

Russians Continue to Make Good Progress

With the Capture of Przemyśl the Austrian Power Will be Shattered

Paris, Sept. 17—The Matin has received a special despatch from Petrograd, which says that the Russians have occupied Przemyśl, on the San River.

London, Sept. 17—A despatch from Petrograd to Reuter's gives this outline of the situation in Galicia. The position of Grodek, occupied by the Russians, is 13 miles west of Lemberg and is situated on the heights under which a chain of six almost connecting lakes stretch out toward the Russian frontier, forming a natural defence for 14 miles, running north and south. The Austrians abandoned this position after the capture of Lemberg.

Moskowsk to which the Russians have advanced, is a little over 40 miles west of Lemberg, on the main line between Przemyśl and Lemberg.

The shattered second Austrian army was evidently incapable of staying the Russian advance, and took refuge in Przemyśl, from which the Russians, according to the latest official report, are only 19 miles away.

Great enthusiasm continues to prevail throughout Russia and all classes are doing their utmost to help in the present emergency. At Moscow the burghers guild has offered to shave and cut the hair of soldiers free of charge, while at Vilna, 15 cab drivers have offered their services for the transportation of wounded.

Vienna, Sept. 17—Messages from special correspondents in Galicia lay stress upon the numerical superiority of the Russians, whose army divisions are composed of sixteen battalions of infantry, with cavalry and artillery, and unlimited supplies of ammunition. The Russian divisions are considerably stronger than the Austrian, especially as regards artillery.

Austrian soldiers declare that for every ten Russians killed twenty came in their places. The Russian artillery fire, they said, was wonderfully good, but the infantry work was of an inferior kind.

London, Sept. 17—In summing up recent Russian operations, the Petrograd correspondent of Exchange Telegraph Company says:

"The Russians have been successful in the fighting with the retreating Austrians along the whole front, and news is continually coming in of the capture of further prisoners and guns on the left bank of the river."

In Eastern Prussia all of the German efforts to surround a portion of the Russians have failed."

Whole German Plan Changed

(Bulletin Special Wire)

Montreal, Sept. 17—The whole German plan of campaign seems to have been changed. It has been determined apparently to act entirely on the defensive for the next few weeks in France, and to pursue a vigorous campaign in East Prussia. Large reinforcements have been received by Gen. Von Kluck and Gen. Von Buelow on the Allies extreme left. It appears as though the intention was to drive this end of the allies back and make a fresh attack on Paris.

FIRST CANADIAN CONTINGENT WILL LEAVE 40,000 STRONG

Montreal, Sept. 17—Plans are now almost completed for the making up of a second continental contingent, which it is expected will be ready to sail the first of the new year. The first contingent will leave 24,000 strong. The second contingent will be about 16,000 strong. Sufficient reserves will be gathered together to send at intervals, so as to keep the total of the Canadian contingent up to 40,000 total strength.

CONTRIBUTIONS AMOUNTING TO $236,150 HAVE ALREADY BEEN PAID TO PATRIOTIC FUND

Montreal, Sept. 17—Altogether there has been paid to the Hon. W. T. White in contributions to the Patriotic Fund $236,150, and there are promises of much more yet to come.

THE BELGIAN COMMISSION WILL VISIT CANADA BEFORE RETURNING

Montreal, Sept. 17—The Belgian Commission now at Washington to protest to the United States government against the German atrocities, will pay a visit to Canada before leaving again for Europe.

REPORT OF BATTLE BEING FOUGHT ALONG THE BANK OF AINSE

Montreal, Sept. 17—News from the theatre of war is scarce. A report of a battle being fought along the bank of the Aisne says both sides are putting up a stubborn fight. It says that should the Germans be defeated and driven back to any distance, it will mark the beginning of the end in France.

Petrograd, Sept. 18—All of the Russian newspapers today follow up yesterday's suggestions with emphatic demands that Italy join in the war on the side of the Allies.

GERMANS YIELD BEFORE ALLIES

Paris, Sept. 17—The Germans are slowly giving way in the great battle that continues today all along the line of the river Aisne, according to official announcement made in Paris this afternoon.

GERMANS ARE KILLING THEIR OWN TROOPS

Troyes, France, Sept. 16—A Saxon officer, a prisoner of the French, declares that near Malines the German artillery annihilated a Prussian regiment, which it had mistaken for French.

SANITARY MEASURES ON BATTLEFIELDS AROUND PARIS

London, Sept. 16—(8.40 p. m.) Reuter's Paris correspondent says that 8000 Frenchmen left Paris early today to carry out under direction of the army medical service such sanitary measures on the recent battlefields as will free the capital and the region round about from all danger of infectious diseases.

