money, or for the good things that can be purchased with money. What he valued most was power and position, and in his ability to gain the one, and retain the other, he was not excelled by any statesmen on either side of the Atlantic. But there was Dr. Milne, in the letter which we pub- nothing sordid or mercenary about Sir John

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

sulted and that it was the understanding that the matter would be arranged all right in the meantime, the father has all throf the children.—Tacoma Globe.

HELPING THE CHURCH.

McQuade and Mortimor e Bridges. The young misses participating vere dressed and adorned to represent certa in flowers, and were as follows: Daisies — Mary Kent, Fanny Keith, Murielle Bridges for getme-nots—Dolly Sehl, Alice Burge s, Daisy Bridges; lillies—Maggie MoNiff, Daisy Seaton, Lizzie Boles; roses—Lizzy—L wry, Anna Wrigglesworth, Ella Whiflock.

Miss Goldyn rendered an excellent voc. Il solo, and the entire musical programme was a good one.

The Colonist. FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1891.	purchased with money. What he valued most was power and position, and in his ability to gain the one, and retain the other,		that the matter would be arranged all right. In the meantime, the father has all three of the children.—Tacoma Globe.	Philharmonic Hall, Transformed Into		"This Side Up With Care" Was Essential To Comfort—The Story
· ILLIBERAL.	he was not excelled by any statesmen on either side of the Atlantic. But there was	who was arrested for attempted suicide, has been taken charge of by her sister, who has	Visiting Cricketers. Chief of Police Sheppard has received a communication from Mr. William Robert		me-nots—Dolly Sehl, Alice Burge, 88, Daisy Bridges; lillies—Maggie McNiff, Daisy Seaton, Lizzie Boles: roses—Lizzy—Lowry,	of a Piano Case.
liebed vesterday, directs public attention to	nothing sordid or mercenary about Sir John Macdonald.	recently arrived in town, and will be sent to San Francisco, to her friends, by the next steamer.	son, president of the California Cricketing	The Young Ladies of St. Andrew's	solo, and the entire musical programme was	Novel Method of Travelling Across the Continent—Who and Where the way in which the business of the University of British Columbia is being managed. This University, if it ever goes	The Liberals in Parliament made a fierce		club in San Francisco, inquiring as to the practicability of sending a team here to play a series of matches. It is stated that the team would be, in every way, a first		VICTORIA MARKET REPORT.	Are The Overland Tourists?
into operation, must be established and maintained by the friends of education in	attack upon Sir Charles Tupper. They can- not forgive him for the part he took at the last general election. Many of them attri-	their flags, this year, to that of any other country, the condition of such change being	chass one, and would make a fine exhibition of the game. The object of the communica- tion is to ascertain if it would be possible.	Pretty girls, crowding pretty stalls and booths that are filled with pretty articles of every form and variety, attracted large	WOUR Portland roller $ 6.75	Th.'s box contains one of the 1. EERLESS KNABE PIANOS.
say that it is an undertaking too large and too costly for the province in its present	bute their defeat, as a party, to the exer- tions he made in the Maritime Provinces	try to which such transfer is made.	or in some other way, to meet the expenses	crowds, yesterday, to the Roman Catholic bazaar, which was opened at noon in Phil-	Wheat, per ton	Unequalled in touch, tone and durability of workmanship. Such is the an nouncement, in big, black state of advancement. But, granting that it is possible, by strenuous exertion and great	and in Ontario. And as the election re- turns show he did exercise a very great in- fluence. In the Eastern provinces, where	The residents of this district, and landed proprietors, are called to meet at the	not being able to sfford the cost. The Association, it is explained, is a young body and has no funds with which to cover the expenses that would be involved, although	The ald hall be dissertenced byte a falor	Middlings ner ton 98 00@30.00	letters, appearing on a piano case of the largest size, which has been accumulating dust in a back corner of one of the C.P.N.
