THE HARVESTER AFTER CRESCEUS' RECORD

Driven by the daddy of all the light harness horsemen, Ed. Geers, that famous speed machine, The Harvester, will start for the world's trotting record, 2:021/4, made by Cresceus at Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 2, 1901. The Harvester has a mark of 2:0614, three seconds slower than the mark made by the golden chestnut speed marvel of the last decade.

At Kalamazoo Geers stepped the classy son of Walnut Hall a mile in 2:05, last half in one minute flat. He will start The Harvester over the fast North Randall track, the third week of the grand circuit season, if weather and track conditions are suitable.
