LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Mrs. Elbridge Good of Saco, Maine, has been visiting friends in Centreville and vicinity for a few days. She left for home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gannon, Mr. Sherwood and Miss Watson of St. John spent a few days with Mrs. Giles and Earl last week. They motored through on Sunday and found the roads unusually bad after the heavy rain.

Mrs. F. M. Brown is spending a few weeks in St. John.

Mr. Williamson of the United Farmers, has moved into the Watin house on Mill street.

Dr. Wright visited the school on Monday and vaccinated several of the pupils.

Mr. McCallan has moved into the front part of Harvey Kinney's house.
Brom and Bert Hawkins and Harry Verhler went on a hunting trip to Minnetonka on Monday.

Mrs. Emmeline Webb is quite ill at her home here.

Mrs. Burt White entertained the Blue Ribbon Society on Tuesday. About 30 were present and the collections amounted to $5.75.

The W.M.S. of the Methodist church met at the parsonage on Tuesday. A very encouraging report was given by the delegates who attended the Convention in Lakesville last week.

A number of losses have been reported lately in the village, among which are, pair of glasses, gold brooch, gold padlock bracelet, and fountain pen. The latter was dropped on Sunday between the Methodist church and Mr. Dowling's. Any one finding any of the articles, will kindly leave same at C. R. Cliff's or G. E. Wilson's store.

Mr. John Johnston went to Fredericton on Friday to spend the week-end with his niece, Miss Mary Gallagher.

FLORENCEVILLE FACTS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster and children of Mt. Pleasant were callers at Mr. and Mrs. George Foster's on Sunday.

Mrs. George St. Gray, Mrs. W. H.
Fowler and Miss Muriel McCain left on Monday for Moncton to attend the Women's Institute Convention.

Holley Wandless of Woodstock was a caller at his sister's, Mrs. Hedley Jewett's, on Saturday.

Miss Grace Gibson spent the week-end at her home in Wicklow.

Raymond McCain returned home from Presque Isle on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Welch and Mrs.
Wm. Hagerman motored to Houlton on Monday.

James Gibson spent the weekend at his home in Bath.

Bob Gray left on Tuesday for Cab-ano where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. Charles McKay, formerly Helen Orchard, will receive for the first time since their marriage at her home in Florenceville on Thursday, Oct. 21, in the afternoon only.

Mrs. H. McMullin

The death of Mrs. Roman McMullin occurred very suddenly at her home, Boundary Line, on Tuesday morning at an early hour. The late Mrs. McMullin is survived by her husband and two daughters. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. McMullin, whose sister, Mrs. Durkin, was buried on Tuesday.

S. W. Smith is offering $24 for Pulp wood terms cash when loaded. Good scale and prompt returns guaranteed.
Would also buy your green pulp wood for next winter.

FOR SALE

One black mare, nine years old, 1500 lbs., a beauty sound and smooth; will load 10 miles an hour. Has done all kinds of farm work. Owner refused $275 offered by Dr. Pugsley of Woodstock three years ago. Also a rubber tire wagon, good as new; one steel tire wagon, one express wagon, three sides single harness, one new bedroom suit. All at great bargain. Reason for selling: owner going west.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE NOTES

The friends of Master Ronald Smith are all sorry to know that he broke his arm attempting to crank a car and hope he will soon be able to join his peers at school again.

Posters are out for a Halloween Carnival on Sept. 28 under the management of the Women's Institute; also a Masquerade Ball on Sept. 29, with Knowles orchestra in attendance. Both these affairs will be held in Smith's Hall.

Miss Helen Dinges of Glasville was united in marriage to Harold Mac-Dougall of Bristol, at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday afternoon, October 8. They were accompanied by Mr. Lamont and Miss Lily Robinson, who acted as witnesses. The bride was attired in a blue serge suit, with furn and hat of black trimmed with jet. After the ceremony which was performed by Rev. P. A. Wightman, the happy couple left on the express for a brief trip. They will reside in Bristol on return.

Mrs. Walter Crocker of Truro, N. S., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Edward Saunders.

Misses Amy and Mildred Tompkins, Misses Stella Hunter and Louise Wrightman motored to Houlton on Tuesday last.

Miss Muriel Hunter will arrive home Friday from the Provincial Normal School at Fredericton, where she is a pupil, to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J.
C. Hunter.

Mr. Wm. Hunter of Ripple is visiting relatives here.

Rev. Thos. Pierce left for Rich-brooke on Wednesday on a business trip.

Rev. P. A. Wightman was called to Knowlesville on Wednesday to conduct the funeral services of the late Mr. Kinney who was accidentally drowned in the Miramichi river.

The ladies of the United Baptist Church will serve a Harvest supper in their church basement on Thursday, Oct. 21. Don't miss this opportunity of satisfying the appetite of that "inner man," because chicken will do it!