lightened and liberal British Columbians, to	Sir Charles Tupper is best known, and	wants of the neighborhood, and take steps	it is explained, there are friends of the club	of St. Andrew's Cathedral were busity engaged in the tedious work of arranging	Oil Cake, per ton	warehouses on the wha rf. since October last. It came from Toronto, in the usual course of business, consigned to W. R. Wright, Victoria, B.C., and no one "ave a thought friends of education in every part of	ernment's majority was greatest. There is no doubt that the speeches which he made in Ontario had a great effect in prevailing on	Further Improvements,	lay in the event of arrangement being made. No doubt, the proposal will commend itself to consideration, at least, and it might be that the departure would give added in	when the Hall was thrown open to the	Oatmeal Sannich	to it when it was transfer ed from the required. But what does the con- vocation do at the very start? In the elec-	many Conservatives, whose loyalty to their party was shaken by the misrepresentations	additions and improvements to the police barracks. Among these will be the fitting	BAILWAY CONNECTION.	post, and from the sides to the ends of the	" small " 5.00 " Bayo " 5.75 Potatoes (Bohaparte), per ton 35.00 Potatoes (Island), per ton 20.00 Potatoes, New, per lb 14@2 Tomatoes, per lb 132 of the University, it boycotts the whole of the Island of Vancouver. The Mainland	and the sophistries of the advocates of un- restricted reciprocity, to vote again for the Old Chief. The revelations which he made	accommodation of the patrolmen, and other	Proposition to Come Before the Council To Night—A Delegation From Port Angeles.	large room, while hundreds of Japanese lanterns swung from every conceivable point of display, and an endless confusion of bright flowers of every color and shade	Onions, new, per lo	dual, or else particularly well supplied with pianos, to so neglect his interests. The Post Office staff knew of no gentlemen of majority, have not permitted that Island to	of the Grit machinations in Washington, had, no doubt, a very great effect on elec- tors in all parts of the Dominion. The	be absolutely essential. Trades and Labor Club.	Mayor Grant has received a communica-	The various stalls were located to ad-		the name, nor was he to be found in the city, so yesterday morning, Mr. J. W. Griffith, the head of the dock staff, was instructed to open the box, and see what member. The whole matter was apparently cut and dried by the Mainland	Liberals feel this and they are evidently de-	and Labor Club was held last night, at	Angeles, requesting an interview with the Council on the subject of ferry councilor with Victoria. The Board will meet the delegation some day this week.	vantage, and all of them elegantly and tastefully adorned and decorated with arches of evergreens and flowers. Their various counters were packed high with the	Cherries, per box. 1.50@2.50 Plums, per b	condition the instrument was in. He encountered no difficulty in executing the first part of the order. The lid of the members. Knowing their numeri- cal power, they drew up their ticket composed solely of Mainland men and	Parliament:	that the institution was making satisfactory progrees; that the membership was increas- ing, and that interest in its operations was augmenting. A hearty vote of thanks was	The following communication will be read and considered at the City Council, this	beautiful wares that the fair occupants had for disposal to the hundreds of buyers, and so attractive was the entire scene that the	Geo eberries per lb	big box was not even nailed, but apparently had been designed to open like the cover of trunk. This was a surprise, but nothing made the necessary arrangements to have	Tupper, High Commissioner of Canada, in England, in interfering in the recent elec- tions and in imputing treasonable and dis-	passed and ordered to be transmitted to the Mayor and Corporation for favors received,	VICTORIA, B.C., JUNE 10TH, 1891. To His Worship the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Victoria.	bazaar from the opening was a pronounced success. It is for the benefit of St. Andrew's	Rhubarb, per lb. 4 Asparagus, per lb. 8 Celery, per doz. 50 Peas, green, per lb. 8	raised. No piano was to be found; sume, believed that the people of the Island would be content to abide humbly and thankfully by what the Mainland Senate	people of this Dominion, and also in assail-	That "Straw" Ride.	GENTLEMEN: —We are authorized by the promo ers to submit the following proposition, relating to closer railway connections between the city of Victoria and the railway systems of Canada and the United States.	ladies of the parish, who are organized into	Beans, green, per lb	dection of housekeeping necessaries as could well be found in so small space. There was a double mattrass on the bottom of the box, three or four loaves and a number of crusts would be pleased to determine. The only members of the Council which is to man-	Trunk Railway company, and in renecting	of the young people of the Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian	Canada and the United States. The promoters, with whom are associated well known rallway men, and other capitalists, propose to construct a line of rallway from the	are directing the fair, aided by a corps of energetic and accomplished assistants; President, Miss S. McDowell; vice-presi- dent. Miss