What Pinck and Good Sell Have Done for Some Settlers.

[Special Correspondence of the ADVERTISER.]

Following the much-talked-of frost came the more-talked-of rain, and for three weeks, with heavy showers almost every day, the prospect indeed was blue enough.

The depression became general. But two weeks of unclouded weather, warm, sunny days and clear, cool nights have dispelled the gloom and cleared the horizon.

as the people realize that farming is not child's play, or foot's work, but a science requiring skill and judgment, so soon will the failures cease. In fact, a much better class of farmers are now in the country than before. As an old and successful farmer remarked to me on Saturday last, speaking of those who had commenced farming with little or no knowledge of the work, "The hardiest of the past two years have driven the weakest ones to the wall and those who survived have learned by experience how to farm. Time works wondrous change. More anon. Yours truly, N. W. ROWELL, Virden, Man., Oct. 4, 1890.

WESTERN ONTARIO.

McGachie Bros., drygoods, Woodstock, have assigned to J. W. Lawrence.

Mr. Charles Clark has been appointed assistant agent of the local railroad at St. Thomas.

John Boyle, sen., Milverton, has sold his farm to his son Samuel for $4,000, and it is said he will go to Stratford to live.

Messrs. Watts & Sons' store at the north end of the iron bridge was broken into on Monday night. Nothing missed as yet.

U. S. Consul B. starting on Monday morning last, looking no more the worse for the trip.

The C. P. R. changes its time on Monday afternoon.

Messrs. Watts & Sons' store at the north end of the iron bridge was broken into on Monday night.

Mr. Lamont expects to have the incandescent light system at the school on Wednesday morning.

Mr. A. Edwards has bought the Vivian Holmes farm in Raleigh.

The troupe that was to play "Running Wild," must have run wild entirely, for they did not put in an appearance here at all.

TORONTO LETTER.

The Proposed Mammoth Hotel Scheme Taking Shape.

The scheme for constructing a new hotel, to cost $1,000,000 or so is again taking shape. It is understood that the new structure, which will be a credit to its projectors and to the city, will be built on the west side of King street, between Yonge and Victoria streets.

The congregation of the Western Congregational Church after much discussion agreed to purchase the site of the old St. Nicholas Church, between the Regina and Long Lake Railways.

Before Wm. McArthur left Ennals for Chicago to take a situation, Miss N. Roarson read an address and Mr. John Scott presented him with a $40 for cast in behalf of the people of St. Andrew's Church congregation, Shoppers Corners.

When in Toronto on Sunday, Sir Adolph Carver will review the 10th Battalion and Monday will review 3,000 of the militia children in Queen's Park, the occasion being the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Queenston Heights.

The Gaelic Society of Toronto will tender a reception of the Earl of Aberdeen before his departure from Ontario.

The Globe's review says: There has been a great deal of talk about a recent hunt, but the hunters were not so successful as they were reported to be.

Mr. Amasa Wood, who is probably the wealthiest citizen of Western Ontario, has offered to erect a public hospital for the sick and wounded after the style of the Stratford hospital in Brantford, and to contribute $10,000 to the same.

Mr. D. Gilbert has entered a caveat in the Elgin County Court against Beecher Bingham, of Aylmer, to recover $200. Mr. Gilbert and Bingham are engaged in a horse race which has been fixed for the 15th inst.

The death took place on Monday of Andrew McDiarmid, one of the most highly respected citizens of the township of Southwood. He died in his 75th year, and leaves behind him a wife, eight children, four sons and four daughters, to mourn his loss—John and Andrew, doctors in Manitoba; Albert, photographer in British Columbia; Mrs. (Dr.) McLachlin, Wingham; Mrs. Gues, London township; Mrs. M. Stafford, Sheddin; Alex. and Marian at home.

Mr. C. Johnson, who has taught the school of school No. 3, Kitchener, has been compelled to resign his position in consequence of a severe attack of bleeding of the lungs. Before taking his departure his pupils presented him with a handsome gold chain, accompanied by the words of address expressing the hope that he might recover and enjoy many days of health and happiness. He was aged in his 50th year, and was a native of Scotland.

A party of sporting men from Woodstock have completed the purchase of the shooting and fishing privileges of 100 acres at Long Point on Lake Erie, known as the Anderson property, and have purchased eight acre outright for building purposes.

The party is composed as follows: J. E. Thompson, F. H. McLeod, W. A. Karn, D. Miller and D. S. Kendall, and they intend erecting a cottage on their land and next summer a number of fishing excursions will be run to the point.

Mr. G. B. Lanaway, a compositor on the News-Advertiser, was married yesterday evening to Miss S. J. Carter, of this city. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage, Homer street, by Rev. Robt. R. Matland. Mr. Lanaway is a popular young man and a native of Woodstock, Ont.

The bride, a charming girl of 18, is a daughter of Chas. Carter, of this city, formerly of Lincolnshire, England. The groomsmen was Mr. J. C. Brent, and the bridesmaid Miss Alice Carter, sister of the bride. (Vancouver (B. C.) Telegram.)

The marriage of Miss Jennie Whillans, of Forest, to Dr. J. Irvine Wiley, of Dresden, son of Rev. Wiley, of Adelaide, which took place at the residence of the bride's father, W. Whillans, the other evening, was one of the most interesting events that has taken place there for some time. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Pritchard, in the presence of a large number of invited guests from London, Stratford, Stratford, Dresden, Adelaide and Forest and vicinity. The bride was handsomely attired in cream cashmere, and was supported by three bridesmaids, viz., Miss Mary Whillans, in pink; Miss Kate Cameron, of Stratford, in pale blue, and Miss Maggie Graham, of Dresden, in white.
