

Health Built Up

"I had a very bad cold which settled on my lungs. I was under doctor's care and was not able to get out of the house for eight weeks. I did not gain strength very fast and other remedies failing to help me or improve my case, I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have taken several bottles and my health is improved very much. Since I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla I feel very much stronger than for a long time past. I have recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to others, for it truly has been of great benefit to me." "A Jolly Good Fellow"

That's What the London Bicycle Club Call Col. Leys.

A Magnificent Reception to the Wheelmen

By the Colonel and Family—Casey's Muff Losses Toronto Anchor Game.

THE WHEEL.

IT CAPPED THEM ALL. Of all the club runs and social evenings indulged in by the London Bicycle Club since its inception a few years ago, none were more enjoyable than the time which the boys and "girls" spent last night. Col. and Mrs. Leys, of South London, were the entertainers, and to give all guests a good time pains were spared. Besides the members of the club, about 75 or 100 of the ward's leading residents were invited. The club members fell in at the rooms on Dundas street. There were about 150 wheels all told, including twenty ladies, and as they proceeded to Col. Leys' residence on Elmwood avenue, they let every person know that they belonged to "the greatest club west of Toronto"—the L.O.N.D.O.N. Nobody attempted to deny it, and the wheelmen went on their way rejoicing. The always beautiful surroundings of the colonel's home presented a gorgeous spectacle. The trees and shrubs in every quarter were decked with pretty Chinese lanterns and other decorations, and it all tended to make the evening thoroughly enjoyable. The riders went straight in for having a right royal time. Some went one direction, some went another, and all inhaled with delight the sweet music of the wheels. The London Musical Society, under the leadership of Mr. Fred L. Evans, the house was thrown open for dancing, and while some took that means of enjoying themselves, others strolled about the illuminated grounds. Then supper for the 250 guests was spread on tables on the lawn. There was plenty and to spare. At midnight the wheelmen lined up before the host and hostess. Col. Leys was compelled to respond, and in appropriate terms thanked the boys for their attendance and gladness to have them. He expressed the hope that it would not be the last privilege he would have of entertaining them. The band played, and the crowd sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and the riders went home more than delighted with the evening they had spent with Col. and Mrs. Leys, the Misses, and Messrs. Dr. and Allan Leys.

MAN VS. HORSE.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 8.—Tom Eck, on behalf of John S. Johnson, has just signed an agreement whereby the champion will race one mile against the pacer Robert J. at Buffalo on Aug. 14.

A CANADIAN GIRL ELOPES. Port Huron, Mich., Aug. 8.—Mary Voll, a 17-year-old girl from Newton, Ont., was arrested here Tuesday on a charge of elopement, it being alleged that she eloped with James Gies, a married man, on July 9. When Gies' friends ran low she secured employment at a boarding house in this city, and for the past two weeks has supported him with her wages. Gies left a wife and several children in Canada, and now has disappeared.

BASEBALL.

WON BY A RUN. A hotly-contested game of baseball was played on Wednesday afternoon on the military grounds between Atkins' A. O. K. and the V. R. I. club of W. Leys Barracks. The game was in doubt until the last inning, the score standing 15 to 16 in favor of the A. O. K. There was one man out and one man on third base when Sgt. Dunley stepped up to the plate and sent the first ball pitched over the hill towards the C. P. R. track for a home run. He is one of the best players on the V. R. I. team, this making his tenth home run this season. The pitcher was a good game for the V. R. I. His support was rather loose during the first part of the CASEY'S HORRID MUFF. Scranton, Pa., Aug. 8.—Scranton played poorly in the field yesterday, and Luby pitched in wretched form. He was not hit hard, but could not get the ball over the plate, and in the sixth inning was retired. Meany then won the game by wonderful pitching and terrific batting. The game might have been recorded a Toronto victory but for a horrid muff by Casey in left. Gray pitched superbly.

PITCHER CRANE RELEASED. Toronto, Aug. 8.—Pitcher Ed. Crane, Toronto's idol in the days that the International League flourished, has gone some time or the other when their usefulness is gone. He was released after the Springfield game by Manager Chapman for alleged sulkiness on the field. It has been a notorious fact that his club mates have not pulled harmoniously together with him, and that the high salary has been a disturbing element. Manager Chapman also says that "after considerable trouble and change around of dates I have at last persuaded the Syracuse club to play us in Toronto on civic holiday."

THE TIDE TURNS.

Great Improvement in the Health of a Well-Known Peterboro Lady.

Peterboro, Aug. 5.—General satisfaction is expressed here at the greatly improved condition of health of Mrs. K. Stephens, the well known music teacher of this town. Her friends have been much exercised over her condition for a long time, and a number of remedies have been tried during the ten years she has been a martyr to a complication of complaints, which recently became severe. She suffered fruitfully with pains in the back, nervous prostration and swelling of the limbs. She has been taking the new remedy kidney troubles, Dodd's Kidney Pills, and has already experienced the most beneficial results.

Since his departure from Baltimore, seven or eight weeks ago, he has spent most of his vacation in Rome, but he has also visited his parents in Ireland. While in Rome he was very often in conference with the Pope, and on this account it was expected that he would bring a message from the Pope to America.

CALIFORNIA'S USEFUL BUGS.

Farmers Wondering What They Will Eat When the Parasites Are Gone.

