The Sudanese Baby.

A Sudanese baby when dressed up in the best clothes is probably the most uncomfortable infant in the world. The most or outer garment which fashion dictates should be worn reaches to the very heels. It is of heavy velvet, hanging in many folds. This, in turn, is adorned with countless buttons and tangles of brass, considerably adding to its weight. Its cap, in turn, is of the same material, similarly decorated and doubtless equally uncomfortable.

The Coconut.

Many pagan people regard the coconut as of divine origin because it is so useful. It supplies almost all their needs. With its trunk they build houses, with its leaves they thatch their roofs, the fiber of its shell they weave into clothes, the hard wood of the nuts they cut into bowls and saucers, its rind is their food, its milk is their drink, and its narcotic root they dry and smoke.

THE DIFFERENCE.

What is the difference between history and fiction? Well, answered the living person, one great difference is that fiction frankly owns up to being largely untrue.

Money talks, even with women, when they give it a chance.

Sport in Ancient Rome.

In the palmy days of Rome the number of lions brought from Africa averaged 400 per year for nine years, and with these were leopards, tigers, hyenas, elephants, buffaloes and serpents almost without number. For several years there were 8,000 men employed in Africa in trapping wild animals to make sport for the people of Rome.

Extreme Curiosity.

The fourteen-year-old son of a respectable Jew in Warsaw hanged himself the other day. He left a note, saying: "I have hanged myself out of mere curiosity. I could not help myself. I had to find out what they were doing in the other world."

Both Took Pains.

Young Wife—I took great pains with that cucumber salad, John, and I hope you enjoyed it. Husband (anxiously)—I'm afraid, my dear, that I took great pains with it too.

Emphatic.

First Clubman—A physician should take life easy.
Second Clubman—Some of them do—Schoolmaster.

Neither truth nor love are spared for crowns of thorns.

A tip to a talkative barber seldom acts as hush money.

J. A. McCall IS ORDERED

To Demand Return From Europe of N.Y. Life Lawyer Hamilton.

Insurance Investigating Committee Also Peremptorily Orders High Salary President to Demand an Accounting From Hamilton of the Moneys Expended by Him—Interesting Evidence.

New York, Nov. 14.—John A. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance Co., was called before the Legislative Insurance Investigation Committee yesterday and peremptorily ordered by the committee to demand the return from Europe to the United States of Andrew Hamilton, the lawyer who has charge of the legislative matter for the New York Life. Mr. McCall was further ordered to demand an accounting from Hamilton of the moneys expended by him, and of the balance which he owes the New York Life. Mr. McCall denied that it was the policy of his company to have Mr. Hamilton remain abroad until after the investigation had been concluded, and said that on the contrary he would very much like to have Mr. Hamilton return.

McCall Will Pay If Hamilton Doesn't. Mr. McCall, replying to Mr. Hughes, counsel for the committee, said he had called the attention of the board of trustees of the company to his testimony before the committee relative to Hamilton and gave Mr. Hughes a copy of his statement, which said that if Hamilton did not return to the New York Life the sum of $25,000 by Dec. 31, he would himself pay it to the company. Mr. McCall said Mr. Hamilton was either in Paris or Nauheim.

Another interesting line of examination was opened up just before the adjournment for the day when John McGinnis, an employee of the Equitable Life, produced letter books and memoranda showing instructions from former Controller Jordan of the Equitable to A. C. Fields, relative to the killing or assisting the passage of every bill introduced into the Legislature that would effect or help the interests of the insurance company, or any of its officers. This line of examination will be followed out when the sessions are resumed to-day.

Hegeman on Stand.

Other witnesses yesterday were John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life, and Vice-President Elske, who were interrogated along the line of agents' salaries, legal expenses of the company, real estate holdings and the methods of acquiring properties.

When Mr. Hegeman resumed the stand the statement of his syndicate participations was read. It covered a period of ten years and witness said the syndicates had netted him about $15,000. This amount is exclusive of $16,000 he paid into the treasury of the company in May or June, 1905. This payment was made after consulting counsel, when the Equitable trouble was in the public eye, last spring. Witness said he did this, not because he had done anything wrong, but he did not want to have anyone feel that he was taking advantage of the company or his connection with it.

Got Special Rate.

The low rate of interest at which Mr. Hegeman secured loans and the reason of the rebates of this interest that Mr. Hegeman received from the old firm of Vermilye & Co., was testified to by several members of the stand, which has since gone out of business. The firm was the banker of the Metropolitan, but since March the business has been taken over by Wm. Read & Co. Mr. Read was a witness yesterday, and said that Mr. Hegeman got the loans at a rate below the market because Mr. Hegeman had been a client for a number of years and because of the volume of business he transacted with the firm of Vermilye & Co.

