The Consolation Goes to Stratford-Full Scores of All Yesterday's Games.

ment is now a matter of history, and it will be classed as the greatest yet held. Yesterday the finals of the association and consolation were finished. The Tecumseh trophy was won by Bert Heaman's Thistles, while A. E. Cash's was finished, and was won by Jack Mc- represented old Erin in fine style. Nee and Dr. Andy Scott, and was a most popular win. The other match will be finished this morning.

The Tecumseh Trophy The second match in importance was the Tecumseh trophy match. Bert City tourney at Berlin. Heaman's Thistles were lined up against Mr. F. P. Hughes' strong Strathroy rink, and a fine battle ensued. Heaman got away to a good start and scored for five straight ends. Hughes came back with a 3 end, and seemed was not to be denied, and kept on scoring. The rink took turn about in scoring, and as a result Heaman was able ing was close, and there was not a big be learned everybody had the time of end during the game.

Skip Hughes had a good rink, and it deserved the high place it got. There was a loyal bunch of rooters for him at the game, and they pulled hard for him to come through. But Heaman was just a little too good and the Strathroy man could not get up. The score: Strathrov. London Thistles.
