Page Twelve

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. Alex. Brandon, of Brantford, was in town on business on Monday Franklin Price, of London, spent nday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Price.

George Harp has purchased the James McIntyre farm of one hundred acres near Lakeview.

Mr. A. Ray Lemon assisted the Centre St. Baptist church choir, St. Thomas, in a musical service last Sunday evening. He also rendered a splendid baritone solo.

A number of the members of the Oddfellows Lodge at Belmont paid a fraternal visit to Aylmer Lodge No. 94 on Tuesday evening and conferred degrees.

Aylmer garage men and auto dealers are co-operating and will put on a big automobile show on Saturday, April 5th. The public are invited to come in and inspect the new models.

A very enjoyable party was given Harry Zavitz at his mother's home on John street south last week; prior to his departure for the United States The many where he will sail the C where he will sail the Great Lakes this summer on a boat plying between Con-neaut and Duluth.

NOTICE

We have no collecting agents other than Mr. L. O. Purdy, at Springfield, in our employ at the present time. Anyone paying sub-scriptions or other accounts to anyone else without authority from this office will do so at their own risk,-The Aylmer Express.

W. C. King, accountant at the west end branch of the Molsons Bank, St. Thomas, for the past four years, has been promoted to the managership of the branch at Bedford, Quebec, and left to assume his new duties on Sun-day. Before going to St. Thomas Mr. Price, of this place. Mrs. King and children will not join Mr. King until later in the year.

next September ever held here in re-cent years. The prize list will soon go to the printers and the Board wish to announce that if any friends and sup-porters of the fair wish in any way to help the exhibition along, any donations of special prizes, cash or other-wise will be thankfully received by secretary, Ed. Hemstreet now, and they will be acknowledged in the prize dist. Everybody get behind the Board and Board for April and house-to have a paper collection in town about the middle of April and house-wives are requested to save all old newspapers, magazines, etc., for the and Boost for Aylmer Fair.

A. W. Houlding spent the week-end with his family here. Frank Huffman, of Buffalo, spent the week-end with relatives here. A very fine solo was rendered in rinity Church last Sunday morning Trinity by Mr. Jack Watt, in excellent voice. Harry Argyle has returned home after spending the past two months in sunny California. A meeting of the executive of the Aylmer W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Gillett, Tuesday after-

٦

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, South street, are recovering from a bad at-tack of influenza. Their daughter, Mrs. Blumstein, of Kingsmill, has been attending them.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Young, of Bridgeburg, are spending a couple of weeks with friends in Aylmer and Yarmouth.

A. E. Maguire, of Courtland, called on relatives and friends here last week and left for Burlington where he has secured a position on a large

The many friends of James C. Crane who has been ill for some weeks, will be glad to know he is now able to sit up and we hope he will soon be able to get out errain to get out again. Mr. W. H. Baxter has purchased the big Tomlin Feed barn on Sydenham street and took possession yesterday. Mr. Tomlin is moving his family to London. The barn on King street which because here to the Street which has been run by Mr. Baxter will be used by The Aylmer Garage Com-pany for the storage of automobiles.

Mr. Morford Haight leaves Monday for Saskatoon, where he will re-present the Carnation Milk Products Co. in that district. He will be greatly missed in Aylmer by a large number of friends and particularly in musical circles in town. He was a valued mem ber of St. Paul's choir.

Mr. J. P. Winter, superintendent of King was accountant at the Aylmer branch, and Mrs. King is a daughter of Postmaster D. H. Price and Mrs. proud of his school. Last Sunday the attendance registered 204 and the of-fering $10.91. The Springfield Ladies' The East Elgin Fair Board expect to put on one of the best exhibitions Aid will hold their annual hot biscuit of Aylmer was held at the home of Mrs. Edmund Laidlaw, Sydenham St. on Tuesday evening. It was well at-tended and an interesting paper on "Doubt and Belief," was biven by Mrs. C. B. Monteith. It was decided to have a paper collection in town wives are requested to save all old King's Daughters.

