood first in the department of English and history. In his second year he also won first-class honors in classics and in English and history, being awarded the Moss Scholarship. In his third and fourth years he obtained first-class honors in classics. His record of scholarship is, therefore, a very high one.

But the Rhodes' scholarship is granted not only on the condition of excellence in scholarship. Regard is also had to literary attainments, to fondness for and success in many outdoor sports, to qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, kindness, unselfishness, and to ability to attain leadership among men. In all these particulars Mr. Reade was able to show a clean record. In sports he has taken a prominent part at the university. He was a member of the winning Mulock Rugby team and of the Varsity III team. He also played on the '05 hockey team. In cricket he has been a member of the team for two years. Last year he was twelfth man on the Canadian international eleven against the United States, and played with Rosedale against the Marylebone cricket team. He achieved the rare feat last year of taking 123 wickets against opponents of the Rosedale team. No other bowler in Canada can boast of as high an aggregate in first-class Canadian cricket.

He has also displayed good literary ability, having a very light touch and a fine taste. At present he is connected with the editorial department of Saturday Night.

He is a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. His father is at present residing in Ottawa.

Next October the University of Toronto will have three graduates at Oxford, namely Messrs. Paterson and Reade, the Rhodes' scholars, and Mr. S. A. Cudmore, the holder of the J. W. Flavelle scholarship. From now on it is expected that the provincial university will always be represented by three scholarship men at the great English university.

"Tag" Sweethearts.

The crusade against Sunday liquor selling, now in full swing in Trenton, has greatly worried a prosperous saloon-keeper who has five marriageable daughters. It is because he has these daughters that he is worried, and the cause of his anxiety is explained in a communication sent anonymously to a newspaper by one of the young women. She writes that she and her sisters have five young men calling on them Sunday evenings, and her father has objected on the plea that the young fellows coming and going Sunday nights through the side door lead the police to suspect that they are bar patrons getting drinks in violation of the Sunday law. The young woman asks if the five sweethearts should not be "tagged" so they will not be in danger of arrest on their Sunday evening visits.

Saving Trout in Nepigon River.

The Provincial Department of Fisheries has been waging war on the coarse fish which haunt the waters of the Nepigon River and are the natural enemies of the speckled trout which have made that stream famous all over the world. A man from the department in six weeks was able to kill 7,432 pike, 2,282 suckers, and 373 of other kinds. The overseer for the district strongly recommends that this work of extermination be continued. The region is becoming more widely known and more popular than ever among anglers. This is shown by the fact that this year the receipts from anglers' licenses were $1,425.

Are You Tired, Nervous and Sleepless?

Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on properly nourishing blood; they are starved nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby the nerves are properly nourished and all the organs of the body are run as smoothly as machinery which runs on oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and vigorous—you are toned up and invigorated, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting.

The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large, booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run greatly injures the system. One may feel exhilarated and better for a time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of it bears upon its wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in a full list of all its several ingredients. For the druggist to offer you something else is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence.

Every ingredient entering into the "Golden Medical Discovery" has the unanimous approval and endorsement of the leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice. No other medicine should be trusted for like purposes has any such endorsement. The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only processes all the great tonics to be obtained from the roots of Golden Seal root, in all stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, ulceration of stomach and bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its composition is greatly enhanced in its curative action by other ingredients such as Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root and chemically pure triple refined glycerine.

GAS BLOWN OUT.

Wills Did Not Suicide, and the Jury Hint at Murder.

Toronto, Feb. 15.—"That Andrew Wills came to his death at 52 Jarvis street, on Feb. 29, the death was due directly to gas asphyxiation, the same not being suicidal. Whether accidental or due to interference on the part of some person with murderous intent with the object of robbing the deceased, the evidence is not sufficient to warrant a verdict."

"We recommend the premises 52 Jarvis street be closed forthwith by the authorities on sanitary and moral grounds."

"I had a very bad cold which settled on my lungs. I tried many remedies but could get no relief. On the advice of a friend I procured a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Before the bottle was half finished I had not the slightest trace of a cough, and in my opinion Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has no equal as a cure for coughs, colds, or any affection of the throat and lungs."

HEADLESS, YET ALIVE.

Insects That Continue to Exist After Decapitation.

Must persons of an observing turn of mind are aware of the fact that there are several species of insects that will continue to live without seeming inconvenience for some time after decapitation, exact knowledge on the length of time which the various species of insects would survive such mutilation being somewhat vague.

Professor Conestri once undertook a series of experiments with a view of determining that and other facts in relation to the wonderful vitality of such creatures. In each case the head was smoothly removed with a pair of thin bladed forceps, and when spontaneous movements of the wings and legs ceased he employed sundry irritating devices, such as pricking, squeezing and blowing tobacco smoke over the insect. As a result of these experiments he ascertained that members of the beetle family at once showed signs of suffering, while such as ants, bees, wasps, etc., remained for hours unaffected.

