

The Weekly Monitor.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 27th, 1881.

As a summer resort for sea-side residents who are weary of a saline atmosphere, and the smell of fish, kelp, seaweed, &c., there is no district in America, possessing so many and varied advantages as our own charming valley of the Annapolis. To Haligonias, St. John's, Bostonians and other half-breed people we can offer inducements that are not to be despised. We can give them all grades of climate, or rather any sort of atmosphere. A trip over the North Mountain, a pleasant ride of about five miles, will give the bracing sea air of the Bay of Fundy if they should ever "laugh at it."

WINTER WHEAT.—Henry Brown, Esq. of Port Lorne, showed us some stalks of winter wheat, yesterday, grown in burnt land, which measured six feet. ACCIDENT.—On Monday, a son, about seven years of age, of Mr. Jos. Graves, of Granville, was badly injured by being kicked in the back by a horse which he was tending.

SCENICISM.—We agree with you as regards the west season; but your idea that this is a Baptist summer and that last year was a Methodist one is altogether new to us. Perhaps Vermont could explain.

THE FUG-BOT.—"Eva Johnson" purchased by Mr. Geo. E. Corbett, for towing on the river, and for pleasure parties, arrived in port on Saturday last. The boat has considerable power, and on appearance we should think was fast. No doubt the "E. J." will prove a success.—Journal.

THE SCOTIC ACT.—(From the Journal.) The returning officer, A. W. Corbett Esq., has handed us the following letter received by him in reference to the Act is now in force in this County:—

OTAWA, 7th July, 1881. Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th ult., and to inform you that the Order of the Governor in Council, bringing the second part of the Scotch Act, passed in 1874 into force in this County, is now in force in this County.

OTAWA, 19th July, 1881. Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th inst., and to inform you that the Order of the Governor in Council, bringing the second part of the Scotch Act, passed in 1874 into force in this County, is now in force in this County.

MARGARETVILLE.—Two meetings held at Margaretville will be quite an addition to the little village. The Baptist house especially is progressing rapidly, and one would judge from the past that the outside will soon be finished. Its location is splendid. As the songs of the ocean sail up the Bay of Fundy the first thing that strikes their view, as they sight the land at Margaretville, is a house for God. It also has a fine view from the whole village, and may a prayer be offered that their God may be glorified in the salvation of the lost, and that from it the light of His grace may be made to shine out to the benighted waters of sin.

HOOPING-COUGH is now the order of the day at Margaretville among the children and some of the adults. As one of its results, Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. Downie followed their babe to the grave on the 25th inst.

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE. A Wolfville is on the tapis with another excitement. A. J. Steele, Book-seller and publisher of the Star newspaper, disappeared some weeks ago, and there is the best reason to believe he has absconded, and taken with him considerable money. A fire occurred some time ago by which the printing office, which was in a separate building, was burned out. Steele had $6000 insurance in his own name on the plant, and it is now supposed he set the fire himself to get the insurance. After the fire his friends were very generous, and he is said to have advanced him $500, which with the $6000 insurance money he intended his intention to purchase a new printing plant. It now appears, as far as can be ascertained, that he ordered a large press and some type from Ontario, but did not pay for them. The press is still in charge of the railway authorities, and can of course be recalled by the sender if it has not been paid for. Steele went to Halifax, and was registered at the International Hotel on the 23rd, and left the house on the afternoon of the 24th. He was well known to the police, and it is said that he had been residing here for some five years. He has played his cards so well that no person ever has suspected his real character, but was thought to be the very essence of honesty and conscientiousness.—Windsor Mail.

Mr. Fraser has won for himself a high position as a lecturer, as his present lecture in particular has been highly commended by the provincial press, we bespeak for him a large audience on Tuesday evening. There will be a collection at the close, in order to defray expenses.

TELEGRAPH NOTES FOR THE WEEK. Ottawa, July 19.—Capt. John Stewart and Mr. James Christie are about to enter into a manue enterprise in the North-West. They will locate 2,000 head of cattle on their ranch this fall. St. John, N. B., July 19.—A letter was received this morning from Toronto by a gentleman of Sussex, stating that a Toronto paper company with a capital of $20,000 was desirous of starting an establishment in Sussex, provided that Sussex will hold out inducement, free site and exempt the company from taxation. A public meeting will be held at Sussex court room to-morrow morning to discuss the matter.

