The American Ambassador and the German Reply.

The American Ambassador at Berlin has informed his Government at Washington that the German Reply to the last American Note on the torpedoing of the Lusitania and the sinking of American ships is likely to be favorable. Such an expression of belief from the American Ambassador at the German capital should be hopeful. But when the information given that the submarine warfare against certain ships is to go on, it is hard to reconcile it with the optimism expressed. For instance, will America consider a proposition favorable which would permit German submarines to destroy contraband owned by Americans while on board a British ship? Such destruction would be a violation of the International rule which calls for contraband goods to be brought to port, condemned by a Prize Court before the owners lose their property. A similar difficulty arises in the proposed exemption of ships primarily carrying passengers. Who is to be the judge of what ship is outside the exemption? The commander of a submarine on the lookout to make an attack or a Prize Court. The latter is negated at once, because it is not practicable for a submarine to escort a captured ship to a German port, and to attempt to carry out such a policy would be tantamount to abandoning submarine warfare on commercial ships, and this is outside the proposition. If the commander of the submarine is to be the judge, this violates International law. Again, there is the case of a neutral ship carrying contraband. The proposition would allow of the sinking of a ship like the Frye and its cargo by a submarine, which Germany admits she cannot do lawfully by a cruiser like the Prinz Eitel. How can such a proposition be regarded with favor by the American Government? We confess we are sceptical about the German reply being received favorably, if any such propositions, as the despatch indicates are in it. We cannot reconcile the belief of the Ambassador with any such propositions.

Lt. Morhill Promoted.

G. T. R. Signal Engineer Gets Captaincy.

Word has been received in Montreal of the promotion of Lieut. R. Laishaw Morhill, to a captaincy in the Royal Engineers. Capt. Morhill, who was signal engineer with the Grand Trunk Railway, left with the Canadian Engineers with the first contingent. The same advice also stated that he had been mentioned for the military cross for his work on the Ypres canal. Capt. Morhill is a veteran of the South African War and also served through a native uprising following that campaign.

[The Mr. Morhill referred to above was for many years in charge of the Reid Nfld. Co's Sub-Station, in this city.—ED.]

Amusements.

THE COWARD AND THE MAN.

Is a most interesting and inspiring production by the famous Kalem Co., and when shown yesterday at the popular "British" it evoked much favorable criticism. In conjunction with the feature "A Song in the Dark" and such splendid specimens of the photographer's skill as "The Hopi Raider" and the two extremely funny comedies "A Bargain Auto" and "He Changed His Mind" the entire entertainment was up to the usual high class "British" standard and was much enjoyed.

AT THE CRESCENT.

The Crescent Picture Palace has another of its big shows on to-day: five full reels of pictures produced by the Vitagraph, Kalem, Selig and Es-saney Photo Play Companies, featuring such stars as Kathleen Williams, Margaret Gibson, Charles Cleary and other leading actresses of these reputable companies. "A Woman Laughs" is a great Selig 2-reel drama; "The Verdict" is an illustrated poem; "His Kid Sister" is a lively Western drama and "The Fable of the Long Range Lover" is one of George Ades' famous fables in slang. This is a dandy programme with good music and singing.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.

There was a good big house last night at Rossley's West End Theatre as so many were anxious to see the first and second contingent pictures once more, as this will be their only chance to see their friends. The two little singers were delightful in their new novelty song in beautiful costumes and were loudly applauded. The other pictures were all good subjects. Mr. Rossley will attend to the comfort of patrons. The East End Theatre will close until September to allow the Rossleys a rest after a hard worked season. Mrs. Rossley will get together material for the season's work. Take in the West End show, if you want a good night's enjoyment.

Salvage Notes.

Magistrate Miffen and Constable Tucker were here for three days on their half yearly visit, and his work apparently had not many leisure hours, court being held two out of the three days stay, but most of the cases were from the vicinities.

The week past had been a busy one in educational matters, being examination week, and it is hoped those from this centre will obtain a good percentage of marks when the results are published.

Owing to adverse weather not much was done the past week by traps here averaging from 2 to 5 qts., and hook and liners half to two brls.

Miss Macdonald went by Dundee on a "Chestnut" to Bristol and the Greenpond, where we trust she will have a pleasant and an enjoyable time during her stay to the old town.—COR.

Saw British Patrol Sink Submarine.

Port Arthur, Ont., June 25.—W. Dougal, of Port Arthur, has received a letter from his mother at Aberdeen, Scotland, in which she describes the sinking of a German submarine by a British patrol ship. She witnessed the landing of the German sailors who were made prisoners. The fight took place near the Bullers of Buchan, a few miles off Peterhead, between a British warship and one of the latest types of German submarines about two weeks ago. Persons on the shore saw the submarine manoeuvring, and a few minutes later a British warship came around the Cape. The warship sighted the submarine and thrilling scenes were witnessed by the fisherfolk. The British boat charged full speed at the submarine, but the latter deftly evaded the first charge. The warship outmanoeuvred the submarine and, placing the latter between the shore and itself, it charged again. The crew of the submarine were on deck, manning a gun, but before they had time to use it the warship ran down upon them and sunk the vessel. Several Germans were lost, but the majority were saved, including the captain, who, however, when being taken aboard the British boat, shot himself. The other members of the crew were landed at Peterhead. The Germans were mobbed by the citizens of Peterhead, who had prepared a head of eggs and potatoes for their reception. The police, however, found a place of safety for the Germans, who were later taken to Edinburgh Castle to be placed in the compound, where they were guarded by members of the famous Black Watch Regiment.

Obituary.

REV. WM. STACEY.

Having reached the allotted span of three-score years and ten, Rev. William Stacey passed away at Cleveland, near Bristol, England. He was a native of St. John's and a man of remarkable ability. He was known in Canada and England. He represented the Mayor of Bristol at the Guy celebration a few years ago, and delivered a memorable speech during the Cupids functions. He was a devout man and esteemed by those who knew him.

McMurdo's Store News.

TUESDAY, June 29, '15.
We have just opened a stock of Perfumes without Spirit (Colognoids, the original make), which have become so popular in St. John's, consisting of two favorite odors, Violette and Lily of the Valley. It is no longer necessary to commend these exquisite extracts — they are easily first in strength and in deliciousness of odor among perfumes, and surpass all others in strength. Dainty little bottles in white cases, $1.25 each.
Ess Viotto — by the same makers — is a new thing. Frankly, we think it the choicest thing of the kind, and a really delightful toilet water. Elegant bottle, $2 each.

SUSPECT ARRESTED.—The police have arrested on suspicion, a young woman, aged 21 years, belonging to Turk's Gut, near Avondale, charged with attempting to wreck a train by placing a piece of track, 10 feet in length, on the rails near Woodford's. She was arraigned before Mr. Hutchings, J.P., to-day, and remanded for 8 days.
