Cambridge Don is Active in Old Age.

"The address by Dr. G. D. Living, president of St. John's College, to the General Workers' Conference at Cambridge reminds us yet again of the wonderful record of the University's oldest resident member," says the Sunday Times.

"Dr. Living is now 96 years of age, but still active, and capable, when the need arises, of deputizing for the Master of the College. Despite his great age, he still retains the liveliest interest in University affairs, and not infrequently takes part in the discussions of the Senate."

"During full term, he dines in Hall on many evenings, and his wonderful memory and great store of anecdote make him, I am told, splendid company in the combination room after dinner where the senior members of the college gather to take their glasses of very excellent port."

Insurance Against Double Blessings.

Insurance against twins is usually regarded as something in the nature of a joke, but it has formed a profitable, if small, source of income to Lloyd's underwriters for many years. The premium depends upon the family history, and ranges between three and five guineas per cent. The 'loss' which is covered is the extra expense to which the parents may be expected to be put by reason of the double blessing, and in order to reduce the gamblers' element to the lowest possible dimensions both infants must live for at least 24 hours.

Lengthy Tunnels.

Although the Otrra Tunnel in New Zealand, opened recently, is officially stated to be the longest in the British Empire, it is easily beaten in this respect by several Continental tunnels. The Simplon, for instance, through the Alps, measures 12 1/4 miles in length, as compared with Otrra's 5 1/4 miles, and is the longest in the world. Next comes the St. Gothard, 9 1/4 miles; the Mont Cenis 8 miles; and the Arlberg, 6 1/2 miles. The longest in the British Isles is the Severn Tunnel, 4 1/2 miles, which brings Cardiff and South Wales into close communication with Bristol and the South of England.

Child of Newfoundlander Killed in Boston.

We are informed that a message has just been received in the city to the effect that Mr. W. Cahill formerly a barber on Bell Island, and recently removed to Boston, lost his child Cathleen on Wednesday, in a most tragic manner. It would appear that the little tot of three years of age was playing in front of the house when without warning she was instantly killed by a motor car. The driver of the car is reported to be held on a charge of murder, following the investigation which was immediately commenced. The funeral will take place to-day. The Telegram joins with their many friends in expressing its sympathy for the bereaved parents to whom trouble has so suddenly come in their new home.

Magical Beautifiers. For Women.

Women everywhere are trying all kinds of beautifiers, only to find that their efforts are transitory. The first requisite of beauty is health. Without it the steps lag, eyes are lusterless, dark circles appear beneath them, the complexion becomes sallow, and almost invariably the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to women. There is a very inexpensive remedy for this condition in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly fifty years has been relieving women from some of the worst forms of female ills. Why not let it restore you to health and beauty and the joys of living?

"Mrs. Hooligan's Tent at the Races."

It will be descriptive of the events which occur at the lake side on Regatta Day.

ing that a pool be formed anyway, the probabilities are that the engines of the executive will be directed towards persuading as many as possible of the contract signers to their contracts stand good with understanding that the pool will be formed in time to handle the 1923 crop. Meanwhile the crop is being marketed as fast as it can be threshed, and there does not appear to be widespread mourning in any quarter at the failure of the effort to launch the "Sapiro pool" in time to mark the 1923 crop.