E. Skinner; treasurer, Miss	Imported, 25 Butter, roll, Island, per lb. 324 @ 374 " fresh, per lb. 35 California, per roll 69to65	of hard and mouldy bread; a carpenter's mallet with a few tools; a neat pair of gentleman's walking shoes, and a pair of lade's the Island of Vancouver are those over whose appointment the Mainland members	beside damaging the very important cor-	packed with young people, besides other vehicles similarly freighted, taking the		Campbell; secretary, Miss Mary McNiff. Owing to the recent affliction sustained by Miss Campbell, she is not participating in	California California 20 20 18,000 18	perty of some one who cannot to have have no control. We have heard a good deal about the liberalizing and broadening influence of	large.  i money in the work of extending an comoting the railway system of Canada.	the place where they stopped for a short time, cakes, ice cream and light drinks	also connecting with the Canadian Pacific, railway at New Westminster and Vancouver. The great importance of such a railway connection as is been recorded.	this festivity, and her place is supplied by the assistant treasurer, Miss Keenan, who is watchfully engaged in looking after the finances and taking care of the receipts.	Lard "	with French heels, too. Then there was a portion of a lady's cashmere skirt, and the
what is called the higher education, but	We may say here that the last words uttered in Parliament by Sir John Macdon- ald were in defence of the High Commis-	Disselution of Partnership.	way at New Westminster and Vancouver. The great importance of such a railway connection as is here proposed can scarcely be questioned, and in view of the various propositions made to your honorable body to grant large bonuses and guarantees of interest upon large sums of money in aid of the proposed connections we are presented to sementally.	finances and taking care of the receipts. The doors of the bazaar were opened at noon, and an elegant lunch was served	Lamb, forequarter	The odds and ends told their own story, than the course which the Mainland mem-	that Sir Charles Tupper crossed the Atlan-	dissolved partnership, Mr. Lawrence retir- ing. Mr. McCulloch will carry on the bus-	ask that the city of Victoria grant a cash bonus of $150,000 to said promoters, and provide a right of way through the city in aid of the pro-	from then until 2 o'clock by the young la- dies. Every delicacy of the season was in- cluded in the menu, and it received gener- ous patronage. Tea was served from 6 to	Tallow	the smoothest sell I've ever struck."
can hardly be imagined. And they are all college graduates, and have received the	Mr. Laurier, who moved the resolution,	iness as heretofore, assuming sole manage- ment. Since Mr. McCulloch's connection with the late firm he has made himself pop- ular with all who have had business deal-	posed railway to Saanich upon the following conditions:— (I.) The whole of the bonus to be expended in construction of the railway line from Victoria	8 o'clock in the evening. All are solicited to patronize it, and the hours are most suitable for business man. The ladies charge	Quall, per doz. 2.40 Beef cattle 5953 Sheep 6674 Hogs 8 @ 9	From the cabin like arrangement of the packing case, it is evident that two people, a man and a woman, have made a long journey, very probably from Toronto here, in it. The box is roomy,—for a box—it is about posed to confer. We venture to say that no	eral of his followers abused the absent man to their hearts' content. Mr. Charles H.	ings with him, and the extensive patronage enjoyed by the Chicago candy factory, in	to Saanich, one half to be paid when the right of way is produced and grading completed to the satisfaction of engineers appointed by your honorable body; the other half when the road	but 25 cents for lunch, but the bill of fare that they provide would soon drive into bankruptcy any restauranter who attempted even seen the inside of a college, would,	Tupper defended his father with great ability. He proved that the High Com- missioner's accusations of disloyalty were	retain, but to extend.	is completed, ballasted and equipped, and a proper wharf constructed for the landing of cars from boats, and all necessary sidings, etc., to the satisfaction of said engineers.	bankruptcy any restauranter who attempted to duplicate it, even at three times the price. Lunch will be served again, to-day, at the same hours. It is spread in the large	Cohoe	and three feet and a half-wide. By means of holes bored in several places, a supply of air has been ensured, and when safe in the privacy of their freight car, the travelshabbily, so meanly, and so injuriously to the business they had in hand as	fully proved by the documents which had been brought to slight, and that the mis- management of the Grand Trunk railway	At the election of trustees for the local school on Monday next, Mr. Pauline will be elected to fill the vacancy created by	to be members, ex-officio, of the Board of Directors of said railway, until the completion of the same. (3) The city to locate the terrainus of the	ante-room at the front of the hall. The dining-room is in charge of Mrs. Mo- Lean, Miss McGagan, Miss McTeigh and Miss O'Comor.	Balt 1511	ers consigned to W. R. Wright have been able to emerge from their packing case by simply lifting the cover, which was provided with hinges and song inside fasten.
