London, Sept. 24.—Morton, who per-sonally attended Captain Hall to the moment of his death, makes a statement that Hall returned in perfect health from the journey which preceded his final ill-ness. He was a short time in his eabin where he took some coffee and imme-diately atterwards became sick and vomited. Hall said they were poisoning him. Morton evidently believed the same thing. He also suspects subsequent medical treatment. He has, however a violent feeling against the doctor, which may color his judgment.
