

Goderich Township

Mr. J. C. Smith has been re-engaged in S. S. No. 11, for 1883. That he gives good satisfaction is evidenced by the fact of his re-employment.

Colborne.

The following are the names of the pupils of S. S. No. 4, who stood highest for October. Fourth Class—Emily Mitchell, 2 Henrietta Halliday. Third Class—R. Martha Blake, 2 Mary Pfeiffer, 3 John McClure. Second Class, Sen.—1 Mary McClure, 2 Mary Pannebaker, 3 Agnes Flick. Second Class, Jr.—1 Claude Fisher, 2 Catherine Blake, 3 S. Pfeiffer. Part II, Sen.—1 Walter Allin, 2 Edward Pfeiffer, 3 Claude Mitchell. Part II, Jr.—1 John Flick, 2 Wesley Fisher.

Stanley.

GOOD FIGURE.—Mr. Edward Glen purchased a two year old filly from Mr. McDougall, Goderich township, for $200. Mr. Donald Smith also purchased lately a young mare paying therefore $205.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday last while Mr. Wm. Scott was oiling the belted gear attached to the fanning mill of the threshing machine, the third finger of the right hand was caught by the gearing and smashed to a jelly. The finger was almost severed from the hand, and had to be cut off. Threshers cannot be too careful while working with machinery.

Wingham.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A few days since the remains of a young man named Helps, whose people reside in E. Wawanosh, were sent here for interment, deceased having been killed in Manitoba. It appears from Winnipeg papers of the 2d of November, that on the day previous he was engaged in coupling cars on the C. P. R. near Morris, Manitoba. While the locomotive was backing up he was seated on the brake bar and leaped to the ground to perform his task. The brake bar was covered with ice, and falling to make the distance he judged for the spring, he fell on the rail and the engine passing over him, taking off both legs above the knee, and the right arm above the elbow. He was picked up unconscious and placed upon a train for Winnipeg, but when 19 miles from Morris he died. Shortly after the accident he said to one of the men who was trying to alleviate his pain—"I always wanted to go railroading, and now I have had enough of it. Knock me on the head and put an end to my sufferings."

Bayfield.

There is no prettier location in the county for a town, than this occupied by the village of Bayfield, but notwithstanding its admirable location, it is not making any progress, in fact, it almost appears to be retrograding. At the harbor the large and substantial storehouses, which were expected to prove such a boon, are tumbling to pieces, and it seems too bad that buildings like these, and also a number of houses in the village, should go to ruin, but there is apparently no alternative for it. A few years since quite a profitable business was carried on in fish, but this profitable resource has died out completely, owing to the failure of the "crop" in this locality. The people talk "railway" and apparently think that the torpor which exists will only be banished when that desideratum is an accomplished fact. The village, notwithstanding its lack of vitality, has several things on which it can be congratulated. It has a good school, under the excellent tuition of Mr. Stuart; it has three churches, supplied with spiritual food by men of culture, intelligence, and broad liberal views, in the persons of Revs. Messrs. McCosh, Baugh and Patterson. It has a good Reeve, who is respected and esteemed by even those who do not agree with him in everything, and last, but not means least, it has some admirable young ladies in its midst, who combine all the qualities of modesty, virtue, grace and refinement, in their characters. Clinton.

OUT OF JOINT.—On Thursday Mr. A. Couch was slipping down from the inside of his meat safe, when he stepped on a stone, which threw his ankle out of joint. He is now under the necessity of using crutches.

LES BROKEN.—While playing in the school yard during recess, last Thursday, a son of Mr. Thomas Tipling, aged about 13 years, by some means had his leg broken. It was twisted round, and was very difficult to set.

Mr. A. Burchell, of this place, has been engaged to teach in S. S. No. 10 East Wawanosh, at a salary of $375. This is his first engagement, but we feel certain that he will give complete satisfaction in the section, and can recommend people thereof.

Mr. S. Megaw and wife, have just returned to town. They spent five weeks in visiting different parts of Ireland, but the weather was so wet all the time they were there, that it militated against their pleasure. Mr. Megaw intends to reside here for the future.

Miss Duncan, one of the Modelites in attendance on the school here, has been engaged for one of the divisions of the Wingham school, at a salary of $225. Miss McEwan, another Modelite, has been engaged for Lumley school, at a salary of $300. Both are well qualified to discharge their respective duties.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday evening, as Mr. John Thompson, of Hullett, was driving down the Hill at the north side of the town on the base line, the bolt that fastens the wheelbarrow to the heels of the horses, and fastening them, fastening them to run away, the ring of the wheelbarrow being on to the tongue till the harness and its contents were dished a few yards from starting. Mr. John Mason found Mr. Thompson and wife lying helpless in the ditch, and brought them to town when medical aid was obtained. Mr. Thompson having a small laceration in his leg broken, and his wife a severe sprain in the back. They were able to go home that evening.

horses were caught a short distance down the base line, and remained in Pike's stable all night. They were uninjured.