college graduates. Who are they?	was fully as great as he had depicted.	Mr. Thistle's retirement. "No better candidate could be nominated" is the opinion of many who take an interest in the school:			Kippered Salmon. 15 Flounders, 2]bs for. 25 Smelts. 12 Fresh herrings, per 4 pounds. 25 Smoked Herrings. 5 Labrador per doz. 50	vided with hinges and snug inside fasten- ngs. Preparations for the overland trip had apparently been made with every re- gard for comfort, for the back of the box
a man of plain, common sense? What could be more egregiously foolish or more	proved that the Grand Trunk management had taken an active part in the elections against the Government. He undertook to	andat this time particularly, when the in-	railway within the city of Victoria. (4) The said company will procure a charter to construct said railway, and we would ask your honorable body to appoint a committee to confer with a committee selected from the promoters, to meet within two weeks. We would respectfully request that you will not take any final action upon any other propositions that may have been submitted to you.	tioned at every point. The flower stand is located right in front of the entrance, and the young ladies who preside over it and	Lagrador der doz 3017	ard for comfort, for the back of the box arried enough fancy hooks, for hanging alothing upon, to stock a wardrobe; and 'This Side Up, With Care,' was not forgot- en in the exterior decoration of the portsity, which is not yet, even in its infancy,	show that the motion was not supported by facts in many particulars, that it was ex-	boys and girls a school, and avoid the hills and bad roads to Cadboro Bay and Cedar	tions that may have been submitted to you, respecting bonuses for other railway propositions, until you have had an opportunity of fully considering the present one. We are, Sirs, etc., BELYBA & GREGORY.	ton-hole boquets do a thriving business. It	CORRECT ERROR RE V. S. & N.W	Who the overland tourists are will no vince that they want to have nothing more	travagantly false and extravagantly inaccur- ate, and that no evidence had been pro- duced to support its statements; and, in the	Mrs. Dooley's Chickens. Residents in the neighborhood of the up-	* *	The ladies in charge of it are Miss Seavers	R. COMPANY.	hing definite is known of what manner of tributions? Is there a clear-headed man in the province who does not see that the men	opinion of many, he succeeded in every proposition he had made.	per end of Johnson street complain of raids on their chickens by mischlevous dogs. Sev- eral fine chickens have been killed during	MICHARL DAVITT- Arrival in Victoria of the Irish Patriot-His Object in Coming to the	Niff. It is the Mecca of the thirsty, and	To THE EDITOR:—A paragraph on the I set page of your issue of to-day states that "The city of Victoria has already guaranteed the bonds of the company" (Victoria, I	nore romantic and original than any rope. management of the affairs of the Univer-	Charles Tupper had been guilty of conduct	expensive fowls killed. She says the two	Pacific Coast. Michael Davitt, the distinguished Irish	of the dry, but nothing that would inebri-	Saanich & New Westminster Railway Co.), 1 to the extent of $500,000, which now asks a cash bonus of the same amount," ($500, 1) 1000, "in addition to the guarantee of the manual control of the control of the manual contr	ase was the means employed to defeat ynx-eyed detectives, while others still restitution? Their answer when they are	unbecoming a man in his position, and if what he said and did during the election campaign was injurious to the interests of	ing her hen coops, and which she chased	patriot, and member of parliament from Dublin, arrived last night on the Islander, and is stopping at the Driard. He is	Ice cream is on sale at a pretty little stall,	bonds."	vager; I'll bet it has." Hardly one who has examined the box. take a back seat, will, we have not a doubt, be "No. we thank you."	the Dominion, the proper and the manly	their owners to restrain them from com- mitting depredations on other people's pro-	accompanied by his wife and children. In an interview with a COLONIST reporter shortly after his arrival, Mr. Davitt	notwithstanding that it was not exactly an ice cream day. The next stall adjoining is the toy bazaar.	manifestly designed to injure the V., S. & P. N. W. Railway Company, and thereby seriously injure this city. If your readers	wo pair of shoes, second-hand, are not worth keeping at a cost of $48, the com-graduates want neither the assistance nor	The debate on Mr. Laurier's resolution will	At Half-Mast.	"My visit to America is devoid of any political meaning whatseever. I left Ire- land one month ago to-day, after repeated	filled with plenty of toys and nic-nacks, and attended by Miss Kate McDowell, Miss Dwyer and Mrs. Teporten.	Westminster Railway Bonus By-Law, 1889," they will find that the only thing the city of	O Toronto with the information that the