A meeting of the King's Daughters of Aylmer was held at the home of

Visit Our Corset Department where you will find on sale for this week. Regular, $1.50 to 75c, $1, $1.18 $1.25, $1.50, $1.60, $1.75 $2, $2.25, $2.38, $2.50, $2.75, $3.20, $3.25 Also Corset Waists, 7 to 12 yr. sizes, worth up to $1.25, Sale Price 49c. 1924 Fashions in Motor Cars on Display at Lindsay's Garage, Sat., Apr. 5. Aylmer's First Annual Motor Show

THE AYLMER EXPRESS

CORSETS

To Women

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Shain will regret to learn that they are contemplating moving to their farm near Wyoming. Mrs. (Dr.) G. F. Clark was called to Falden's Corners, south of Ingersoll on Monday by the serious illness of her sister, Aunt Mary Brown, who celebrated her 100th birthday on Sept-ember 20th last. Mrs. Brown is well-condition may quickly improve.

WALKER—BUCHANAN Sparta, Mach 25th—Morris Charles Valker, son of Mr. Alfred Walker, and liss Margaret Buchanan, who arrived rom England, about two weeks ago, pere quietly married at the Methodist arsonage yesterday afternoon by he Rev. Dr. Husser. They will reside rith the groom's parents for the pre-ent. Walker, son of Mr. Alfred Walker, and Miss Margaret Buchanan, who arrived from England, about two weeks ago, were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage vesterday afternoon by the Rev. Dr. Husser. They will reside with the groom's parents for the pre-

OSTRANDER-LEARN

A quiet wedding took place on Tues-

FROZEN IN STORM A MILE FROM HOME

Of Particular Interest

"To See Ourselves as others See Us" would frequently cause a revolution in our mode of dressing. For just as the feet become misshapen if poorly fitting shoes are worn, the figure loses its symmetry if improperly cor-

seted. We can show you just the proper corset for your figure and at greatly reduced

$6.50 Corsets priced at prices.

Unsung Hero of Labrador Meets Lonely Death in Blizzard The death of Rev. W. S. Mercer, of Fogo Island, northern Newfoundland, in a blizzard, marks a sad beginning of the centenary of Methodist missions in Labrador, and the north coast of Newfoundland. The deceased was from 1912 to 1919 missionary at Hamilton death within a mile of his home. Since 1824 the Methodists have had mini-sters travelling by dog train and boat among the trappers and fishermen of the bleak coast, men little known and seldom honored, even throughout their pelled to come south for a year, and two years ago took the comparatively easier work in which he died. A des-patch from St. John's to the Canadian A doctor brought a dyspep press merely recorded that while re-turning on foot over a lonely twelve-mile stretch from Seldom-Come-By to the village of Fogo, he was over-taken by a blizzard and frozen to mer'a big, brown pill. "I want you to try this pill time," he said. "It's a new tre and if you can retain it on you ach it ought to cure you."

Grass Seeds!

The next day the doctor again. "Did you manage to re pill on your stomach?" he ask erly.

"Well, the pill was all right as I kept awake," said the farm every time I fell aslepp it rolle own denomination. ਸ਼ L.O.McClennan

Don't Forget the Motor Show To be Held by Local Dealers

April the 5th at Lindsay's Garage

9 P

à la Gráce

Corsets

Thursday, March 27th

Youell & Wrong's Store News

WE ARE NOW SHOWING A WONDERFUL RANGE OF

New Spring Goods

manufacturers. Importations from France, Switzerland and Great Britain, comprising the most complete range of up-to-the-minute

Goods and quote you prices, which will make you realize that our showing 1924 merchandise is Exclusive, but not Expensive.

Our Entire Stock of Ladies' and Men's Suitings are now on sale at a fraction of their regular value.

This is an opportunity to get your Spring Tailored Suit at

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

We have made arrangements with Mr. Wm. Boettinger to make up the balance of our spring stock which will insure satisfaction.

Our Sale Price on Men's or Ladies' Hand Tailored Suits

start at $32.50.

Men's Suits!

Ladies' Suits!

