hn Anderson Taken From the Well Which He Spent Nine Days.

Watch He Spent Nize Bays. JOINSTOWN, Neb., July 28.—At early dawn this morning the rescuing party re-sumed its labors at the living tomb of John Anderson. A box sighteen inches long and ten by twelve inches square, was thrust through the opening to the boards that were protecting him and an opening made to it. Anderson stripped himself and attaching a rope to his body was drawn through the aperture to his rescuers, where he was again dressed and drawn to the upper air. He seemed sheerful and wanted to walk, but by the advice of physicians was carried to a house and placed under the care of Drs. Farleigh and Reine, who pronounced him as doing well and as almost certain to recover. He was in the well nine days.