they have taken this way of telling them	be regarded by the people as a mere scold-	constitutes the half-masting of a flag, in view of the various elevations at which some of the flags have, during the recent	and urgent requests from my daughter who was solicitous of my health, which had been greatly impaired by arguous political work.	thriving trade by an enterprising stroke of business. At the end of the toy store, they	way bonds of the company for twenty five	SPORTS AND PASTIMES.
to themselves, and are ready to accept the	Tupper. But a formal trial would be	COLONIST reporter, on making inquiries,	do not care to discuss them. Already I	speculative-inclined can tempt the starry-	years. The payment of the bonds, however,	CORRIG COLLEGE V. VICTORIA COLLEGE.
The best said as if them	the High Commissioner had done anything	the width of the flag itself constitutes as much half-masting as if it were run half- way down the longest pole that is ever used. Owing to the extreme height of some of the	form again.	"Round and round she goes, where she stops nobody knows." The wheel is a great source of amusement, and its devotees seem to think they gain	Again, if your readers will turn to the a DAILY COLONIST, May 14 last, third page, the irst column, they will find that the application of the promoters of the Victoria, pagainth and New Westminster Railway Co. Saked the City Council to grant $500,060 to make the city council to gr	he boys of the above colleges. Consider- ble interest was evidently taken by the arents and friends of the boys, who, as what their conduct signifies, we are pretty sure that there is no one on the Island of Vancouver who will throw the slightest	he would have to suffer the consequences of his offence. But the leading Liberals knew well that	way down the longest pole that is ever used. Owing to the extreme height of some of the masts that are employed, this is considered to be the only rule by which anything like uniformity can be approached.	which State I depart on the next steamer. I came west on the Canadian Pacific because I had crossed the American continent many	their money's worth at every turn of the wheel. There are no blanks, and the investor is bound to draw a prize at every revolution of the wheel.	saked the City Council to grant $500,000 to he company, to be paid over at the rate of the paid over at the rate of the company ($10,000) dollars are rate.	pectators, enjoyed one of the most gentle- nanly games of the season. The respective earns were:
obstacle in their way.	in accepting Sir John Macdonald's invitation to come over and help him he had not done	Want to Get Acquainted. The following letter has been received by	Canadian. "I stopped along at various places, and	Miss Fanny Beegan, the Misses Hart, Miss	pleted; and that the city charge P	coley, H. Gillespie, A. Gillespie, C. Poo-
DIED POOR. We see that some of the Eastern news-	what can be considered wrong in any sense. The contention that it was not proper for the High Commissioner to take an active		spent some time in Manitoba, where I have many friends among the Scotch Crofters, who have emigrated to Canada and settled in that section. I shall on my return to	contains a very large and handsome collec-	or fifteen (15) years. That the city is given a second mortgage on the main ine of railway between Victoria and New	Corrig College—Ray Wilson (captain), R. reen, J. Pemberton, P. Higgins, F. Green.
papers are directing attention to the fact that Sir John Macdonald died a poor man. All that he had to live moon was his salary	part in a political campaign is a matter of mere official etiquette, which no one in Canada recards as important. Six Charles	"In selecting Victoria for the place for holding the association, we had several reasons. One was that the firemen of this side thought it fair that we should cross the line, and, besides we wanted to see your city and country, and become acquainted wite your people. We know that your city will make it a success in every narticular. As soon as I receive your	Ireland, go East from this coast, via the Canada route, and will again stop over in Manitoba and visit Edmonton, and other	cles, etc., ranging in value from a few cents up to many dollars. Some of the fancy work displayed is magnificent, and is all the handiwork of the young ladies of the	Westminster as security for the repayment J f the $500,000 so advanced. At the end of fifteen years, the company to pay back to the ity the $500,000 in cash or in the dobes.	Peters, G. Johnston, G. Wilson, J. Wol- enden, W. Pemberton and W. Sloan. The Corrig boys, who first went to the
