Naval Heroes Welcomed by Many Citizens.

By the express which reached town yesterday afternoon the following Naval Reservists returned after an absence of two years:—

Able Seamen Thronton and Bond, St. George's; Avery (Brownsdale), Willis, Fogo; Pittman, Bonne, Bay, Dawe, Bay Roberts; Lannon, Bell, Island; Moores, Burnt Point, C. B., Patrock, Little Bay Islands; Morgan, St. John's.

The men were accompanied by A. B. Sheppard, active service man, who is transferred to H. M. S. Briton.

At the station to welcome the men who had "braved the battle and the breeze" were Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, the Ladies of the Reception Committee, Officer and Squad from H. M. S. Briton, and a large number of citizens. The sailors were lined up inside the station and were addressed by the Premier, who on behalf of the Ladies' Reception Committee and the country at large extended to the sailors a hearty welcome home. "Though few in number," said the Premier, "you represent the great body of men who man the battleships and mine sweepers of the Great British Navy. You are the 'handy' men of the nation, able at all times to perform what ever task is allotted to you. When you return to your homes tell your friends and comrades about the great British Navy and how necessary it is that each and every man of military age should offer his services for King and Country, as we need men and still more men." It will be an everlasting disgrace if we have to withdraw our regiment from the battle front for the want of recruits to take the places of those that have fallen for love of country. The men of the Senior Service are fighting for the same cause to-day as those who fought under Lord Nelson at Trafalgar and the Nile. "England expects that every man this day will do his duty."

At the close of the address Mr. Levi Chase called for cheers for the returned heroes, the Premier and the Ladies of the Reception Committee, which were heartily given.

The sailors were then placed in automobiles and driven to Government House where they were received and entertained by His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson.
