VOMEN'S HOME AND MAGAZINE PAGE

Seeing Week-End Market With Aunt Maria's Eyes

gain sale is like being a virtuoso of with fruits, vegetables, poultry, the plane or violin. You can't do honey, dairy products, enough to feed a cityful of people. it by ear. Unless, possibly, you are stances it would appear you must painstakingly (and painfully) acquire last. the technique. You must develop a "E You should have a working knowl"Not nearly so watery as vegetable edge of the ethics of the jungle and the law of grab. A mastery of jiu jitsu would stand you in good the suggested popping them in the stead in order to take adequate care oven and baking them whole, then of competitors. Not always is the race to the neighborly woman next volunteered Likewise, it isn't always the early puts them right on top of the pobird that gets the worm. The foregoing is the sentiments of and thus saved fuel. Aunt Maria.

She knows whereof she talks. She has been to a bargain sale, beets, onions, white turnips.

and come away with nothing but a How the cabbages of the spring frayed disposition. She rose betimes of Saturday cabbages that retailed for 9 and 10 morning and sallied gally forth, detents a pound, to see their summer termined that if taking time by the cousins selling at three substantial forelock and a moderate amount of ones for 10 cents. That is what cash would buy her the robe she had marketers discovered in some places.

Cauliflower, 15 Carts. the day before, why, the gown was as good as hers. Already there was for a quarter.

a line up at the front doof, where Quantities of red raspberries were she had expected to arrive first. She tried another door. Ha! (as Cuthberts all, practically, some sellvillain mutters) there were but ing for 22 cents, some for 23, 25 and Berkshire Hills. two ahead, and they looked hot, very plump, and easily winded.

The minutes dragged away, and Aunt Maria catapulted herself in currants were spied, and a good later be joined by Rev. Dr. MacGregor

She reached the stairway first and nearly bowled over the respectable array, scrub lady descending, who fervently and $1.50; spring chickens exclaimed: "Good Lord, what's com-

Tramp, tramp, tramp, came the sound of rushing feet, as if an army were dashing to an exactly timed at- $1 for a five-pound pail, and 35 cents ing this week at "Loveholm," Spring tack. The absurdity of the simile caused Aunt Maria to smile a literary smile.

Octopus Would Shine Her little idea, thought up in jest came home to roost a few seconds later in dead earnest.

Scrimmage! Rush! She was almost overtaken. But she did manage cheerfully away at a pipe as he waitto drive waiting clerks out of the ed to sell, and even when he was way, and grab the right automatic salesman on which the coveted sale gowns were hung.

Aha! The one she wanted! Three four, five, six of them, all alike, and a pipe or cigar right over the pots all equally to be desired. But nary and pans while the meal was in one of the right girth or length! The silent salesman was whirling so fast, possibly she only imagined there was more than one of a kind. him by, despite the excellent value No. first guess was right. ideal dresses scattered in all directions, borne away by the triumphan who had come forearmed with knowledge, as well as forewarned. Foreous would seem an enviable possession under such circumstances.

When she couldn't get first choice, why The Advertiser's chronic mar- riot of summer blooms, in price all week. keter tried for second. She bore the way from 5 cents for away to a quiet corner, enhanced by of marigolds, sweet peas, snapdragon, mirror, a creation of which she was cornflowers, dahlias, to 75 cents bit dubious. It was one of those a dozen for gorgeous gladiolus. things that look awfully well other people, or in the right size. It wasn't the right size. She hadn't dared hope it would be. It wouldn't have been the right length, even a year ago of shocking inches from the ground. To that selfsame corner came a smiling acquaintance, carrying the grown, the right sized gown for which Aunt Maria had wrecked her morning slumber, broken the speed limit for walking in July, and sent her dignity to the four winds.

The smiling acquaintance slipped on the delectable confection, smiled at herself in the glass, was sorry there wasn't two equally large dresses in the style, paid her coin, and started away.

A course in ruthlessness would seem to be an essential finishing touch to education in getting what you want at a bargain sale. "Anyway," said Aunt Maria nastily in farewell to the smiling acquaint-"the people who have been ance, "the people will here this morning won't be able to say I bought my dress at a bargain." Early To Market.