Some which seemed stunned from the effects of the operation recovered after a time and continued to live and enjoy a headless existence for several days. Butterflies and moths seemed but little affected by the gutting process, and the common flies (diptera) appeared to regard the operation as a huge joke.

"The common house fly," said the experimenter, "appeared to be in full possession of his senses (rather paradoxical, when in all probability the canary had swallowed head, sense and all) thirty-six hours after being operated upon."

The bodies of some species of butterflies survived as long as eighteen days after the head had been removed, but the head itself seldom showed signs of life longer than six hours after decapitation. In the general summary of these huge experiments we are informed that the last signs of life were manifested either in the middle or last pair of legs and that the myriopods showed great tenacity of life "and appeared wholly indifferent to the loss of their heads."

A FAMOUS MONSTER.

An Old Time Wonder That Had an Eye in Its Knee.

In the writings of both Livetius and Zahn may be found descriptions and illustrations of a monster born at Ravenna, Italy, in the year 1511 or 1512, the exact date being somewhat uncertain. This monster had a body and shoulders like those of a young woman. There was but one leg, gradually tapering from the hips down and terminating in an immense scaled claw, like that of a turkey buzzard. There were four toes, each tipped with a bony nail, three of them pointing to the left and one to the right. The creature had wings in place of arms and always held them in an erect position, as though ready to take flight at the slightest provocation. From the hips to the single knee the flesh was covered with large, well arranged feathers. From the knee joint to the foot the leg was scaled, like that of the common barnyard fowl, the spot where the feathers left the leg and the scales commenced being marked with a large headless eye, which seemed to be altogether incapable of voluntary motion. The neck, head and general outlines of the face were those of a woman, but the ears were large and set very low, almost on the neck.

The head was covered with a queer mixture of scales, feathers and hair, but the oddity of the whole "upper story" was a pointed horn, which rose just in the edge of the hair on the crown of the forehead. This horn was three inches in length, and, according to Zahn, "even a farmer would have mistaken it for the horn of a two-year-old heifer had it been removed and shown to him."

The old time wonder mongers all give pictures and descriptions of this "horned Italian monster," but none tells how long it lived or what was done with the body after death.

The Changing Tides.

The most approved theory among scientists as to the cause of the rise and fall of the tide is that the moon is the dominating cause through its differential attraction upon the opposite sides of the earth, drawing the nearer water away from the earth under the moon for the production of high water large and in like manner drawing the earth away from the opposite waters for the production of high water small. The smaller tidal effect of the sun's attraction becomes noticeable mainly as modifying the lunar tide, increasing it in the spring tides and decreasing it in the neaps and further modifying it in the priming and lagging of the tides.

Death Warning.

Oliver Wendell Holmes recorded his protest against the custom of telling a person who does not actually ask to know that he cannot recover. As that loving observer of mankind asserted, so must every one who knows whereof he speaks assert that people almost always come to understand that recovery is impossible. It is rarely needful to tell any one that this is the case. When nature gives the warning death appears to be as little feared as sleep.

An Evil Communication.

Teacher-Evil communications corrupt good manners. Now, Johnny, can you understand what that means? Johnny—Yes'm. For instance, pa got a communication from ma's dressmaker this morning, and it made him use bad language.

Misfortunes are moral bitters which frequently restore the healthy tone to the mind after it has been cloyed and stricken by prosperity.

Very Lively.

A London paper relates that a crowd of sightseers scurrying across the road from the Strand caused a partial block in the traffic. The lagging of a particularly pompous old gentleman roused the ire of a held up cabby. "Now, then, hurry up there, can't yer?" he shouted. "Am I not hurrying, cabman?" was the mild expostulation. "Urry'n!" snorted cabby, with a flick of his whip. "You're a-jumpin' about like a bit o' stickin' plaster!"

A Diplomatic Answer.

Admiral Drake when a lad at the beginning of his first engagement was observed to shake and tremble very much and, being rallied upon it, observed with a presence of mind, or, at all events, of humor, in which even Nelson was lacking, "My flesh trembles at the anticipation of the many and great dangers into which my resolute and undaunted head will lead me."

TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS BACK

SUFFERED EIGHT MONTHS WITH KIDNEY TROUBLE. WOULD HAVE TO STAY IN BED FOR THREE DAYS AT A TIME

Doan's Kidney Pills

CURED HIM

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Hazeldean, Ont., writes us as follows: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble for eight months. I had terrible pains across the small of my back. I would have to stay in bed for three days at a time and could not do any work. I tried several remedies but they were of no avail, and also plasters but they were of no use."

One day a neighbor of mine advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I was so much discouraged I told him I was tired of trying remedies, but he urged me to try one box so I purchased one, and before I was through using it, I found a change for the better so I got five boxes more, and I have had no trouble with my kidneys since. I would not be without Doan's Pills in my house."

It is really not difficult to cure kidney trouble in its first stages. All you have to do is give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. They are a never-failing cure for all forms of kidney trouble. They quickly relieve the congested, overworked kidneys, and gradually bring them back to health.

Doan's Kidney Pills 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.35, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.