Paris, July 19.—The announcement that various engagements have taken place near Sax on Saturday is confirmed. Most of the leaders of the revolution are killed. The result has produced a great impression on the Ambs. The French commander at Sax has ordered the immediate disarmament of the rebels, and the payment of a war indemnity of 14,000,000 francs.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 19.—Nearly the whole square, including the Western Opera House, was burned this morning. Some five tenements occupied the block, which was also destroyed. Loss $50,000. Six persons were injured by falling walls. Winona, Minn., July 19.—Paul Hilda, a Swiss emigrant who lately bought a farm in Eagle Creek Valley, became insane through a failure of crops and homestead loss. On Tuesday morning he was found dead in the front room of his house, his wife and two children died in the next room, three children died in a bed upstairs, and the two oldest boys in the hay loft mortally wounded, all shot in the head. One boy may recover. A revolver was found in the house.

Buenos Ayres, June 24.—News came from Arquipa that the Chilianos there have annihilated a force of Peruvians. Washington, July 21.—Havana advices during the week ending July 19 were in general gloomy, the number of deaths being about 110. The shipping at Santiago de Cuba has been invaded by yellow fever. Sagua la Grande is also reported as being infected.

Havana, July 21.—Small-pox is raging in Santa Domingo in the most advanced stage, and has already organized to help bury the victims. Greenville, S. C., July 21.—The following is an account of the killing of Drayton: Early in the morning the revenue officers raided an illicit distillery belonging to John McDow, three miles from Central. McDow surrendered, but, becoming infuriated at the destruction of his still, opened fire with a Spencer rifle, killing Thomas L. Drayton, of this city. The remainder of the raiders retreated to Central where McDow followed. Being drunk, heavily armed, and accompanied only by a negro, he proceeded to "take the town," searching houses for the officers, who made themselves "unseen." He is still in Central, and the State authorities will co-operate in his capture.

Whitehall, N. Y., July 21.—The Montreal sleeping train, on the Delaware and Hudson road, struck a rock, washed out by a shower last night, near Dresden this morning. The engineer was killed and the firemen slightly injured. No others were injured.

Wallace, Michigan, July 21.—A fire destroyed twenty-five tenement houses, two saw mills and other property, nearly all owned by Mellon Smith. Loss $175,000. One school house and two tenement houses alone remaining. Being DuMoines, Iowa, July 21.—The army work is making terrible havoc in the fields of Iowa and surrounding localities, and in large areas it will fall short of the seed planted.

Chicago, July 21.—A summary of the work of the army and navy in this State shows that the territory just North of the center of the State, and extending Eastward to the Eastern boundary, has been ravaged. In Michigan the storm has appeared to several counties.

Several thunder storms, with much damage to crops and other property, are reported in various parts of this State and Indiana. There is a hitch in the Transvaal negotiations in consequence of the refusal of the royal Commission to sit with the person appointed by the Boers as a member of the financial committee. The Boers have demanded an apology, and refuse to meet the commissioners. General Sir Evelyn Wood, replying to the deposition of the Loyalists, stated that special attention would be paid to the Boers will not be permitted to legislate for the natives without the consent of the British resident.

Paris, July 23.—M. Rochefort's organ, the Lancers, which has a monopoly of the "Nihilist news," prints a dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated July 18th, which says: "The Nihilist executive committee has held a grand and solemn meeting. Several exiles came from Geneva to attend it. It was resolved to give the Gar one more warning, and if he does not heed it he and all his high-headed advisers will perish."

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Another Nihilist was found murdered in a cemetery with his throat cut. The deceased was in communication with the police, and when the Nihilists discovered his treachery they sent him a circular letter inviting him to dinner. On returning at night they assassinated him and carried his body to the cemetery. A letter of invitation was found in the victim's pocket and enabled the police to make important arrests.

Cincinnati, July 17.—The weather today is the coolest in the last sixteen days. In seven days, from July 10th to 16th inclusive, the deaths from sunstroke were 263, and from excessive heat, 150, making 413 deaths. On July 14, the deaths from these causes numbered 86.