California is having great luck in her experiments of importing insects to prey on and exterminate the various parasitic pests that have caused so much damage to vines and orchards; but a few cautious people are not so sure of the wisdom of the experiment of the imported insects and the possibilities of what they may turn to feed upon when all the parasites to their taste have disappeared. The golden-winged lady bird, imported from Australia a few years ago to eat up the cottony cushion scale, has completed the work in most of the southern vineyards and has turned its attention and appetite to the woolly aphid on the apple trees. Another beetle, imported to destroy the red and black scale, has also cleared the parasites from several counties, and lately has appeared in great numbers in the cornfields. Just what its mission there is has not been accurately determined. The export of the most beneficial insects will live on their natural prey is exterminated. They hope they will contract consumption or some other convenient disease, and reason that doubtless nature will kindly fix up the matter satisfactorily. Some of them bear in mind the fact that the mongoose was imported into the island of Jamaica to kill off the rats which ate up the sugar cane, but now the mongoose has eaten up almost every living thing in the island less than a lamb in size, and the Government would give a year's revenue to be rid of the pest.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY.

The Iderton Bicycle Club held their first meet of the season on Thursday, Aug. 1, in the beautiful grove of Dr. Robson, Vaneck. SILVER BALL PLAY.

At St. Yves, England, a feast is held on the nearest Sunday to Candlemas, and on the following Monday the silver ball is thrown. This ball is kept in the tower of the church, but on a particular day he brings it out and throws it to the young men, who toss it to one another until they are tired, and then it is returned to the mayor.—Notes and Queries.

SUMMER COMES

With the flowers and sunshine. Birds pour out their melody and the chirp of the grasshopper will soon tempt the fisherman to stretch forth his hands and grasp the shadow of his flight. The playful mosquito will do her nicest to soothe weary pleasure seekers into the realms of slumber, and the stinging, annoying, cruel will remove every semblance of comfort, make sad the songs of the birds, and evoke cloudiness in the soul, that even the brightest sunshine cannot dispel. Corns are the bane in the flesh, but Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes them in 24 hours. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the best.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS

A whole window full of them. Without doubt the biggest and most wonderful chance to procure a first-class garment at very little money. Look at our window full of Ladies' Jackets, in colored and black, fancy braided and plain. You will be surprised when we state you can have your pick for $3. We will do even better. Some we will sell at $1. Those in this lot were originally worth from $4 to $8.50. But your pick now for $1.

The next lot we are selling at $2. In this lot some are worth from $5 to $10—none less than $5.

The third lot is still more attractive at $3. In it are Jackets worth all the way from $5.75 to $20—none less than $5.75.

NO RESERVE

Every one of these jackets must be sold within a few days. They have been placed on the tables to clear and at these very low prices they are bound to sell. They are not heavy, but made of light and medium cloths, suitable for summer evenings and early fall. Many of them are lined with silk and all are really worth a great deal more than we are asking.

We would like our best customers to see these—those who spend all their money with us. It's a great chance but those who come first, no matter who they are, will have first choice, and first choice means a great deal in this case.

BARNUM'S WIDOW WEDS.

The Great Circus Man's Widow Marries a Greek.

Who is Worth $2,000,000—A Love Match.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Mrs. P. T. Barnum was married yesterday to Demetri Callias Bey, at the Greek Church, Agia Trias. A civil service was first performed. The religious ceremony was conducted by the Greek priest Paisios Ferentis, of the Fifty Third Street Church. The bride was attired in a Worth gown of dark blue silk. The bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Leigh and Miss May Read, both of Bridgeport, Conn. Benjamin Fish, one of the executors of the Barnum estate and a cousin, and Mrs. Barnum, was also present. The bridegroom was accompanied by his best man, Demetri Bey. Also present were the Spanish consul, the Greek consul and the Turkish consul. Immediately after the ceremony there was a breakfast at Delmonico's. Mr. and Mrs. Demetri Callias Bey are to pass a couple of days at Bridgeport before sailing Saturday for Paris. This is necessary because of the bride's determination to part with Marina, the estate just outside of Bridgeport.

There has always been great curiosity as to the age of the bride. In the certificate she is named as Nancy Barnum, age 45, and the bridegroom is set down at 47. The history of the courtship is interesting from the fact that the widow of P. T. Barnum met her husband in Cairo, Egypt, a year and a half ago upon her first trip to the East after the death of her first husband. She was introduced to Demetri Callias Bey by the American consul at the time the latter presented Mrs. Barnum a mummy for the historical society of this city. It was love at first sight. Callias Bey hails from Constantinople, but his fortune is in large olive plantations on the island of Metia, in the Grecian archipelago. He is worth something over $2,000,000, therefore it cannot be said that the handsome Greek wooed Mrs. Barnum for her money—it was rather for herself. During Mrs. Barnum's last trip abroad Mr. Callias Bey visited Marina. He was pleased with the place and would have fact that a bronze statue of heroic size of the late P. T. Barnum is placed in the park directly in front of the house. The statue cannot be removed, as it belongs to the city of Bridgeport, and therefore Mrs. Barnum decided to sell the place and go abroad.

Under Mr. Barnum's will his widow inherited besides Marina, which cost $300,000, an annuity of $40,000 and other property amounting to $1,000,000.

FOR HER WOUNDED HEART.

An Elgin County Woman, Aged 67, Wants $5,000 Balm.

St. Thomas, Aug. 8.—Some time ago a Malahide lady, a widow, some 67 years of age, through her solicitor, Mr. N. H. McIntosh, of Aylmer, entered an action to recover $5,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage against a wealthy Brampton farmer, who is 78 years of age. It was expected that the case would come up for trial at the approaching Elgin Assizes, but nothing further has been done, and the case will not likely be ready for trial at that time. Both because of the age of the parties, their prominence, and the large amount of damages claimed, the case promises to prove an especially interesting one.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.