AR

Case after case has been received from the world's foremost

More Beaut ments T Late

Aylı

ng styles he talk of Ay rday, April Sydenham st decorated and atest cars will tomobile deale e decided to this first autom derful success. 7 exhibit and expl of the 1924 mod will be open all the evening so whats' what in m ing season low through will not have to age to garage he one showrow ainted quici ith the progres tor car

In the cars vo ents than in an many cases isible, but in ark a great adv my. Car b table than ev both to beau nience in Striking number of en radically gned. Other out strikingly nt of unusual Following Direction in other cases ists-to-be wil mely intereste rtunity to see new productions heard about, and tages explained. A great deal habrakes and ballo elopments whi ost to the imag cause of their either of these nembered, are nd are on t

of sizes eith

replaceme

Power Pla

and balloon

ment is as ye aratively few ed either of

ard. One or on several of cases mechan sary before the could be used

wheel chang

A great deal of

ncrease

engineers du

ase all-ss, and e

make an ect to repai thout makin e aim, and ained. By b mbustion

atput

The New Seeds are in and ready for selling. Had them. shipped early for those who wish to start hot beds or indoor boxes.

Eggs! Eggs!

Always in the Market

H. M. Hambidge Co.

Phone 20, Aylmer

Caughells Garden Seeds

"The kind that Grow"

known here where she visits frequentand her many friends trust her For Sale-Ford touring car recently overhauled, guaranteed in good working order. $225.00 if taken this week. Apply at this office Inlet Labrador, but was twice comfor particulars.

We want your seed order this spring. Want to add you to the hundreds who year after year have found it to their advantage to buy here-(1) because we sell bulk seeds only and give two or three times as much for the money as one gets in packages, (2) because our seeds are tested to 80 per cent. germnation. (3) because we know the best varieties to get.

Make out your list and bring it to us this year and see the difference

THE NEW WALL PAPERS

This year we picked the best values and the best and newest patterns from six different makers in Canada and United States. a stock of about 250 different patterns with ceilings and borders matching, all combining to make one of the largest stocks carried iin Western Ontario. Papers from 8c to $1.00 roll. If you are going to paper this spring, see our Samples FIRST.

PAPER HANGERS

We have completed arrangements with the best paper hangers in every part of the east riding of Elgin, which enables to secure for you a capable decorator, if you buy paper here.

SEE CAUGHELL'S PAPERS BEFORE

BUYING

ERN. A. CAUGHELL & CO.

Druggists and Stationers

day afternoon, March 25th, at the Methodist parsonage, Aylmer, when Mr. John Ostrander and Miss Ora Margaret Learn werg united in mar-riage. Rev. H. T. Ferguson officiated. SFISHING STREET young couple were unattended by Dennis Learn and Mos Ruby Pressey. They will reside, after a brief honeymoon, on the Ostrander farm near Rogers Corners.

GOSTICK-DURDLE

GOSTICK—DURDLE James Walter Gostick and Miss Belle Durdle, both of Aylmer, were quietly married at the home of the bride's father, Charles Durdle, War-ren Street, on Tuesday, March 25th, at 2 o'clock p.m. The couple were un-attended and the bride was dressed in a costume of navy blue satin trim-med with silver, with hat to match. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Dunlop, following which din-ner was served to some fifteen guests. The bride was the recipient of a large number of valuable presents. After a visit to Detroit and other places in Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Gostick will reside on Warren Street, Aylmer.

A pleasant little trick is flavoring almon with orange instead of lemon juice. Absence makes the picture post-cards

While at the Show don't forget to visit our store where Real Bargains and Values are always awaiting you in every line.

Spend your money with the people who help keep the town up-todate and pleasant for you to come to.

Mail Order Houses don't offer you any special inducements nor do they stand behind goods they sell you. Our lines are all guaranteed when goods prove to be at fault.

Make up your $25, $50 or $75 cash orders and bring them to us and see what we can do before you send your money to people who don't contribute one cent to the welfare of the community at large.

> Read particulars of the Community Contest found elsewhere in this paper. "We Will Have Tickets"

> > Grass Seeds! Grass Seeds!