Denies "Castaway's" Statements.

In a letter to Mr. R. O'Dwyer, Commissioner of Charities, Mr. Mackey, the Relieving Officer at Carbonear, denies the statements contained in a letter from Harbor Grace, signed "Castaway." Mr. Mackey's statement of the facts is as follows:

"On the 4th July Capt. Jacob, Vincent and others called at my office and reported having two castaways on board vessel and wanted to know what was to be done with them. I had doubts about my jurisdiction and sought the advice of a friendly and prominent official, who advised me to wire St. John's for advice. Immediately after getting a reply I telegraphed the owners, John J. Rose, of Harbor Breton, and received his instructions about 8 p.m., and used all the despatch in my power to put them into effect. I had $5.00 each placed in the hands of the parties, who that same night made some purchases of clothing instead of getting it next morning, as stated in letter. Long before I heard from John J. Rose I engaged board and lodging for them and brought them to the house, but for special reasons they preferred living on board vessel, where they spent the night, and not, as stated in letter, that they spent it on the streets. I can prove beyond a doubt they came on shore to the railway station in a dory next morning, bought tickets and went to St. John's to join their vessel."

Mr. Sexton Explains.

Mr. John Sexton, of Wood's candy store, called at the office to-day to say that there was no row between himself and the milkman Tuesday morning. It was simply skylarking between the milkman and the messenger boy upstairs in the kitchen of the candy store. The boys are about 17 years of age. Mr. Sexton says that he did not know anything about a row till he read it in the Telegram.

WOODS' Candy Stores will serve Refreshments at Harbor Grace Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Also at Mosquito Point on Thursday in connection with the Guy Celebration.—aug16,21

The Tragic Story of Katherine Breshkolsky

There is a woman of sixty-eight on her way to Siberia to-day. She is Katherine Breshkolsky, who had already served twenty-three years in Siberia and is now on the Great Siberian Road again. Like Johnnie Armstrong, "She lay down to bleed a while and then rose to fight again."

Katherine Breshkolsky's trial, which took place a few weeks ago, was remarkable not because of any inherent exceptional quality, but because of the fact that the whole world was interested. Viewed from the Russian standpoint, it was but a replica of what takes place all over Russia in thousands upon thousands of cases, day in and day out.

She was tried, together with Nicholas Tchaikovsky, after having been kept in the Fortress of Peter and Paul for nearly two years. The exact indictment against either of them is not known, but she when she was asked if she were a member of the Social Revolutionary Party, she answered "Yes," but that her work was in no way connected with Tchaikovsky.

Thus he was acquitted. He chose to deny facts to the Government, on the Government, seeing that the eyes of the world were watching, wished to appear lenient and did not ask embarrassing questions. At any rate, Tchaikovsky was freed. Katherine Breshkolsky would not let herself be freed. Having conceived a certain idea, compromise was impossible. The idea led her to the Great Siberian Road—Rose Strunsky, in the August Forum.

Fish Suffer from Boils

Funny Tribes of France Acquired Disease from America.

It has just been made public by the Paris Academy of Sciences that as a reason why the fish are not biting readily this year is that the funny creatures are suffering from a plague of boils. The disease has been found in several German fishes and in trout in France. Prof. Dastre says that the plague came originally from America with imported minnows. Trout, salmon, pike and other varieties are affected with the dangerous eruptions.

Sportsmen of Europe do not welcome this gift of young America to the old world. They think the scourge already has made considerable headway in lakes and rivers.

BERLIN, Aug. 16.
Sir Ernest Cassel, the English financier, has arranged, according to an announcement made here to-day, to establish a foundation of one million dollars, the income of which is to be used for the benefit of poor Germans seeking employment in England and poor British subjects seeking work in Germany, who are without money for their support. The new foundation will be in memory of the late King Edward of Great Britain, who was a friend of Sir Ernest's and with whom the financier had been closely associated for many years. Sir Ernest, though a British subject, has retained his interest in his native land, Germany. He was born in Cologne in 1852. In addition to his English knighthood he wears the Order of the Crown of Prussia, one of the highest German decorations.

