DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

The cockiness of the Red Lions has aroused deep resentment in the breasts of the B.I.S. players, and when they meet at 7 o'clock to-night there's sure going to be something doing. Both umpire Chesman and umpire Duff are putting on their heaviest armour plate, and it is feared that a couple of tanks will have to be requisitioned from "Pom's" to suppress the ardour of the players.

The lineup will likely be:—
RED LIONS—Cahill, Robertson, Hiltz 1b, Billy Callahan 2b, Munn ss, Walter Callahan 3b, with Ellis, Quick and Kiely in the outer gardens, and Keefe and Jenkins spares.
B.I.S.—Mike Power c, O'Leary p, Wallace 1b, Delaney 2b, French ss, O'Donnell 3b, and Walsh, Power, and Phelan in the sun garden.

Eddie Phelan, who plays hockey with the St. Bon's, and football with the B.I.S., will make his initial appearance on the diamond to-night, and it is likely will go in the box at some period for the Channing aggregation. If used, his pitching will surely be a revelation to the fans, and his wicked breast-high inshoot is likely to cause trouble to some one. Eddie is certainly a comer!

The Old Wallop.

I like to see pitching that's clever. I dote on a fast double play. A neat delayed steal has a zestful appeal that adds to the joy of the fray. A strike-out with bases all loaded can cheer any rooter, I wot. But the game's greatest thrill is to lean on the pill and slam the ball out the lot. The squeeze play that works is a pleasure. The old hit-and-run's a delight. The sacrifice try always brings forth a cry, and a guy stealing home is a sight. A circus catch sets me a cheering. A bunting attack makes me beam. But me for the bloke with the extra base poke, who can slam the old ball on the seam.

Aye! trot out the lad with the wallop; the baby who swings from his toes. The larruping wight from the village of Smite, who cracks the baseball on the nose. I like to see fielding that sparkles; I like heady pitching; it's grand. But the sight for my eye is the pill-busting guy who can flatten the ball in the stand. I'll cheer for the hit robbing fielder who gathers the shots that are hot, but here's to the bunch with the fence-cracking punch, the Larruping Legion of Swat.

I like to see pitching's that clever. I'll cheer for a base-stealing King. But me for the skate who'll step up to the plate, and get a good toe-hold and SWING.

Ads in the "Telegram" certainly pay. Last week the youngsters asked us to put in a "Lost, Stolen or Strayed" paragraph about the newly formed Junior League. And lo! and behold! this morning Chairman Harcourt and Secretary French both ring us up to say that in response to our notice they have pleasure in stating that up to the present three teams have entered, viz:—the Mount Cashel team, the Boy Scouts, and the Shamrocks. The first game of the series will be played on Thursday morning as a five inning preliminary to the regular League C.E.I.-Cubs clash.

Secretary French also asks us to state in this column that other entrants will be received up to Saturday then the lists close. The Senior League is putting up a nice silver cup and medals to the winners, and the age limit of players is under 17.

Harvey, Harvey, quite contrary
How does your ball club go?
"Now you've got me," says our Harvey.
"I'm doggoned if I know."

The Mount Cashel series will surely be interesting this year. The prize at stake is the beautiful silver trophy presented by Mr. H. D. Reid. The conditions are that the cup is to be won three years—not necessarily in succession. The Wanderers, Cubs, and Lions have each two years on it, and the successful club this year owns it outright. The B.I.S. never had an option on it, but their supporters are hopeful Manager Channing and his crew will step in this year and spike one or the other three from becoming its proud successors. And don't forget, kind reader that Harvey would like to have his finger in the pie as well.

CAT BALLS CREW.

Ten Little Cubs.
In the League did sign,
Joe went to Grand Falls,
Then there were nine.

Nine Little Cubs.
Working until late,
Doe was keen on football,
Then there were eight.

Eight Little Cubs.
Thought there were in heaven,
Claude couldn't find the plate,
Then there were seven.

Seven Little Cubs.
Full of bush league tricks,
Eru had an ivory dome,
Then there were six.

Six Little Cubs.
All glad to be alive,
Jack couldn't play,
Then there were five.

Five Little Cubs.
With arms most awful sore,
Andy couldn't stand the gaff,
Then there were four.

Four Little Cubs.
As happy as could be,
Allen failed to suit the boss,
Then there were three.

Three Little Cubs.
With cards their luck did woo,
Bill was fired for gambling,
Then there were two.

Two Little Cubs.
This rhyme is almost done,
Chris couldn't hold the ball,
Then there was one.

One Little Cub.
Last of all the crowd,
Damon got his kneeief out,
And cried out loud.
