

The Grayness of Dust

In time will steal away the color and brightness from the most expensive fabrics. Chenille Curtains are above all, dust catchers. Don't despair as the color changes; maybe we can get it back by a cleaner; if not, we'll give them a new color, a Cardinal, Garnet or Brown, by dyeing.

PARKHURST'S LATEST SENSATION

Charges a Number of Clergymen With Misappropriating Funds.
New York, Feb. 18.—Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst preached yesterday on "How to Realize the Sinfulness of Sin," and in the course of his sermon charged a number of clergymen with lack of honor, claiming that they misappropriated a fund which was raised for a specific purpose and intrusted to their care. The doctor's charge created a sensation, and he was besieged with inquirers who wanted to know to whom he referred.

He said: "I cannot name the clergymen who are referred to in my sermon. I am not prepared to do so, but the facts will probably come out in a few days."

GENEROUS JAPS

Capture a City and Release the Chinese Soldiers.
New York, Feb. 18.—A dispatch to the Herald from Wei Hai Wei says the negotiations for the capitulation of the naval stronghold of Wei Hai Wei have been completed. The Japanese took possession of all the guns of the fort and the ammunition. The crews of the vessels were set free. The Chinese soldiers and sailors were taken to the Japanese lines on the Shantung Peninsula and there set free along with their officers.

The foreigners who assisted in the Chinese defense of Wei Hai Wei were taken to a place some distance away where they will be placed on parole until a military or naval position in China. It was a Chinese officer and not a foreigner who after the suicide of Admiral Ting and Gen. Chang arranged for the surrender. Nanghai is in possession of the Japanese.

—The Askin Street Methodist Church will hold their anniversary tea meeting and entertainment tomorrow evening.

—The time for which the tax rolls were extended a couple of months ago has expired, and $40,000 of last year's rolls are uncollected. Warrants will be issued to compel those in arrears to pay up.

—Mr. John Boyd, of Lucknow, who used the advertising columns of the ADVERTISER, writes as follows: "Inclosed find amount of first quarter's advertising account. I am well pleased with advt., having had good results from it."

—This evening there will be a grand masquerade ball held in the East End hall. Good music has been engaged for the occasion and a jolly time is expected. The floor will be reserved for those in costume only until 10:30, after which all may take part.

—The Toronto district W. C. T. U. purpose holding a school of methods in the Y. W. C. A. Hall, 18 Elm street, on Thursday, 21st inst. Mrs. May R. Thornley, president Provincial W. C. T. U., will take part in the programme, and will also conduct a parliamentary drill.

—Two successful operations were performed at the City Hospital on Friday. Mr. Stephen Carter, of 413 Bathurst street, a spring maker, had a large tumor removed from his left arm. The growth was caused by a small piece of steel penetrating the arm. Edward Paley, 101, 1st St., 18, also underwent a critical operation.

—Both men are doing well.
—The R. T. of T. of Appin gave a very successful concert Friday night in the town hall to a large audience. Mr. Will Thorn, the character comedian, of London, took the audience completely by storm, making a first appearance before an Appin audience. The meeting was given under the auspices of the Appin Amateurs and Mr. R. J. Young, of Glencoe, Miss Kinder, of Strathroy, and the Misses Finlayson, of Appin.

—At the Divisional Court, Toronto, Mr. Helmut (London) for defendant, in the suit of Vaughn vs. G. G. Cameron (London) for plaintiff, contra. Motion dismissed with costs, court holding that the case could not have been withdrawn from jury.

—"Africa the Strange U." was the subject of the most popular illustrated entertainment of the season. Mr. J. H. Aiken, the entertainer, spent years on that delightful continent and is most happy in his presentation of African life and scenery, humor and pathos. The entertainment was given under the auspices of St. James' Presbyterian Church and Dundas Street Center Methodist Church, and will be held in the Grand Opera House Tuesday, Feb. 18.

—The bridge commissioners of the county council—Messrs. Corbett, Hardy, Dreaney, C. C. Hodgins and Biddens, together with Mr. Talbot—met on Saturday afternoon and awarded contracts for the erection of four bridges. They will be placed opposite lot 32, con. 15, London; opposite lot 24, con. 14, Lobo, and opposite lot 16, con. 13, Lobo, and opposite lot 16, con. 1, West Nissouri. Samuel Pearson will build the first three for $1,200, and Jephtha Foreman the fourth for $197.

—Mr. Justice Falconbridge has given judgment in re Willson, on a petition (presented at the last London weekly court) by executors of the will of Geo. M. Willson, for the advice and direction of the court as to whether (1) they should now pay any and what amount of interest to Jane Willson for maintenance of infant Milton Willson. Petition dismissed as to the first question, on the ground that it is not a proper one for the advice or direction of the court. As to the second question, the application is to be renewed after notice to the official guardian, McDonough (London) for petitioners.

Pepper; Treas., Geo. Bakker; assistant

BARK-WELL'S BALSAM.

