THE MARYS' GIFT A BIG CHECK

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 9. — A new and striking feature will mark the great ceremony of the coronation. The standards of India, Wales and of the British dominions beyond the seas will be borne into Westminster Abbey in addition to those of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the union standard.

The coronation gift to Queen Mary from her namesakes in the British dominions will be presented to her majesty in Buckingham Palace today by the members of the executive committee of the fund. It takes the form of a check for £12,400, which will be handed to the Queen by Lady Mary Trefunis, president of the fund.

She screamed to the children, who were still sleeping, and taking the baby in her arms she literally shoved the other three youngsters ahead of her out the front door. The smoke was checking and the fire was cracking and roaring above their heads.

An instant after their flight the flames leaped into the bedroom, cutting off all chances of escape.

The front door was pulled open, and Mrs. Berryhill and the youngsters were leepy, and the police Gave Alarm.

In the meantime, P. C. Macrae, who was on the beat, saw the fire, and immediately turned in an alarm. The fire department responded promptly, and after a battle of an hour or more they succeeded in subduing the fames.

died here today. He was born at Aix in 1842, and became known early as an enemy of the empire. He was elected a member of the National Assembly in 1871, and in 1881 he was appointed minister of commerce in the Gambetta cabinet. In 1887 he became premier, taking also the portfolio of finance. His ministry lasted only six months, but it was notable for the retirement of General Boulanger, as minister of war. Boulanger was then at the height of his popularity, and M. Rouvier's action was regarded as a courageous one.

M. Rouvier held the finance portfolio in 1889, 1890, 1892, and from 1902 until 1905, when he was again made prime minister. He resigned from that office in March, 1906, being defeated in the Chamber of Deputtes on a minor debate over church disorders.

Census Commissioner Scatcherd stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that two of the enumerators have already given up their jobs.

"I will not appoint any new men to do the work," said Mr. Scatcherd. "It is too late now for me to instruct them. I will simply divide the distitcts the men had among the others, and give them the benefit. Most of the enumerators are making good progress, although some of them find the work very tiresome."

In Hamilton the other day four of the census men quit in disgust, saying that they could make hardly any money out of the proposition.