A precious lot of satisfaction that Bargain sales aren't such a far cry from the week-end market. The dis covery was made that a lot of people are on the market shortly after o'clock, and a lot of people have their marketing done by 9 o'clock. Yet at 12 o'clock and much later,

DON'T TRUSS

That does not hold with comfort. "Dgan's" new "Easyfit" surgical appliance being designed in conformity with the retentive principles, as set forth by the world's latest textbooks, are now receiving the highest approval and embody all the scientific principles as now approved of and used in New York, London, Paris and other centers. The sanitary rubber retentive shield holds with the flesh-like action of the hand, gives a mild life-like exercising massage, thus permitting a free circulation, and is intended to allow nature to strengthen the weakened parts in the shortest time possible in the average case. It retains parts firmly and never slips. Can be worn day and night, always light, cool, adjustable, and conforms to every movement of the body without hurting or chafins. Neat in appearance and cannot be detected through the clothing. Costs little, lasts long. It costs you nothing to investigate the best in the world, so don't wait; delays may be dangerous. Now is the time to tear this potice out and send three cent world, so don't wait, delays may be dangerous. Now is the time to tear this notice out and send three cent stamp for free circular and my trial guarantee. Do it today. THOS. Y. EGAN, Suite 12.

90n-zxt

Look to Your Eyes Beautiful eyes, like fine MURINE NES genius bon. Under any circum- Saturday, 5 cents apiece the owner of a big load was asking for the very children have left for Port Stanley,

All manner of vegetables were 5 cents a pound, to see their summer

Cauliflowers were 15 cents, or two even 27. Gooseberries were a better price than a week ago, 121/2 cents a big year-old fowls for $1.40

many black at 23 cents a box.

for $1.25, $1.40 and $1.50 apiece.

for 30 cents apiece.

actually making sales.

course of preparation?

be offered.

cents

ciding customers.

section in the comb, while a few offered just as good-looking sections

A certain man was selling honey.

were well filled, and when held up

It was good honey. The sections in the light showed beautifully clear

But their farmer vendor puffed

No quarrel with smoking in itself,

Possibly his pipe was the one and presented goes a long way in de-

Butter? 38 and 40 cents a pound,

But enough for Saturday, July 22.

getting along, a whole month after

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

A Jaunty Apron Model.

3991-When you work in the garden or serve tea, and for other equally interesting door duties, this apron will

Pattern mailed to any address on re-

Address all pattern orders to Pattern ceipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.

Age (if child's or misses' pattern).....

Measurement: Bust ..... Waist ....

Department

~

but how would he like to eat his dinner if he saw the cook smoking where they will spend the next three "But aren't they watery?" asked a weeks at Fort Long. Miss Luella Waddell of Toronto, is dry if you cook 'em the right way." spending a part of her vacation in He suggested popping them in the town, staying with her aunt, Mrs. B. Smith, 435 Ridout street. scooping them out afterwards. The Miss Edith Brown of Highland information she steamed hers, Park, Illinois, is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. J. H. Cook, King street, tatoes when the spuds are cooking, and Mrs. S. Winslowe, William street.

Hutton, have returned from a twoweeks' motor trip to Kingston and doors. would gasp in aristocratic horror, the Renfrew.

> Miss Mary Manley, who is engaged in literary work in Toronto for the summer, spent the week-end at her home in this city, returning Monday

Mr. Aurelius E. Wigle and Mrs. have left in their tour-Wigle to be found, by the box or crate, ing car on an extended trip dress. through the Catskill Mountains and

Mrs. D. C. MacGregor and sister, quart for the ripening ones, big and Miss Miller, have left to spend some bolt shot back, the door flew open, plump, 10 for the green. A few red weeks in Orillia, where they will on his return from Spokane, Washing-The poultry was present in noble ton.

Mrs. Robert Hague, a visitor in London and vicinity, during the abcents apiece up, and delectable ducks sence in England of her husband, who has gone over with the cricket eleven The honey crop was well represented, numbers selling at the rate of taken by Norman Seagram, is staybank, the guest of her brother, Mr Purdom Love.

> Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith and son Clarence, of Woodstock, motored up ence with cinnamon bulbs tell A Pest the end of the week to see their what should be done with them in nephews, who had just arrived from the fall. Delighted yours are grow Ireland, Austin and Kenneth Rylands. While here, Mr. Smith skipped a very happy to get that brown suit. prize-winning rink at the London Now, don't all speak at once. Bowling Club. They were guests of Mrs. C. H. Rice, Glenwood Hospital.

Mr. A. Screaton, 232 Queen's py house party, including his son, Mr. Fred Screaton Mrs. Screaton avenue, has been entertaining a hap-Fred Screaton, Mrs. Screaton and their two children, Margaret and Isabel, of Paris, France, and Mrs only reason that some buyers passed Screaton's sister, Mrs. Jay Alexander of Cleveland, Ohio, with Mr. Alex-The manner in which butter is ander and Billy and Jim Alexander. Mr. Fred Screaton left Sunday evening on a short trip to New York. On his return he will bring back with The equipment of an octo- if it please you, and eggs, 28 and 30 him his son Billy. Friends who are useful. in town in the heliday season have As for flowers, the only difficulty been giving a warm welcome to Mr. was to make the choice in such a and Mrs. Screaton, during the past educated citizens to build up a fine,

London and Western Ontario people staving at the Hotel Imperial, Grand Bend, include: Misses A. M. and I. H Traver London: Miss L. E. Isn't it appalling how the year's Mottashed, London; Miss M. H. Jackson, London; Miss E. Stevens, London; Miss F. M. Wilson, London; Mr. J. A. Fraser, London; Mr. G. E. Tudor, London; Mr. G. T. Guryn, wife and children, Toronto; Madge Monahan, Brantford; W. A. Webb, Galt: Annie Mather, Brantford; Katheen M. Keen, Brantford; F. St. Lawrence, wife and family, London; Misses M. and M. L. Elliott, Sarnia; Misses Isla and M. Reed, Sarnia; Roy Dale and Mrs. Dale, London; Mrs. A. Dale, London; Miss Mayane Malloch, London; H. W. Wadner, Waterloo; J. O. Hemphill, Waterloo.

Professor H. R. Kingston, Western University, with Mrs. Kingston and son Maurice, has returned to the city after spending a few days at Ipper-wash Beach with Rev. and Mrs. R. J. suppose such a sedate person as I Bowen. Wednesday evening Dr. Kingston gave a lecture on "The wonderful Heavens" to a large comboy Taylor's pranks, and sort of wish pany of campers gathered on the I were doing the things myself, which spacious veranda of the cottage of of course, I never would or did. Rev. Mr. Horne of Toronto. The lecture was illustrated by picture sober, settled-down person just be-

Guests staying at Lake View House, Grand Bend, include: D. S. Tait, De-McCormack, London; S. Young, London; Mrs. J. W. Leonard, Brampton; afford pleasing protection.

It is cut in four sizes, small 34-36, medium 38-40, large 42-44, extra large 46-48 inches bust measure. A medium G. Armstrong, Brampton; Mrs. G. Armstrong, Brampton; Mrs. G. Armstrong, Brampton; Mrs. and Lena Prangley, Chatham; Norma Stewart, Detroit; Audrey Weichel, Waterloo: Melta Waller, Waterloo: Miniota Fairdale, Waterloo; Normie Weichel. family, Kitchener; Mrs. Ide and two boys, Kitchener. SHARING LITERATURE.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. J. H. McKay Friday, and although not a very large gathering, an enjoyable afternoon was spent. It was decided to send magazines, etc., to logging camps and caution: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need mark only 38, 44 or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—I received the cinnamon vines O. K., but just one grew and it is lovely. I will set it outside soon. Sorry I didn't inclose my mite. I thought after I sent my letter away that I didn't put mite in, but would wait till I saw my letter in print. So find inclosed 25 cents. Wishing you all good luck, FLORABELLE.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barton, with two children and sister, Miss Muriel Hutton, have returned from a twocontinue to thrive when you put it-out > ADDRESSES WANTED. My Dear Miss Grey,—Just a few lines asking you if you will please forward me Hope's and April Show-ers' addresses. I sent a parcel to London to a party who wanted the coats I offered, and also a parcel to Hampshire. Must close my now. Sincerely, HERTFORDSHIRE.

