there Were Many Things which I Could Not Ear

e were a great many things uld not eat at all on account remedies, but they did me little good, Finally I tried Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills, and was surprised at the relief this combined treatment gave me in such a short time."

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

At all Dealers. GERALD S. DOYLE, DISTRIBUTOR.

of the marriage, and of

re the best

John's to-nt the high-

Ien's Shoes

into New-

EXALL

DERLIES

-failing, gen

good for ch

rally and for

A box of 24 co

only by

DRUGGIST.

XALL STORE.

Arrive

Sachem

meni (

BOOKS.

Culture.

Sutherland

strated.

O'MARA

as adults.

some day. He did just ght he would do. He offers or any other parish in tever about the event itself. riage was performed there, by Illiam Bullock, in circumthat justified it. The story has ded down unchanged by those wof it at the time; and the took place has been known and is known to-day to

-"The Church." rely hope that Mr. William Rencontre, will not be too th me for bringing his name he public, in my asking for his were a practic rson in Newfound the kind informawas correct, every ught me letters from ewfoundland, giv-Webb's address: and I hat I did not know be-Webb is one of the best the South West Coast. saying: "He that uch will learn;" to riend of mine always ould be added the is rightly informed."

nformed; and I thank have been so kind as in the City, and then she will seek em ployment. She is a good girl wherever she goes, and we wish her well.

account of a marriage land, has made inquiries as to whether Rev. William Bullock, many of the early settlers in Newodd years ago, in a pic- foundland came from that country. If is in the cliffs of Bon L had replied without investigation, I foundland came from that country. oncluded the story should have said, No! Upon reference part of the commercial traveller's Nieuhooks as though they were orig-What a subject for to the old Marriage Register, howbeen looking ever ever, I find that between the years and with the firm 1769 and 1808 the majority of the men should find him, then married were from Somersetantsport, N.S. a shire; as follows:-1769. John Royal, of Corten-Dinffam, near Sherborn, Somerset, and Mary Ivamy, Trinity. 1774, Richard Anderson, of Carton parish, near Sherborn, Somerset, and

Mary Barnes. 1786. Thomas White, of Wincanton, 1787. William Burrage, of West Bagborough, Somersetshire, and Beatrix

1788. Jonathan Combes, of Buckingham Westley near Wincanton, Somerset, and Ann De Grish.

1791. William Bailey, of Milbourn Port, Somerset, and Sarah Waterman. 1794. Joseph Binger, of South Cadbury, Somerset, and Susannah Woods. 1788. Thomas Dewland, of Crewkherne, Somerset, and Mary Sooley. 1800. James Vallis, of Ledford, Somerset, and Jane Ivamy.

1801. James Bateman, of the parish to who the persons were who of East Croker, Somerset, and Ann 1801. John Farnham, of North Perrot, near Crewkherne, Somerset, and Sarah Batson. 1808. John Crocker of the parish of

Charlton Withom, Somerset, and

I have been asked for the inscription on the tombstone of Samson in that part of Trinity Mifflen in the old Churchyard here; it is:-

> Here lies the body of SAMSON MIFFLIN. Late Agent to Joseph White in Trinity. died February ye 14th, 1760, Aged 43 years.

Loving, beloved in all relations true, Exposed to follies, but inclined to few; Reader, reflect, and copy best The Social virtues of this hon-

The entry of his burial, as found in the old Church Register is as fol-

February 19th, 1760. Interred, Captain Samson Mifflin, Agent to Mr. Joseph White, merchant in Poole.

of the readers of the their letters, in this part Mr. Evelly is, and has been for several years, on the mail assortment staff, n the office of the Reid Newfoundland ple have taken advant- Railway Co., at North Sydney. His supply some horse familiarity with the geography of his mer, as the Agent of Ryan Bros., reand I have hative land, enables him to distribute turned by the Meigle last week, and th several requests the foreign newspaper mail for Newreason why they foundland, with such rapidity and ac- see him home again, Newfoundland, curacy, as, to an onlooker is most difmajority of those ficult to understand. At his busiest, on of the fact, that, realize that Newfoundland is most them. ave gone to our rest, creditably represented in this departhave grown to large ment at North Sydney; for after passassociation carefully climbing up "the golden respect they stairs," you find yourself in the premorials. I still have sence of Mr. Shano, who, with barely enough room to turn around, is pigeon-holeing the thousands of letters, postdid at Garland Hotel during ity of a juggler at a circus. The task to see you, Sir. four years, went to St. John's Jooks sufficiently difficult to demand her step-brother, who lives foundlander show his head above the