ROWDIES BREAK UP MEETING.

French Presbyterian Evangelist Object of Another Attack.

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Following after the two demonstrations which have been made against Mr. Mage, the French Presbyterian evangelist, who is endeavoring to hold sessions in the east end of the city, another attack was made Sunday evening. On opening the hall, at the corner of St. Catherine and Maisonneuve streets, for the service, it was found that the Bibles and hymn books had been taken, and the electric light bulbs smashed. Not satisfied with this, a strong ammonia was in a highly volatile state, and when opened by unsuspecting people several were temporarily blinded.

In spite of disarrangements Mr. Mage procured lamps and held his meeting. Crowds gathered outside, but the presence of a considerable police force kept them in fair order. During the meeting a malcontent arose and called upon all good Catholics to leave the place. Two or three followed his example, walking out noisily.

Mr. Mage states that he is teaching "higher Christianity," and he proposes to continue his teachings in spite of the rowdy, discordant mobs, who apparently forget that free speech is one of the pillars of the British Empire.

W. C. T. U. Officers.

Hamilton, Nov. 14.—After a spirited contest Mrs. B. B. Wright, London, was elected president of the Dominion W. C. T. U. yesterday. On the final ballot she won out by 56 to 14. The other officers chosen were: Hon. president, Mrs. Anna O. Rutherford, Toronto; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Annie M. Bascom, Toronto; recording secretary, Mrs. E. W. McLaughlin, Montreal; treasurer, Mrs. Sara J. O'Dell, Ottawa; Y. secretary, Miss E. G. Waycott, Westmount, Que.

Fears For Capt. Baird.

Napanee, Nov. 14.—Considerable anxiety is felt here for the welfare of the schooner "Mary" of this port, which vessel left North Fairhaven, N. Y., on Nov. 4, loaded with coal for Napanee, and nothing has been heard from her since. The boat's crew consisted of Capt. Baird, and three other sailors, all married and living here.

Social Tragedy

Women Who Brave Death for Social Honors.

In the midst of one of the most brilliant social functions of the season, a noted society woman started suddenly from her chair with a scream of agony and fell insensible to the floor.

A few hours later the distinguished physician told her anxious husband that she was suffering from an acute case of nervous prostration brought on by female trouble, and hinted at an operation. Fortunately a friend advised her to try

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The result was that she escaped the surgeon's knife and to-day is a well woman.

The derangement of the delicate female organism sets every nerve in the body quivering with pain. Headaches, backaches, torturing bearing down pains and dragging sensations make women nervous and hysterical.

Mrs. T. E. Gillis, of Windsor, N. S., writes:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was suffering with weakness and womb trouble, headaches, backaches, and that worn-out, tired feeling. I have only taken the Vegetable Compound a few short weeks, and it has made me well, strong and robust. I believe that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is without equal for female troubles.

Mrs. Laura Emmons, President Loyal Home Workers, Walkerville, Ont., writes:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am enjoying such good health that I feel it a duty to write and thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge and weakness which no amount of medicine, diet or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound, however, reached the root of my trouble, cured me and made me strong, healthy and well. I want to say to every suffering woman, don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's advice is free to all. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

Slips of Artists.

It is a part of the seeming ill luck belonging to circumstance that an artist may spend time and genius on a piece of work and then fall conspicuously in some detail.

There is a story that one royal academical gave a hand five fingers and a thumb and that another painted a live lobster bright red.

The clever Goodall had been engaged in painting a number of laborers dragging a huge stone across the desert, and a man of science, entering the studio, said to him:

"I say, Goodall, if you want those fellows to pull that stone you must double their number. It would take just twice as many."

But it is not modern painters alone who slip up on points of accuracy. Even Albert Durer, in a scene representing Peter denying Christ, painted one of the Roman soldiers in the act of smoking. Turner put a rainbow beside the sun, and in another picture he got woefully tangled in the ship's rigging.

Incident of the Reign of Terror.

A dramatic incident of the reign of terror in France was the saving of her father's life from the guillotine by Mlle. de Sombreuil. M. de Sombreuil and his daughter were condemned to death at the time of the September massacres and were waiting in the cart, surrounded by the mob, for their turn to mount the scaffold. Mlle. de Sombreuil turned to the crowd and asked what harm a weak old man like her father could do to the nation. Some of the men answered that if she would drink a glass of blood to the nation they would let him go and passed up a glass. She drank it down immediately. The crowd took her and her father from the cart. They escaped and made their way to England. She thought at the time she drank blood, but afterward she concluded that it was red wine, for she saw no one stoop to fill the glass. To her death she was never able, however, to see red wine in a glass without a shudder.
