Some thirty new arrivals were reported at the Woodbine yesterday, and there are now over fifty horses in training there alone, in addition to the local stables for the fall races of the new Hunt Club on Oct. 6 and 13, entries for the first day of which close next Saturday. Sixteen of Mr. Seagram's string arrived from Waterloo, under H. Blair's charge, while Ras Burgess brought down 13 of Mr. Davies' lot from Thorneliffe. Dup Douglas of Woodstock arrived, accompanied by Beefeater, the greatest campaigner in the country. The other stables already in active work at the Woodbine are Mr. Duggan's, trained by Allan Wilson, Dr. A. Smith's, by Charlie Wise, and Mr. F. Doane's.