>
> Have forwarded you the desired adlress. You have been good indeed about helping others, Hertfordshire.

DON'T ALL SPEAK AT ONCE. Dear Miss Grey,-I am writing to ask you if you know if those cinnamon bulbs are to be taken up in the fall the same as other bulbs. I have an idea they should but would like to make sure.

Mine are growing fine.

I have a brown suit that some one might have for paying postage on it. It is about a 34 waist, if I am not mistaken. It is too small for me and may as well be doing someone good. Don't all speak at once, will you.

I will close and wish the Mail-Box every success. A PEST. Will someone who has had experi-ing so well. Someone is going to be MUST GO TO SCHOOL. Dear Miss Grey,-Hello, Miss Grey, don't you wish you were with me picking berries? I wish you were. Well, Miss Grey, do

u know if the law is enforced

that the children have to go to school until they are sixteen? am, PUSSY WILLOW NO. 3. Mean of you to talk about berry picking when you know I have to sit up primly in a proper newspaper office pounding a typewriter and otherwise trying to make myself Don't you think the adolescent act is a pretty good thing, because it will mean so much better

HERE'S TOMBOY TAYLOR. Dear Miss Grey,-I would like to correspond with Ashputtel, as I will be 13 on the 17th. I think it interesting to write to some-body you don't know. I hope Ashputtel doesn't mind tomboys and will correspond with me. I am going on a trip and will be in the country. Don't you wish you could come? I will have to put off all my pranks before the 1st of September, as I may have to become "a dignified high school girl." I would hate to fail, and yet hate to leave my public school days behind me. Have you ever felt that way? The fund is growing fine, isn't it? Find inclosed 25 cents for it. Also inclosed selfaddressed envelope for you to for ward Ashputtel's address. I will have to ring off. As before, TOMBOY TAYLOR.

Hello, Tomboy Taylor. Glad to ge lantern views of the moon, the sun, cause you are entering high school? Remember, lady fair, all work and no breaking gently on the beach and the skies brilliant with stars and planets lent a most appropriate setting to the casion permits, and be a good, jolly, whole-souled young person, laughs at difficulties and smiles so troit; Margaret O'Connor, Chatham; cheerily at the world, the world just Daisy Ward, Chatham; Inez E. Slat- cannot help smiling back. Did I ever er, Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. R. Leach, London; Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wyler, Whist, I was 13 myself once, and 1 London: G. R. Norfolk, London: L. felt terribly old and responsible, just because I had entered on my teens. That was so long ago, I hate to it, but if no one was looking, I'd still love to climb trees and do to Now, I'm afraid the Mailthings. size requires 2% yards of 36-inch ma- Mrs. T. Hord, Strathroy; Violet Dier- Box mothers are going to frown o lam, Listowel; Gladys Hall, Listowel; Mrs. Peter Hord, Parkhill; the dignified, proper Cynthia (which I am). You were a dear to send in Lens. Prescriet. Charles to help along the Mail-Box fund. Of course, you read in Wednesday's paper how well it is coming along. Sending Ashputtel's Weichel, Waterloo; Eva address at once. Isn't it a coincidence the names of both your towns stars Waterloo; Dr. Kiniffel, wife and with the same letter? If I were with the same letter? superstitious, I should say it looked > ACCEPT WITH PLEASURE. Dear Miss Grey,-These are vacation days, and I am sending a personal invitation to all the "Lancashire Lads and Lassies," who may read this to meet me at 2 on Saturday afternoon, and we will take a little trip to dear old Manchester. Oh, here we are, at Regent Road Barracks, the big gate is wide open, and the soi diers are out on the "square," and going to drill. Let's stand and watch them a few moments Along Regent road we go out to Liverpool road and the market.