AMIENS, France, Aug. 16.
The first aerial race between the birds of nature and man's production took place in the course of the great cross-country competition, and was easily won by man. A flock of 47 carrier pigeons was released at Douai yesterday at the same instant that Le Blanc in his Farman biplane started from the mark on his 50 mile flight. Amiens, rushing without a tremor through the calm air. The biplane soon outdistanced the birds, and when Le Blanc reached here the flock was not then in sight, the first pigeon arriving 6 min. 20 sec. after Le Blanc.

Prospects for the Flonders.

We had an interview with Captain Jackson of the s.s. Harmony, which arrived back from Labrador yesterday. Capt. Jackson was as far north as Hebron. There were no schooners there on Aug. 5th, and only one had gone below that up to that date. At Okak coming south Capt. Jackson met 12 schooners fishing at Magford Tickle. He spoke to the captains of three of them, who told him that the fleet had only arrived there a few days before and that the fish was just striking in. "All had their traps out and had already made three or four good hauls of from ten to twenty quintals each. They told him that they could not wish for a better sign, and judging from experience they expected to get all they wanted in three or four weeks. This was on Aug. 7th. Coming on south the s.s. Harmony next called at Lower Cutthroat. There were about fifty schooners anchored there since Aug. 4th and all were getting fish, and reported that the fish was striking in as good as ever it was found there at this season. The prospects were very bright and the skippers were all hopeful of getting good voyages. Coming on south to the port of Nain, Capt. Jackson met about 150 schooners on Aug. 9th, all looking light and going north. There were no schooners at Nain and no fish there. Between Nain and Hopedale, the last port of call, the Harmony met about 200 more schooners all pressing north under full sail. They were most likely all going to Cape Mugford and Seglick Bay and the usual favorite fishing places for the Green Bay and Bonavista Bay fleet. It is a well known experience that August is the prime month for fish down there, and as it will be seen from what the skippers at Mugford told Capt. Jackson that the fish was just striking in on that part of the coast the first week in August that the northern Labrador is going to turn out all right.

Race to Bankruptcy.

BERLIN, Aug. 16.
The Government's Naval Bill to be laid before the Reichstag this autumn will ask for an appropriation to build three battleships, and one battleship cruiser. Included with these four superior Dreadnoughts will be appropriations to replace two old battleships sold to Turkey, which under the regular naval programme would not be asked for before the autumn of 1911. Germany will thereby gain a lap in the race with England for supremacy in Dreadnought construction, having two of the latest developed type of modern battleship laid down, and consequently constructed one year sooner than the published plan contemplated. The German naval budget for the year will also authorize the construction of two small cruisers.

rescued. He declared he had been fighting the shark for more than an hour. The Trafford Hall came up with the Kabinga at Suez and Syed rejoined his ship. The other Lascars, on catching sight of him, thought he was a ghost and ran yelling over the gangplank to the wharf and into the town. The vessel was delayed for a day while Capt. Smith was rounding up his crew.

Huge Sturgeon's Feat.

Attacked Launch and Nearly Drowned Three Occupants.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Aug. 10.—A 150 pound sturgeon nearly sent a party of three in a motor boat over the falls late last night. Opposite La Salle, two miles above the falls, the fish leaped for the searchlight in the bow, missed it, struck and seriously injured Miss Nellie Johnson, of this city, and then, thrashing about in the boat, disabled the engine. The sturgeon, which measured six feet eight inches, was finally subdued with oars wielded by Frank Menzies, of this city, and Sebastian Smith, of La Salle, the other occupants. Meanwhile the boat was being swept rapidly towards the cataract. George Allen, hearing cries of distress, speeded out in a launch and towed the party ashore.

Lascar Sailor Rescued at Sea Fighting a Shark.

Boston, Aug. 8.—The next time Syed Mohammed wants a sea bath he will take a sharp look at the ocean before he jumps in. If he sees any sharks, he probably will remain on dry land. Syed is a Lascar sailor and he shipped at Calcutta on board the steamer Kabinga, which reached this port to-day. When the vessel was passing through the Red Sea, Syed became crazed by the heat and late one night he jumped overboard. The steamer was stopped, but no trace of the Lascar could be found, and the Kabinga proceeded.

Several hours later the steamer Trafford Hall came over the same course and spied a man in the water. It was Syed, and with a long disk in his hand, he was fighting a terrific duel with a twenty foot man-eating shark. A boat was lowered, the wounded shark dived and Syed was
