Into Bermuda. New York, Jan. 7. - The Atlantic fleet, now bound for Cuba, was more or less damaged by the storm on the Atlantic coast Friday. So far only two lives have been reported lost, and both of these were from the cruiser Salem, which is now creeping along the coast on her way to Norfolk navy yard. She was within 18 miles of Cape Henry at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

and is expected to arrive in the roads before daybreak. The two men who lost their lives on the Salem were Taylor Bagwell, of Bellhaven, Va., and Herman Goldstein, of New York city. Ten other men who were caught by the same wave that washed their less fortunate shipmates overboard were picked up from the deck by comrades. These men, it is said, fell face downward on the deck and managed to remain on the ship by grabbing hold of chains and the railing. They were nearly frozen when picked up, and