like a good augury for your friend-

We pass the several stalls, the auctioneers have quite a gathering. We manage to get through the crowds and out to the corner of Market street. We look around for an instant in the direction of the bridge to Salford or, maybe the cathedral and Strangeways, along Market street, and here we are at Samuels' jewelry store. Now, we will all do some window shopping, and pick out the articles of jewelry we hope to be able to buy some day. Next we come to Lewis' big departmental store, and now we will sit down on the benches at the Royal Infirmary a little while and watch the newsboys on the sidewalk turning "cart wheels" for pennies. Here is the 'bus to take us all out to Bellevue Gardens. All aboard, lads! Oh, what a day we are having, I say. Meet me next Saturday afternoon at 2, and we will all go down Ordsall Lane, and out to Pomona, shall we? After much joking and laughter we will leave each other, happy to meet, sorry ta. LONESOME FOR BLIGHTY.

Lonesome for Blighty, what a vivid picture you have painted! Never was it all. Even if I'm a "rank outsider," sweet peas. won't you let me come along on that Saturday hike, and you won't know me from a real Lancashire lass, be cause I'll keep my mouth so tight shut and my ears and eyes so wide open. And you can laugh and joke to your hearts' content. Aunt Cynthia won't once suggest you are making too much noise. exactly how you feel. Once upon a time, I was far, far away from London in Western Ontario, where The Advertiser grows. I used to dream at nights (when I couldn't sleep) that I was standing at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, seeing familiar-looking people go by. would imagine I was pulling into London on the train, and I thought it would even be bliss to scuff up my best new brogues, stubbing my toes on the old Grand Trunk Why don't you Boxite Lancashire lads and lassies form a tramp club to hold old Blighty reunion picnics right here in Canada? I am sure there would be some interesting recognitions at the rendezvous. Come again soon, Lonesome, and take us on another joy ride.

WANTS COON SONGS.

Dear Cynthia,-I have been a reader of your column for a long time and find it quite interesting. I am coming for help this

If I can help in any way or any how I will gladly do it. Please, could you get me a few Scotch and some coon songs? ! would be very much pleased to get them. Find inclosed stamped and self-addressed ROVER.

Yours sincerely, ROVER. Sorry, Rover, I haven't any Scotch or coon songs in the Mail-Box corner at present, but perhaps some of musical members will be glad to send ou along some. I have your address posted up and will be glad to give it o anyone who has songs for you.

WANTS DOUBLE PETUNIAS. Dear Miss Grey,—I am writing to see if you or any of the Boxites could send me a double petunia slip, for which I am sending you 10 cents for C. H. F. I have shipped the parcel of patches to the person in Denfield. I haven't any more to spare Just now, but will send some to X. Y. Z, after a while.

Petunias are such satisfactory plants. aren't they? I saw a bed of them the sister Boxite, and I'm sure X. Y. Z. will planets and star clusters, obtained by the world's largest telescopes. A beautiful evening with the waves letter. Possibly you closed it up in a hurry and forgot to slip it in-the sort mingly in your studies, but you'll of thing I'm always doing myself. climb trees and play baseball, and Isn't the fund growing splendidly? Did you see in Wednesday's paper we have already paid to the benefits. already paid to the honorary treasurer $720 towards our cot?

RECEIVED N. M. E.'s AD-

DRESS. My Dear Miss Grey,-Please excuse me for coming so often. but I saw in tonight's Advertiser that "A Real Lancashire Lass" has some material she will send me. I feel very grateful to her, as it will be most useful for the children, so perhaps Dear Miss Grey, you will give her my address. I received a parcel this morning from N. M. E. Thank you so much, N. M. E., for the useful articles, and also for paying postage.

Dear Miss Grey, you have really been my friend in need. Mere words cannot express my thanks, but God will bless you for helping to cheer my life, and also my little family. Yours truly, HOPE. truly,

I am mailing you a A Real Lan cashire's address so you can send for the material to make the clothes for the little ones. I am delighted to hear you received such a nice parcel from N. M. E.

