LEADING HOUSE Grain and Produce. Flour.—Firmer and in better tone. Sales of some few cars standard grades reported, but at low prices. Private and mill brands are selling low prices. Private and mill brands are selling fairly well, but generally in low and medium grade. Feeling that market is growing stronger seems to predominate, although Montreal and Quebec stocks remain about the same.

Wheat.—Firm and steady. Offering at outside points at $1.03 to $1.04, with a sale of extra choice No. 2 spring reported at $1.05. Eastern and western wheat correspondingly cheaper, Prices quoted are Midland and Northern.

Harley.—Steady, but very inactive. American market reports are exceedingly discouraging, but farmers seem loathe to sell at present prices. No. 1 Canada is worth 580 to 650, with a sale reported at 61c, but which was probably a delivery on a former sale. No. 2 is quoted at 550 and No. 3 extra at 50c, with offers at 51c.

Peas and rye in no demand and nominal.

Outr.—Easier. Sales reported of two cars at 35c. General trade fair with demand unchanged. Quoted at 35e to 364c, according to location and quality.

A test case to prove the efficacy of the new bylaw will be made to-day, when an agent of the Verral Transfer Company who was detected violating the new bylaw will be tried. A committee composed of Measrs, James Lawson, Kelly, Forbes and McKay, was elected to confer with the G.T.R. and C.P.R. magnates in reference to obtaining their consent to enforce the bylaw. It was moved by Mr. John Taylor and seconded by Mr. D. Forbes that there be a mass meeting called for next Friday evening in Caledonia Hall, to arrange for organisation.

Assessment Commissioner Masghan valued the lot at $800 and the houses at $600. The cottage, which he valued at $50, rents at $4.50 a month, which is $54 a year. Mr. Mark Hall valued the houses at about the same, but placed no value on the land. Further hearing of the case was adfourned till to-morrow.