Constipated Bowels—Bilious Liver

s when you have pletely by morning and you will feel splendid. "They work while you sleep." Cascarets never stir you up or rgipe like Salts, Pills, Calomel, ter of Thomas and Mary Hurdle of advice, and without losing the least nterest in his duties, he bubbles over with a delightful interest in his vis itor, that makes the visitor feel strictestion answered, he goes on his way ejoicing. Nor is all this kind of kindtraveller confined to the postal department; for the same is found in the conduct of those in the ticket and customs departments, and reaches its highest point in the person of Mr. Spracklin, than whom nobody could be kinder in the most practical and unselfish ways; nor could any one tell such interesting stories of his fellow countrymen, to whom he is ever the nost loyal, and in whose welfare he is always most deeply interested, I cannot stop here, and record the kindness of only those on the land, to the traveller; for once on the Kyle, the kind attention on the part of the Chief Steward, the Stewardess, and the inlividuals on their staff, and their respect shown to others (and to me personally) by them and the officials at Port aux Basques, claim my most definite recognition and my deepest gratitude-all of which I gladly and road, Mr. C. McNulty, of St. John's, visited Trinity last week in the interests of A. E. Hickman & Co., and registered at the Garland Hotel. His old friends were glad to see him again, and those of us who had not met him before are pleased to add our names to his already long list of friends. He did not see much of Trinity, but he saw enough to cause him to realize that the good impressions it had made upon him years ago were quite all Somersetshire, and Catherine Barnes, right. Come again Mr. McNulty in the good old summer time, and bring all the family, and we will be "real gratefully record.

Mr. Edward Mifflin of Bonavista, spent a day in Trinity last week. We peoples' head-stones. were glad to meet him and to show him "the lions."

The mail of Monday last brought time past. Though they were from place in my prayers. places different, and remote from each other, they all had a common origin, for in them, as soon as I can secure Dominus Vobiscum. for in them, as soon as I contain is it. In some cases the information is well nigh impossible to obtain, owing Robert Templeton, was in town on the contain of the Robert Templeton, was in town on the contain of the Robert Templeton. generation, with which those incidents and events are associated, have gone to their rest; and that I have not the Glad to see him. town privilege of access to a public library, or the archives of the country. Nothing gives me greater pleasure than to supply the information asked for by those who write to me, and I sincerely hope that no one will itate to give me their confidence, and to ask any question that is promp ted by an honest desire to learn. There are always two kinds of questionersone class made up of those who are prompted by curiosity; the other made up of those whose desire is to humble servant. All Saint's Day the most beautiful holy day in the Church's year, was observed by the Church of England, and the Roman Catholic congre-Mr. Isaac J. Evelly is now visiting gations. The attendance at the ser-friends and relative at Trinity East. vices on that day was more than usually good.

secure such information as they are those of the latter class, and such people may always regard me as their

Mr. John Sheehan who has bee stationed at Batteau during the sumreports an average success. Glad to

Mr. David Baird came by Monday's ill not be privileg- however, he always has time to ex- express, and after spending a few smithy," to stand change a kind word with a Newfound- days at the "anchorage," returned to eading boughs; yet lander in passing. Those of us who St. John's with Mrs. Baird and little prospective pleasure pass that way so often cannot fail to Miss Gordon. A happy winter to

Mr. Ralph Pittman has begun work roportions, our names ing through Mr. Evelly's quarters, and in his new forge, and is now ready to attend to the requirements of his customers. Good Luck.