WHO'LL HELP? My Dear Miss Grey, - I am coming to you for assistance, which I have tried to do without for so long, as I know there are so many boxites coming to you in the same way, and I know the response has been so wonderful. I have a family of five children. I expect to be mother again this

Is Charming Summer Social Event HAVE ACTIVE GUIDES A charming house wedding took neath with clusters of pink sweet place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 peas, the bride's and groom's cakes

Purdom-M'Kay Wedding Saturday

Ella Isabel, only daughter of Mrs. the bride, responded to by the groom. McKay and the late W. R. McKay, Mrs. McKay, mother of the bride, Esq., was married to William Wan- wore a smart gown of black canton Purdom, only son of Mr. and crepe, with lace garniture and cor-Mrs. Alexander Purdom, 387 King sage of deep mauve sweet peas. Mrs. street. Rev. F. W. K. Harris, assist- Purdom, mother of the groom, was Guide companies in sixty-four cenant minister of St. Andrew's Presby- handsome in a mauve costume. Miss ters, so rapidly is the movement pro-added an effective decorative touch Ross McKay was wearing a smart cos- by Miss Beth Pennington, and pubto the living-room, where the cere- tume of henna crepe, embroidered lished in London. The places are mony was performed in the presence with steel beads, and her guest, Miss Ancaster, Apsley, Arthur, Aultsof 60 guests, the bridal party present- Jennie Reed of Port Colborne, yellow ville, Aurora, Aylmer, Bala, Barrie, of 60 guests, the bridal party present- Jennie Reed of Port Colborne, yellow ing a most attractive picture against crepe. background of palms, in front of which was placed a white satin prie with cerise corsage, and Miss Ruth Ford, Fordwich, Fort William, Guelph, During the signing of the register, Gilmore of Clinton, Ohio, also the Hamilton, Hanover, Harrow, Inger-Miss Merlyn Pococke sang an approguest of Mrs. McKay, wore a modish soll, Islington, Jordan Station, creation of Paddy green canton crepe Kingston, Kitchener, London, Merritoriate number, 'Sacrament," by Macwith touches of white.

The fair bride, who was given in Out-of-town guests included a Liskeard, New Toronto, Niagara marriage by her brother, Mr. Ross large party which motored over from Falls, Orangeville, Ottawa, Picton, McKay of this city, was levely in her Wallaceburg. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Port Arthur, Port Carling, Port Colwedding robe of white canton crepe, Gordon, Dr. and Mrs. Hay, Mr. and borne, Port Hope, Renfrew, Rodney, with panels of lace, over which fell in graceful folds her bridal veil of D. C. McDonald, Miss Anna Mills, Mr. St. Catharines, Smiths Falls, Sudbury, Sundridge, Timmins, Toronto, Verona, Limerick lace, that had done service and Mrs. Guy McDonald, Mr. James Walkerton, Walkerville, Warkworth, Walkerton, Walkerville, Warkworth, Walkerton, Weston, Weston, Weston, Whitby, Limerick lace, that had done service and Miss. Guy Mrs. J. Rowe, and Miss Waterloo, Weston, won her mother's wedding day. A McDonell, Mrs. J. Rowe, and Miss Winchester, Windsor. coronet of orange blossoms held the Addie Rowe, Capt. J. Laurie and Mrs. veil in place, and she carried Ophelia Laurie came up from Toronto; Mr. roses, showered with sweet peas. A and Mrs. A. J. McKay and Mr. and very winsome bridesmaid was the Mrs. James McKay from Woodstock, in the report from Orangeville, that groom's sister, Miss Maybelle Pur- and Miss Jennie Reed from Port Col- the Daughters of the Empire gave dom, in frock of pink satin, veiled borne.

with lace, and carrying pink sweet peas. Mr. Clair McKay of Detroit, trip to Atlantic City, after which they brother of the bride, was best man. will take up their residence in the fifty yards for their first class For traveling, Mrs. Purdom test. Following the service and receiving of city. congratulations by the happy young donned a modish gray costume of couple, a buffet luncheon was served tricotine, the suit coat opening over "Foxlease," there myself, but I think I can see in the dining-room, adorned with pink a tangerine blouse, and a scarf in the England, the rendezvous of the Girl Streamers of white satin same vivid tone giving a smart and never even peeped at Blighty, ribbon falling from the electrolier finishing touch. Her hat, shoes and were caught to the bride's table be- stockings were also of gray.