and his indemnity as a member of Parlia- ment, which amounted, in all, to some nine	Tupper knew very well that in taking part in the fray he placed his office in jeopardy.	letter ennouncing the probable amount we	sections where the Crofters have located, for the purpose of examining the country, so as to be able to advise in-	tograph of histop Leasmons, an elegany	ent. per annum interest, redeemable with	ontributed a fine innings of 31, W. Pem-
	If the Liberals won he could not hold it an hour longer than would be required to appoint his successor. But this considera-	select We desire to make this meeting a snc-	telligently regarding it, inquiring friends who may desire to emigrate. I do not favor, however, any emigration from Ire- land, except that of the Irish landlords."	will be raffled this evening. At the upper end of the hall, just below the stage is the counter for the display and	ompleted, or proposed to be entered into, is etween the V. S. & N. W. R. Co. and the	Victoria College then went in, and fin- hed with an innings of 24, toward which ago, presented Lady Macdonald with a testimonial amounting to sixty five thou-	tion had no weight with him. He was ready to cast in his lot with his party and accept the result whatever it might be. In	An Abduction at Tacoma. An abduction in broad daylight, almost	In response to a question about Irish affairs, and Parnell in particular, Mr.	sale of plain work. It contains many arti- cles of necessity and general use, and is in	ou will be pleased to publish this note on	2, G. Johnston playing a careful innings no doubt, a welcome addition to the First Minister's income. We gather from what	the contest Sir Charles did not go beyond the bounds of fair party	within Tacoma, forms one of the most exciting stories that city has furnished for	Irishmen alone to determine and settle among themselves in Ireland, and it will be settled, too. At the next general election	Next to it is another stall devoted to	he city, and as a correction of what I am willing to assume to be an error in the pers	ith 86 to make, then went in for their cond innings, which, however, only re-accumulated any property. This, to a man	warrare. In obtaining and making public	Ramsdell, of Victoria, and the abducted was a four-year-old girl, his daughter. The	affairs."	among the many at this stall, is a chamois leather pillow. Candies and fruits are dispensed from a	June 9, 1891. A. DECOSMOS. C	ulted in an additional 15, thus leaving orrig College victorious by 71. R. and G. Vilson and R. Harvey did good service as owlers for their respective sides.
who had so many and such great opportuni- ties of enriching himself, by means that are not considered by many dishonor-	the public eye, he can plead the precedent of the Libera's themselves. There would have been no Pacific scandal and no Liberal	and wife. Ramsdell and his wife, who had	TO AN AD THE PROPERTY OF THE P	little floral bower, by Miss Sophie McNiff and Miss Barbara Keast. Business was good all afternoon and evening at this booth.	THE OMNIBUS STRIKE	THE GUN. UNION GUN CLUB.
Sir John Macdonald's credit. He	Administration, if private letters had not	time ago, and Mrs. Ramsdell came back to her former home, about three miles outside	There now stands on the deak of the	The afternoon tea was held in a charming-	8 eak. cl	At a general meeting of the Union Gun ub, held at their rooms, last evening, the cretary handed in his report of the last this talents to his country, and he had no- thing to spare for mere money-getting. Such poverty as his is in the highest degree	in their newspapers and quoted on the stump by their campaigners. Sir Charles Tupper's real offence is, that he was success	of Tacoma, while her husband remained in Victoria. The couple had three children, and Mrs. Ramsdell brought home with her their little girl, while the elder boys remained with their father. With her little girl and sister, Mrs. Parassdell best ext devine on Saturday af	ance of having been scorched by fire. The	The attendance both afternoon and even- ing was very good, and the patrons attract-	London, June 16.—Although there were 200 ni oad cars running with "blackleg" drivers, cl	ne practices, which is as follows: General ub average, 41 per cent.; best individual