The distinguishing trait about this BALSAMIC COUGH CURE!

What Is It? Can You Tell?
Why should BARK-WELL'S BALSAM have such a large sale over the countless number of mixtures put up in all parts of the country claimed by the makers to be just as good as BARK-WELL'S BALSAM?

What Is It? Can You Tell?
Why BARK-WELL'S BALSAM cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup and asthma after other preparations fail? If it has not ordinary merits above the common and some special ingredients of cough cures which some dealers claim are just as good as you that such a dealer wished to deceive you? CAN YOU TELL your neighbor of the virtues contained in BARK-WELL'S BALSAM? IF NOT, WHY NOT TRY IT? THEN YOU CAN.

JOS. DAMBRA
262½ Dundas Street.

Rec., May J. Paterson; prelate, Helen Paterson; marshal, Robt. Tait; warden, R. Lucas; guard, Archie Roswell; sentry, W. Walsh; representative to the Grand Council, James Lucas; alternate, Robert Pring. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the installing officers, who made suitable replies. For the good of the order the council was favored with short, able addresses by Friend R. Butler, G. R. (a veteran of the order), and P. C. C. of No. 75, and Friends Joe Fitzgerald and T. Blanchard, P. C. C. of No. 25. The London Council, No. 203, which meets in the above hall every alternate Thursday, is one of the best working councils in the city, having doubled its membership during the past year, with good prospects for the one just entered.

Wixom—McGraw.

Detroit Free Press: "The marriage of Mrs. Louisa McGraw, of London, Ont., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Niles, of Qu'Appelle, Manitoba, to Dr. Russell P. Wixom, of Bancroft, Mich., was celebrated Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Logie in the presence of a large assemblage of friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Scurr. The parlor was handsomely decorated with white carnations and smilax. The bride wore a dress of white silk, trimmed with lace and adorned with white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Blanche Sagan, wore pink crepe de chine and lace and pink roses. The little maids of honor, Nellie McGraw and Mabel Logie, carried bouquets of white carnations and the bridesmaids of the groom, were Mrs. Wixom and the bride's friends. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. A wedding supper was served for 30 guests, and later in the evening the newly wedded couple left on a trip to Chicago."

Work of the "Ys."

The "Ys" held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon. A very helpful Bible reading on "Fruit of the Spirit" was read by Mr. Moore. The monthly reports were read. The total attendance at the rooms for January was 1,302, of which 815 attended during the day, 487 in the evening, 340 at the noon hour. The Y. W. C. A. evening classes were well attended. A club-swinging class has been formed, and meets every Thursday evening from 7:30 to 8 o'clock; the members seem to thoroughly enjoy the exercise. The monthly reception took the form of an art evening, when the rooms were brightened by paintings of the art class. A varied and interesting programme was provided, two notable features of which were a talk on art by Mrs. Stanley Williams and the presentation of a handsome chair as a mark of appreciation and esteem to Mr. David, the art teacher, by his pupils. The members and friends were favored by an earnest address by Mrs. Tilley on the second Saturday evening of the month. The superintendent of juvenile and scientific temperance reported the organization of twenty girls. The meeting has been held Friday afternoons at 4:15 o'clock. Ten have signed the pledge after obtaining permission from their parents. Papers were read for and against the use of birds for millinery purposes by two of the members. They caused a lively debate, which it was decided that all "Ys" should discourage the use of birds for millinery purposes by personal example.

Wives and Life Insurance.

Chief Justice Armour has just rendered a decision in re Grant, which will be of interest to the fathers of families and those who have to do with life insurance. It construes the amendments to the act securing to wives and children benefits of life insurance by virtue of which a man may declare by an instrument in writing an insurance policy to be for the benefit of his wife and children, and such policy shall be deemed a trust and shall not be under the control of the husband or creditors. The act and amendments provide that he may by instrument in writing alter and vary the apportionment as between wife and children. Chief Justice Armour's decision makes a distinction between the "will" words "instrument in writing" and "will" in the amendments to sec. 6 of R. S. O. 228, and holds in effect that a man who has duly declared a life insurance policy to be for the benefit of his wife alone cannot by his will deprive the wife of this benefit and transfer it to his children. He can, however, do so during his life by an instrument in writing attached to or incorporated in the policy. The policy by its number, transfer the benefit from the wife alone to the children alone or vice versa, or vary the apportionment of the wife and children as to receive. In the present case the wife, who is the widow of Geo. R. Grant, a commercial traveler, did not claim the whole of the insurance money, but a share in it along with the children. The chief justice, however, went further and decided that she was entitled to the whole of the money, as her husband could not by will substitute the children for his wife as beneficiaries after having first declared the policy to be for the wife's sole benefit. R. S. O., Cap. 130, Sec. 6, as amended by 51 Vic. Ch. 22, Sec. 3, and 53 Vic. Ch. 33, Sec. 6, construed.