Champion Camper Is Her

ARE you a good camper? Do you know if you are? Have you ever had an opportunity of finding out? The members of the Bar racks Company of Girl Guides who, by the way, inaugurated the summer camp movement for guides in the city this year, were afforded the chance of proving their efficiency as campers. A competition added to the interest, and, at the end of two weeks' outing at Sabine country home across the river from Springbank Park, a prize was awarded to the girl considered to be the best allround camper. The guide who had so distinguished herself was Katie Howard. Tracking competitions were held during the camp, Marjorie Videll com-for the new arrival, and it keeps me guessing to know what to do. My husband's health is not the best, and his wages small, so ! cannot do a great deal as I cannot help myself, but if any of the boxites could kindly give me a few things in the way of clothones, or anything for the expected one, I would be truly thankful. I have two boys, 6 and 8, and the girls are 11 and 16 months. Inclosed find mite for

P. S.—I will gladly pay post-ige on any parcels. T. I. P. age on any parcels. T. I. P.

If you are as nice as our reliable friend, "Tip," I'm sure you will have many warm friends in the Mail-Box In any case, we welcome you, even if it is emergency that has brought you. You know the latch is always hanging outside, and the circerely hope you will be helped, as so Thursday, July 20, at St. Matthew's cle can always hold one more. Sinmany others have been. Surely there are mothers of growing boys and was girls who can fit some member of your family. It was so considerate of you to send those two five-cent pieces wrapped up in paper when your own family needs are so great. Of course, you remember what was said of the widow who cast her mite into the treasury. In the eyes of the Great Master she had given more than all those who were able to make great gifts without feeling it. Here's hoping that a generous response will come to your appeal for help in oringing up those five young Canadians to be good, strong citizens. Have T. I. P.'s address filed for any who have assistance for her.

SENDS SHIN PLASTERS.

Dear Miss Cynthia,-Inclosed find two shin plasters for your S. C. H. fund. Wish it were more. Would like to get in touch with someone who has white peony or flax roots to spare. Will give more for roots if I can get them. TILDIE. Sincerely, What nice, crisp, clean shin plas ters! Would like to see a whole lot more of them for our S. C. H. fund. Two make very good company in this case, I can assure you. Can come Boxite let Tildie have the roots to add to her perennial garden? If Falls and other eastern points, after so, her address is waiting on the which they will take up their resifamily list. SENDING PICTURE BOOK.

Dear Cynthia,-I am returning crochet patterns which you sent, and thank you very much for them and the cinnamon bulbs. wonder where our old Boxite March Wind is hiding. I am sure we would all be glad to hear from her. I am sending mite for S. C. H., and Cynthia, I am saving the funny jungleland movie picture books and thought they would be nice for the little sick children. Could you tell me who to send them to. Best wishes to all. FADED LILY.

How nice of you to anticipate the mediately to Sardonyx.

HAD TO GET PERMITS FROM SINN FEINERS

Austin and Kenneth Rylands Arrive From Ireland To Join Parents.

"Before we could come away, it leave the city," said an interesting afternoon, Austin Rylands, who, with eleven, has just reached here from GUIDE FAMILY. Athy, County Kildare, Ireland, and is visiting his aunt, Mrs. C. H. Rice Ridout street, and uncle, Mr. C. R. Smith, Mount Pleasant avenue.

Coming to Canada a few years ago, their parents, who are living in St. Thomas, left behind the young lads to finish their school course in Dublin. Owing to the continued unrest, however, Mr. and Mrs. Rylands have considered it advisable to have their boys with them.

Further, with regard to the pass ports from the Sinn Fein officials, the older of the boys said: "We were given to understand the permits would be much needed, and that we would be required to show them a every turn. As a matter of fact, we weren't asked to show them once, and altogether we had a very pleasant

Reference was made to the destruc ion that has been wrought in Ire the boys showing snaps they had taken themselves, and stating no attempt had been made to take these from them or otherwise interfere

Nothing had been heard before they left of conscripting the boys of fourteen. Real young Irishmen as they are, Austin and Kenneth Rylands are happy to be in a peaceful country and with their own family once

THE BRIDES

WARD-MEPHAM.

