

Two Teams Will Meet For City Amateur Title

Civil Service Win Handily, But Marconi Errors Prove Undoing, Giving Winners Six of Nine Runs.

Civil Service took the third game of the post-season series with the Grand Trunk nine at Queen's Park Saturday, 9 to 1, and with it the 1922 championship of the Manufacturers' League.

Robert's wildness, coupled with nine hits, when his meant runs, spelled defeat for the railwaymen. Down batted a masterly game, and his mates gave him splendid support.

Civil Service garnered three runs to start the first when Armstrong walked and went to second on a passed ball. Down singled and Reilly and Smith walked, forcing Armstrong home. Southcott hit to Conners, who threw wide to the plate, and Down was safe. Reilly scored on Watts' sacrifice fly to Hicks.

In the seventh, the Posties collected two more, after Burgess grounded out. Roberts walked Armstrong and Down. Reilly was out to McLeod, but Smith singled to left, scoring Armstrong and Down. Southcott fouled out.

Just to be on the safe side, as it were, the Civil Service walked into four more in the ninth. Armstrong, first man up, flew out to Hicks. Jeffries dropped Hank. Burgess walked. Down and Smith both singled. Down scored. Southcott singled to left scoring Reilly and Smith. Watts hit to deep left and Southcott scored. Nopper grounded out and Hoesle ended it with a long fly.

The Grand Trunk registered a lone tally in the third, when Smith walked and scored on McLeod's bunt down the third base line.

Down was never in real danger after the third. In the sixth, however, a fast double play, after Burgess bobbled Jeffries' grounder, prevented what might have been a bad situation.

With Jeffries' error, the Posties had a double, Nopper to Burgess to Reilly. Sumner singled to center immediately after, but Conners fanned, ending the inning.

30 SHOOT OFF IN 1ST W.O.R. MATCH

Lieut. J. Smith and Sgt. Lee Tied in Regimental Match.

Splendid weather favored the annual matches of the W. O. R. Rifle Association on Saturday afternoon at the Cove Range. Unfortunately, a thick haze made visibility very poor over the longer ranges of 500 and 600 yards, where it was a difficult matter to distinguish the bullseye over the rifle sights. Nevertheless, scoring was well up to the average, and in some cases remarkably good. There were more than 30 entries, and the full program was completed on schedule time.

Brigadier-General W. B. M. King, C.M.G., D.S.O., was an interested spectator of the matches, and accompanied by Major J. D. Corbridge, the headquarters staff. The commanding officer of the regiment, Lieut.-Col. E. R. D. Smith, was also on hand.

The regimental match was the first event, and was staged over the 200 and 300-yard ranges, seven shots at each range. The scores were closely contested, and the first place prize resulted between C.M.S. M. H. Lee and Lieut. J. W. Smith. The scores were: C.M.S. M. H. Lee, 115; Lieut. J. W. Smith, 114.