COUNTERFEIT BILLS.—Recently a party associated with one of the banking institutions in town took possession of the art of detecting counterfeit money, and was boasting afterwards that he could detect a bogus bill of any denomination. A person having in his possession a bogus $5 and $10 bill, asked that they be placed to his credit, simply to test the ability to detect the bills, but they were such clever counterfeiters, that they passed all right, but were, of course, subsequently withdrawn. They were afterwards presented to quite a number in town, scarcely one of whom were able to detect anything wrong about them. The only perceptible difference between them and genuine bills is the quality of the paper, the latter being of better quality. It is beyond question that a large number of counterfeit bills are in circulation, but where they are so well executed there is no possibility of detecting them. [New Era.

A Few Points on Whisky from a Barkeeper's Standpoint.

"Yes, there is such a thing as good, pure whisky."
"Where can it be obtained?"
"At many places."
"At saloons?"
"Not often."
"Drug stores?"
"Seldom."
"Where then?"
"Well, the fact is, I know of only two lots of pure whisky—except, of course, a few packages owned by private individuals and not for sale—in Detroit. One is at the store of—"
"Never mind the place. Now tell me, what profit can be made on a barrel of whisky?"
"That depends on whether it is retailed by the drink or measure, and on the class of people you sell it to."
"How much water can you put into a gallon of $3 whisky without giving the cheat away?"
"Oh a pint never would be noticed, and sometimes more is put in."
"That is to say you can sell 50 or 75 cents worth of water to every gallon of whisky?"
"Yes, and sometimes more?"
"How many drinks of whisky are estimated to the gallon?"
"Sixty. That is the average of a gallon, because some men take large drinks, while others take little "nips," and so we have come to average it at sixty drinks."
"That is $6 per gallon, for all kinds of whisky sold over a bar?"
"No, because there are bars where whisky is sold at five cents, and others where fifteen and twenty cents a drink is charged."
"Yes, the average profit on a gallon of whisky sold by the glass is 300 to 400 per cent?"
"I should say about that."
"Now how many of your regular customers can tell $3 whisky from whisky which cost you $2 or less?"
"Very few. I have, perhaps, fifteen or twenty men who are accurate judges of good liquor; can tell the various brands immediately, and to whom I would not dare offer any diluted or 'doctored' liquors."
"How do you know, but you may sometimes make a mistake and set out poor liquor to a good judge?"
"You can sized a man up generally. For instance, the other day when I was pretty busy a fashionable young man came in and called for a 'gin fizz.' I began mixing the drink and when I had it nearly concocted I realized that I had used whisky instead of gin. I looked at my man, thought 'never mind; let her go, and squirring a little stuff into the drink which kills the smell of gin or any other liquor for that matter, I passed it to my customer."
"Did he drink it?"
"Drink it? Yes indeed, and he never knew whether he was drinking a 'gin fizz' or a whisky cocktail."
"How did you escape detection?"
"My man didn't know anything about liquor. He was just drinking for the style of the thing."
"It's a queer business isn't it?"
"Yes, it is, and I'm going to get out of it as soon as possible."

A General Stampede.

Never was such a rush made for any Drug Store as is now at Wilson's for a Trial Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. All persons afflicted with Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Severe Coughs, or any affection of the Throat and Lungs, can get a Trial Bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at above Drug Store. Commenting on the disgraceful scene which took place during the sale of an "autograph quilt" at Lucan the other day, the Globe says:—"In seeking for contributions the churches should appeal to men's higher motives—not to the low ones of vanity, love of sensation, and partisanship.— Churches should do a good many things, we are sorry to say they do not, and there is no question whatever, but that many of the devices resorted to for the raising of money are an appeal to vanity and sensation. Giving should always be voluntary, prompted by right principles and to worthy objects."

Beautiful Hair is one of the most striking and pleasing characteristics and can easily be obtained by the use of the Cingalese Hair Renewer. Sold at 50 cents per bottle by James Wilson.

Killed on the Shelf.

Mr. Thos. Clayton, Shelburne, Ont., writes:—"I have been suffering with a lame back for the past thirty years, and tried everything I heard of without success. Not long ago I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and to my surprise I found it a most effective remedy. I had been told that it was only good for rheumatism, but I have been a sufferer with rheumatism for years. I was laid up with a severe attack a short time ago, and I can truly say that St. Jacobs Oil produced the quickest relief that I ever experienced. I cheerfully recommend it to every sufferer."

Pining for Chicago Morality.

The London Free Press having called the attention of its readers to the fact that "Chicago has a saloon to every 160 of its population," regretfully adds: "London has only one to every 300." It is to bring Ontario towns and cities to the level of Chicago in the matter of saloons that the Free Press cries aloud for the revocation of the Crooks Act and the restoration of the licensing power to the municipalities.
