Lightning Kills Seven Boys on Says President of the London a Pier.

Another Received a Shock From Which He Recovered.

Chicago, July 2.-Seven boys were killed and another severely injured yesterday by a single bolt of lightning. The victims were fishing in Lake Michigan at the foot of Montrose Boulevard, on the north side. The fatal bolt struck the pier where they were seated, and all were thrown into the lake. Only one boy has been so far recovered. A policeman attracted to the pier by the crashing timbers found it impossible to rescue any of the victims. The heavy timbers of the pier had been shattered and the whole structure toppled into the water. He hurried to patrol box and called for assistance. Nearly half an hour elapsed before aid The work of recovering the bodies was extremely difficult, but finally all were carried ashore. Owing to the terrific thunderstorm prevalent the work of identification was extremely slow. Oppressed by the extreme heat the boys had gone in bathing. When the rain began to fall and it became evident a severe electric storm was coming, they rushed to shelter they had built on the pier.

Willie Anderson, 12 years of age, was the only survivor of the shock which followed a moment later. To the po-liceman he gave a bare idea of the horrible ending to an hour's sport, and then fainted. He was carried to a nearby house, where medical assistance was rendered. The fatal stroke was the most powerful seen here in years. The pier was demolished in a trice, giving the boys

He found there was a dam at Cashmere, and that those living in the vicinity of it had a monopoly of practically all the fish in the stream, and that they were shipping them while those to whom the fish rightfully belonged, were denied even the privilege of angling for them. When the colonel actively interested himself in the matter, he was given pledges by certain officers of the government, and these pledges were not kept. Being very much in earnest he used the only weapon in his hands to compel the officers of the government to comply with his reasonable demands. He succeeded, and as a result every individual in the district is now entitled to a share of the fish that were formerly monopolized by a few favored ones at Cashmere.