Language of those who have	1000 gams, that he make the	themsen They went on for onite a dis-	powder, and were found in the ruins of the house that was burned a week ago last Tuesday morning, in Stronachville. The	articles displayed on sale, were liberal in their purchases. The ladies will dispose of all articles unsold this evening at anotion	ver the apparent collapse of the strike, only wenty of the new drivers reported for duty, for only in the directors of the companies bitterly from the produce are in-	is the club's intention to arrange some iendly matches with other organized gun accumulated tast fortunes in his time are forgotten, and when their hoards are lost	and it is just as well for them to make the admission without any more snarling. The Liberal orators will have to talk a long	ternoon. They went on for quite a distance, when there jumped from a clump of bushes Ramsdell, who seized the horse's head and brought the carriage to a stop. He then said he wanted the child, and	engaged in rebuilding the house, and was brought to the fire station by Chief Deasy. The firemen worked around the building the	ed by the surprising cheapness of the articles displayed on sale, were liberal in their purchases. The ladies will dispose of all articles unsold this evening at anction, but, with the continuance of the liberal patronage already bestowed upon their successful bazaar, it is not likely that many articles will be left unsold to-night. THE CANTATA. The children of Mrs. Bridges musical class gave a very interesting and much appreciated rendition of a juvenile cantata, entitled, "Flowers," at the evening entertainment. Mrs. Bridges berself was too lil to be present, and the little ones were managed by Mrs. J. Ahern. The cantata opened with the boys' chorus, composed of Masters Herman Sehl, Bobby McLaughlen, Jimmy McCantam, Louis	midated, and they censure the supineness of the police in not affording sufficient protection gainst the strikers. They ask for an officer loygide the driver and two	This evening, after six o'clock, when the
by unfortunate or squandered by prodigal descendants. Sir John Macdonald was not a spend-	while before they can make the people of Canada believe that it is a high crime and misdemeaner to expose the	without wasting any time he seized the young one and lifted her from the wagon	nearly an hour, and a hole was burned in the floor within two feet of where the powder was placed. If it had exploded, it	THE CANTATA. The children of Mrs. Bridges musical class	chind, on every omnibus. Chief Com- nissioner of Police Bradford has thus has ar pronounced this request preposterous, and see mless he changes his mind, the companies will	orkinen employed on the new sewer shall live suspended their labors, the team lected to take part in the rifle matches at announcer on heristics.
thrift. He was too busy a man to be ex-	the disloyal unrestricted free trade plotters	BY WORK ON A CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PR	would have surely blown some of the men to atoms.	gave a very interesting and much appre- ciated rendition of a juvenile cantata, en- titled, "Flowera," at the evening enter-	dopt a policy of musterly inactivity, relying the scarcity of the strikers funds. Suthers, the be leader of the busmen, and John Burns, the rominent labor agitator, both of whom are	eir first practice at the Clover Point rifle ange. Thus far, owing to the drainage orks having been proceeded night and able, and he despised parsimony, but he was simple in his habits and was the reverse of ostentatious in his expenditure, in mat-	Grand Trunk Railway for meddling in political contests.	It is thought probable that Ramsdell had a conveyance near by, and after kidnapping his own child be got into it and drove rapidly away. The parties concerned in the matter would say but very little in regard	Health in Herbs. EALTH-GIVING herbs, barks, roots, and berries a carefully combined in Burdock Blood Bitters, which regulate the accretion.	ill to be present, and the little ones were managed by Mrs. J. Ahern. The cartain around with the little ones were	discount to manage the strike, do not speak as deep pass by. Last evening Sutherst summond the strike committee to meet him at the fational Liberal Club. They replied that he have not been supplied to the strike committee.	y in this vicinity, it has been impossible r the riflemen to occupy the ranges, but creafter it is expected there will be no ters of dress and equipage. The truth seems to be that he cared very little for	Dr. G. L. Milne, M.P.P., returned from Yancouver last night.	pidly away. The parties concerned in the matter would say but very little in regard to it, and Lawyer Sharpstein declared last night that Ramsdell's lawyer had been con-	purify the blood and renevate and strengthen the entire system. Price $1 a bottle, six for $1. Less than I cent a dosc.	composed of Masters Herman Sehl, Bobby & McLaughlan, Jimmy McCantam, Louis	se them. The wonder is that the strike has asted as long as it has done, in view of the lock of money and brains displayed.	inculties in their way, and that, by the t July, the team will be able to hold their on against any who may oppose them.
					Control of the Contro

