String Bull may be called Jonathan's prodigal son. There was something akin to rejoicing at Fort Buford on Tuesday, when he went through the ceremony of giving up his rife, and followed that graceful act with an oration. There was also a fine distinction when the tyranny of monopoly is the monster of the day.

Surely none of them are afraid, as a wag asserts, of having their racing reduced from, say AB (sound as the wheat) to B C (needs watching) in the Looks of a commercial agency ?

THE ALBANY FIGHT ENDED AT LAST. The long-waged contest at Albany reached its close yesterday evening. The stalwarts and half-breeds, after fighting each other with extreme bitterness for soveral weeks, came together in the afternoon, and after a trial of strength sgreed their pastor, Rev. C. D. McDonald, with a purse of $120 and given him five weeks' to cast a unanimous vote for Lapham. Accordingly at the joint convention he received their united support.