Church, by the Rev. H. B. Ashby when Ellen Jane Mepham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mepham of Hastings England, became the bride of Lewis Garfield Ward of this city (formerly of Toronto). The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. W. G. Mepham, wore graceful gown of ivory duchess satin prettily combined with while georg ette and pearls and a veil of white tulle falling softly from a coronet of orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and sweet Mrs. L. Boorman and Mrs. W. G.

Mepham were matrons of wearing becoming gowns of peacock blue duchess satin. The Misses Lilian Boorman and Florence Mepham, nieces of the bride, were flower girls, wearing dainty frocks of white silk and carrying baskets of mauve sweet peas and ferns. Following the ceremony, the bride and groom received congratulations from about 30 guests at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. Boorman, 379 Adelaide street, where a buffet luncheon was served in the dining-room Quantities of summer flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Ward left to spend a short honeymoon in Toronto, Niagara dence in the city.

wishes of the little sick folks who will be treated some day in the hos pital our Boxites are helping to furish. I'm sure the small patients will love the movie picture books. should suggest that you send them Memorial Hospital committee. Mrs J. Greenaway, 352 King street London. Thank you for returning the crochet patterns, also for mite inclosed, which will help us along owards that cot we are going to endow.

Phyllis: Forwarded your letter im-

SIXTY-FOUR PLACES

o'clock, at the home of the bride's proving a decorative feature. Rev. F. Movement Goes Ahead Rapid-mother, 134 William street, when W. K. Harris proposed the toast to Owns "Foxlease."

Ontario now boasts active Girl

Mills of Wallaceburg playing the coming gown of white georgette, and wedding music.

Miss Pococke cream lace over pale of the provincial council official of the provincial of the provincial council official of the provincial of the provincial council official of the provincial of th Great clusters of pink gladioli pink satin, and large green hat. Mrs. organ, the Girl Guide Bulletin, edited Belleville, Bobcaygeon, Brantford, Mrs. D. D. Gordon, a house guest, Cobourg, Cochrane, Damascus Durwas gowned in black chantilly lace ham, Espanola, Fergus, Fonthill, ton, Mount Dennis, Napanee, New Swam 50 Yards.

London Guides will be interested the Guides of that place a picnic one

An interesting story is told of ' Lyndhurst, Hampshire Guides of the world, thanks to the generosity of Mrs. Sawnderson, of reystone, Washington, D.C.

Referring to the large amount required to decorate and put the place in shape, a quotation as follows, is given from the Gazette:

"Some may think, perhaps, that Princess Mary's gift is only being used to put the place in order, and for decorating and furnishing, but this is not so. With that money, we hope to enable Guiders from a distance to find their way to "Foxlease, was necessary to go to the Sinn Fein who otherwise would not be able to headquarters and get permits to do so, and it is being invested for this purpose." Mention is made of young visitor in the city on Sunday assistance being given by girls' schools and from other sources his younger brother, Kenneth, aged equipping "Foxlease" for the WHOLE

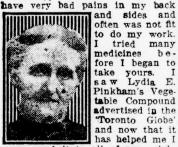

Blue=jay to your druggist Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain in-stantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms-a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in extra thin plasters. whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists. Free: Write Bauer & Black, Toronto, Dept. 216 for valuable book, "Correct Care of the Feet."

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Lindsay, Ontario.—"I used to have very bad pains in my back medicines be-fore I began to fore I began take yours. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the "Toronto Globe" and now that it and now that it recommend it to all of my neighbors. I keep it in the house all the time and take it once in a while no matter how well I feel, for one ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."—ELIZABETH CAMP-BELL, 13 St. Paul St., Lindsay, Ont. To do any kind of work—and you know there is much to be done-is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trou-It may cause your back to ache or a pain in your side; it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for wom-en. It is especially adapted to re-lieve the cause of these troubles, and restore them to normal health