THROUGH FREIGHT.

THE SERVICE FOR THE

Bishop Hills Refers In Feeling To The Life Work of Sir. A. Macdonald.

Victoria Mourns For The Statesman—Business Susp During The Funeral

Canada mourned her dead. Who ives of the nation gathered about of the departed leader, paying memory tribute of honor and res hearts of the people in this, vestern city of the land, were w Business was almost entirely during the state funeral; the sch and public offices were deserted; almost every flag-pole in the city dian flag floated half-mast high.

The tolling of the bells in the Christ Church cathedral summoned lie thither at 11 o'clock, to take special memorial services. His the Bishop of Columbia preached able Archdeacon Scriven read the Port Arthur Recalled. able Archdeacon Scriven read and Rev. Arthur Beanlands able Archdeacon Scriven read the and Rev. Arthur Beanlands to prayers, while other of the cithe diocese had places in the cel. The altar, pulpit and desk were draped in blac decorated with white roses. In hymns, very appropriate, were sun surpliced choir, under the directic Herbert Kent, and Mr. Pauline prothe organ, playing before the Chopin's funeral march, and on its sion, the Dead March in Saul. On clusion of the sermon, which appear hereunder, the congregation joined ing the well known hymn:—

"Now the laborer's task is o'er, Now upon the farther shore, Lands the voyager at last. Father in Thy gracious keeping. Leave we now Thy servant sleet. The sermon, which was attentive.

The sermon, which was attenti-ed to, was as follows:— Dear Friends and Brethren:

We are met to-day in sympathe sad scene of the funeral of statesman now proceeding, attend weeping widow and children, and attached friends and colleague.

weeping widow and children, at and attached friends and colleagn desire to unite with them and a semanting multitudes througho Dominion in expressing our sens loss we have sustained, and, by the tion, to pay respect and honor to the ory of the departed. Our though been solemnized and edified, we the service in which we have just wherein the bright and hopeful v Christian's death has been set forth. Let me now offer a few reflection the remarkable career of the late 8 Macdonald:

Born 76 years ago, he came in ear Canada, was admitted to the bar and entered public life in Parlif 1844. During the period of 47 years many offices of State at variou Sir John had more or less partick many eventful circumstances, latter the chief ruling mind in all burnitions, such as the rebellion losses, ization of clergy reserves. Red Bellions, Fenian invasion, threate with the States over the Trent afface in turn for anyone thought and the Intercolonial and Canadian Padways.

By these important policies, or with fore-sighted wisdom, carried in face of difficulties with unwaver pose and brought to a great succe Dominion of Canada has gained a of national proportions and high promise, a worthy and honorable and ally of the British Empire with millions of people, upon whose sun never sets. These are some of portant events and subjects which the active and sagacious mind of Si Macdonald. But these could not he carried to their successful issue h the active and sagacious mind of Si Macdonald. But these could not he carried to their successful issue in not been in the character of this statesman especial qualities. No do abilities were splendid, but step by rose through industry, perseverat study until trained in such discipline participation of public troubles and holema he reached the powerful influence he so well exercised for his country's godisposition Sir John had the advan he ing naturally genial and conciliate possessed the clearness of mind to actly when to make a compromise, the differences harmoniously with a this gift he was enabled, greatly to vantage of the country, to hold toge united action diverse races and crewhich he was eminently a peacemaker. British subject must admire his unfloyalty to the Crown and attachmathe Imperial confection. For los faithful service and genuine patriotifew honors that the Sovereign be were merited, and will remain an hof a family ennobled by a great and example. Sir John died at his post, ness, his end hastened probably by recent strain of hard work. It has been breathed that he was on sought to be rich by any means of hopportunifies. He was unostentation evidently sought to do his duty since fore God, entirely unselfishly as to p gain. The memorial motto upon one greatest of English statesmen, who his country in a similar way during e times, will apply to him:

"Do justice, Britons, to his spotless min Who governed kingdoms, left no wes

"Do justice, Britons, to his spotless min Who governed kingdoms, left no wee

We may quote the lines also upon a great statesman, distinguished for se India, when we think of the peaceab this Dominion.

Let history tell the deeds his wisdom p
His bloodless triumphs o'er a barbarous hright in his hand the sword of justice et
But mercy from his eyes benignant bear
And mercy won the cause—the savage I Forsook their haunts, and bowed to hi mands.

nd grain, showing how like to the great and good, the la other the the great and good, used of a famous warrior statesman, s varied, will here apply, in that he po The singular destiny and merit of I the politics of his country through a circumstances, and conducting its cithrough the birth of a government, form and principle, until it had settled into a quiet and orderly train.

a quiet and orderly train.

uch was the great statesman, who country mourns, but whose mem arined in the archives of the I pire. England has had many the and faithful servants, and has and will have them again and y are instruments raised up widence of God in love and mero good. If we remain a God-fe