GENERAL VON KLUCK'S ARMY IS EXPOSED

Paris, Sept. 20—The steady advance of the French and British on the left Kluck's flank is now exposed. Explaining why after the battle of the Meuse the French didn't seek to check the Germans at fort Lille, an expert says that our artillery tested the effect of modern shells on fort Malmoulin and it was destroyed in a few hours. We came to the conclusion that Lille, Laon, Rheims, couldn't hold out against the German guns, as none of them possessed the indispensable concrete capraces with which our eastern forts are protected. It would have been well to destroy the Rheims forts before the war because it was from the eastern and northern works that the Germans just steeled the city.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL
Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Miss BERTHA A. PELOQUIN, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.
Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

HEAVY FIELD GUN WHICH THE GERMANS ARE USING. This style of weapon is usually used as a siege gun, but the Germans are using them in the field after surrounding the wheels with "caterpillar feet." The principal projectile of this gun is shrapnel, but it also fires a high explosive shell at times.

Allies Repulsed German Offensive

Flanking Movements Drawing Out Armies of General Von Kluck and Von Buelow

Paris, Sept. 18—It was announced officially at three o'clock this afternoon that the Allies had progressed somewhat. The western wing was declared to have repulsed a vigorous German offensive.

The battle continues and our lines hold everywhere was the comment at Military Headquarters earlier today. "It indicated that no change had taken place and that the Allied armies were still unable to make any serious impression on the new German defence line stretching almost across northern France.

The fighting is especially desperate on the left where the joint armies of Generals von Kluck and von Buelow were compelled to extend their extreme right in order to meet a flanking movement in force.

As has been the case heretofore when the struggle along the vast battle line in France has been most acute, the public in England, as well as in France and Germany, have been forced to content itself with the most meagre reports of the progress of the operations. Experience has shown that extended statements are issued, only after the retirement or the temporary defeat of one army or the other. The information this morning sets forth laconically that the battle is raging with great fierceness along the whole front, which extends roughly speaking from the river Oise, near Nogon, to the German fortress of Metz, but, barring a slight retirement of the German right wing at certain points, no decided advantage is credited to either side.

A study of the orders given by Napoleon indicates the care he exercised to have a sufficient supply of shoes provided. On one occasion he wrote: "You know that shoes are always needed in war," and at another time he said to Baron Lejune: "Shoes help on marches, and marches win battles." To Sir John Burgovne's question addressed to Wellington: "What was the first requirement of a soldier?" "A good pair of shoes," he replied. "And the second requirement?" "A good pair of shoes for a change." "And the third?" "A pair of soles for repairs."—Scientific American.

Russians Cut up Two Austrian Army Corps

Petrograd, Sept. 18—Official reports received today say that the fourteenth and the sixteenth Austrian corps, which have been doing the bulk of the fighting protecting the Austrian retreat, were badly cut up in yesterday's fighting. General Rouzaev's reports received today show that he took 5,000 additional prisoners, 53 guns and large quantities of arms and ammunition.

The Austrian armies are now united. The right wing, now commanded by General Bornevo, centres at Drohobycz and holds the railway line from there to Chyrow, thus ensuring an excellent line of retreat should it be too hard pressed by the Russian armies, reported advancing from St. Ry.

Four New British Armies In the Field by the Spring

Earl Kitchener Has No Belief in an Early Termination of the Struggle, and Declares that Germany Must Be Beaten Beyond All Hope of Recovery

London Sept. 18—Earl Kitchener's calm estimate, given in the House of Lords last night, of the force we will have in the field next spring, is a useful reminder to the easy optimists of America and elsewhere and to a few even in England, who talk as though the hoped for victory in the battle on the Aisne, still raging, would end the war. Speaking as War Secretary for the whole Government, Earl Kitchener announced that four new British armies would be in the field in the spring of 1915, and would be of utmost service as fresh troops either to support the invasion of Germany or, if then still necessary, the German troops from France and Belgium. Adding to this Churchill's new naval brigade, 15,500 strong, and 210,000 officers and men serving the fleet, it is seen the Mother Land has already in service and training 1,420,000 men, without reckoning the Dominions and Indian troops, and the British troops left in India.

Earl Kitchener again reminded the nation that the war was bound to be a long one, but that one spirit animates England, France and Russia, and it shall be fought to such a finish that Prussian militarism will be put beyond all chance of recovery, and the small nationalities of the world would be safe from destruction.

German Fleet in Baltic Fire on Each Other

While Hunting Down Passenger Steamer Mistook Own For Enemy's Ships

London, Sept. 18, 2.50 a. m.—Telegraphing to the Times its Petrograd correspondent says:

"Reports of disaster to the German fleet in the Baltic have been confirmed by despatches received here which declare that German warships fired upon each other. All rumors of engagements with the Russian fleet in the Baltic, however, are untrue.

"The information reaching Petrograd is that a numerous flotilla, attended by cruisers, while engaged in hunting down passenger steamers, mistook their own for the enemy's ships and engaged in a lively battle. The number of vessels crippled is unknown, but several cruisers entered Kiel badly mauled and riddled and carrying many wounded."