Mr. Edwin Grant came by Friday's express; after a summer of varied responsibilities at Blanc Sablon, Glad

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS R.J.S!-Chestnuts and acorns should ot be planted in the fall. Cove m with earth in a box and put em in the cellar for the winter. In e spring you will find that they are ated. Then plant them two or Cleric.- Rev. Benjamin Lindsay left Trinity in November, 1760. He was succeeded by Rev. James Balfour, A. M. in October, 1764.

or Otaand they cost only ten cents a Cuckhold's Cove, on Oct. 22nd, 1819. Phone 916 Children love Cascarets too. Their marriage was witnessed by 1 m.w.s.t

When Ordering from your grocer Unless you name the brand you may not get what you

name was not Earle but Hurdle. hold's Cove (Dunfield) by the lawful name of Earle. It is an assumed name

J. N.—The surname Newhood is always spelled the same in the Old Registers. It is often pronounced Newik, but never spelled that way. In Archdeacon Wix's Journal it is spell-After a five years absence from this ed Nieuhook, and he refers to the mally Huegenots.

> Inquirer.—One of the old Basque Headstones in Placentia, bears the date, I think, of 1690.

James G .- I have been told that rom the top of Carter's Hill at Bay Bull's Arm, seven bays can be seen, viz:D'Espoir, Fortune, St. Mary's, Trinity, Conception, Bonavista and

A.S. Thank you for your kind letter. All that my note conveyed is richly deserved by you; and I think that it is a great shame to leave all such recognitions to be placed on Liewellyn L. Glad to get your letter. Sorry you have been so ill. I can get some information for you me a bunch of the most interesting within a few days, and then I will letters that I have received for some write again. Cheer up. You have a Tepsail. Glad to hear from you viz: The Saturday Evening Telegram! again. The old diary that you inquirand a thread of gratitude ran through ed about is that which was kept, not them all for the information and the by Mr. Grant, but by Mr. Gent. It is pleasure they receive from the weekly still in possession of the family here. message from Trinity. I shall do my I will write shortly and give you all best to supply the information called the information that Is can gather.

land, and called on his customers.

MAIR FALL UUI

35c"Danderine" Saves Your Hair-Ends Dandruff! Delightful Tonic

and you are making no effort to avoid baldness. What a pity. Failing hair means your hair is weak, sick—posgrowing oils.

Danderine almost instantly stop falling hair of men or women and cleans every particle of dandruff away, then the hair takes on new life,

Harry Cares

At the Star Movie! The Treat of the Screen

first Million Dollar Western Special ever

IN EIGHT PARTS.

See the reckless, death-defying ride of Harry Carey's famous flying squadron.

MONDAY:-The Sensation of Sensations THE VICTIM—in 10 parts.

"The mills of the gods grind slowly, yet they grind exceedingly small."—See "THE VICTIM"." Forgive them Father for they know not what they do."-See "THE VICTEM."

Ruth Roland in the current chapter of

AVENGING ARROW.

Cocoa! Cocoa! Cocoa!

WITH EVERY DOLLAR PURCHASE YOU HAVE THE OPTION OF BUYING 2 POUNDS OF GOOD COCOA FOR 33 CENTS

This May Interest You.

We have no expensive delivery system or leakages from charge accounts. Therefore our prices are low. -W. R. GOOBIE

Without cover .. 25c.

Our price 16c.

Dust Pans. Our price 190

Water Kettles. Our price 890

Men's English Wool Hose. In Heather Wool. This is real value. 49c. pair.

Enameled Double Boilers 98c

Egg Beaters.

Enameled Spittoons 35c.

Our price 10c. eacl

Enameled Milk Kettles.

Cup & Saucer. Our price 19

White & Gold Stone China Egg Cup. Our price 6 for

With two keys. Our price 3

atherette Pu Our price 25c. eac

Stove Lifters. Our price 15c. each

Our price 10c. bot. Men's Heavy

Fine Combs. Our price 5c. each

Flour Sifters.

Side Combs. Our price 18c. pair

Our price 59c. each

Good quality Flannelette; worth more money, but Our price is $1.39

KINDLY REMEMBER---

V. R. GOOBIE is Just Opp. the Post Office

Ladies' Fleece

Lined Hose.

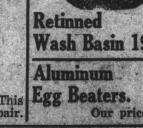

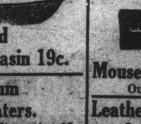

Suit Cases.

Our prices $1.75, $1.95,

$2.50, $2.95, $3.95, $7.50

Fleeced Lined

Shirts & Drawers.

All sizes. 82c. garment