Havana, July 22.—Two employees of the Spanish Bank of Cuba, with two accomplices, have d d after robbing the bank of $200,000 in specie. Kingston, N. Y., July 19.—News has been received here that John, aged 9 years, a son of Napoleon Wright, of Denning, in this county, who was adopted in his infancy by Albert Munson, who moved to Emporia, Kansas, was shot on the morning of the Fourth of July, in front of the Court House in Emporia, by Charles Frisby, a schoolmate, about 13 years of age. Frisby had just bought a toy pistol, and put two bullets in it. A boy standing by told him to "shoot that boy," pointing to young Munson. Raising his pistol he said: "John, I'm going to shoot you," and fired. "No, you will not," said Frisby, "whereupon Frisby fired and shot the Munson boy in the heart with one ball, the other lodging in the flesh about one and a half inch below. John whirled about, ran across the street, and stopping up to his father, said: "Oh, father, I'm shot," and fell in his father's arms, dying in five minutes. It seems that young Frisby had some petty spite against John, and two or three days before had told some of his playmates that he intended to shoot him. Young Frisby was at once arrested and confined in goal.

Honored and Throated. When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known reliable medicines, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most of our remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its efficacy by actual trial has dispelled all doubts, and so to speak, the conquerors of that great disease, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

Jim Keene's Washerman. AN STRAIGHTENING FEMALE who WISHED IN AN $50,000 RACE—HOW SHE GOT POINTS FROM WHISTERS AND PLAYED THEM—HOW KEENE GOT EVEN.

"The fact is," said Jim Keene, the great New York rival of Jay Gould, as he relaxed his usual taciturnity under the genial influence of one of Sam Ward's diners the other day, "the fact is that no matter how clever, and thorough a man's cabinet stock operations may be, there is always occurring some little unforeseen and apparently insignificant circumstance that is forever knocking the best laid plans into a cocked hat."

"As how?" "Not at all," never get an order in advance, and besides I used, as now, half a dozen brokers, and also gave cross and dummy orders in plenty. One day, while I was standing by the window of my uptown place, cogitating over this state of affairs, an elegant private coupe drove up, and stopped just around the corner of my door. It contained a richly dressed lady and a ragged-looking girl. The latter got out, rang my bell, and was admitted. I sent for my man servant and inquired who the girl might be.

"She comes for the wash, sir," he said. "Why, no, sir," said my man, very much surprised; "her mother, the washerwoman, is very poor."

"Just then my own carriage drove around for me, and as it passed the other I could see the lady eagerly looking down at the ragged girl in her lap. This excited my curiosity, so I had my driver follow along behind. Pretty soon the couple stopped, and the dirty little girl got out with the bundle and went into a brownstone front on Twenty-ninth street. The couple then kept straight on down to Wall street and stopped in front of a broker's office, where a lady alighted with my entire lot of soiled shirt cuffs in her hand."

"Shit cuffs!" cried the entire company. "Exactly shirt cuffs," I said, "I am, or rather was a great hand while at dinner, or at the theatre in the evening, to think over my plans for the next day, and to make memoranda on my cuffs to correspond before starting down town in the morning. My washerwoman had found out my habit, and had cunningly copied my game by means of my cuffs for over a year."

"Well, by Jove!" said Sam Ward, paying for a single instant in the sacred mystery of cold dressing. "It's the old game," continued Keene, "I've lost many—just a few," said the great operator, holding his Burgundy up to the light. "I believe I kept it up about a month longer, at the end of which time I had raked in the washerwoman's bank account, and even had a mortgage on the brownstone house. It was a game of confidence, wasn't it? But perhaps the information she found on the cuffs after that wasn't so exact as it had been, anyhow, nor so reliable."

And the "king of the street" emptied his glass with an indeliberate wink that made him a cat who had just swallowed a live mouse.

"The public will have them—the pens of the Esterbrook Steel Pen Co. make, and all stationers are ready to supply them."

—The remains of a young Scotch girl, 25 years of age, named Philip, who died recently at Windsor Castle, were removed to Scotland for interment. Previous to its conveyance to the Great Western Railway-station Her Majesty and Lady-in-Waiting attended a short service, held in the presence of Philip's father and brother and the Queen's servants, by the Rev. T. Orr, Congregationalist minister at Windsor.

—HMS Tenedos, which left St. John, N. B., for Digby on the 22nd inst., had touched bottom a few miles inside of Digby Light at 2 p. m. same day, but came off with the flood tide. She lost 20 or 30 feet of her keel and made considerable water. Reports say she was ordered to Portsmouth Bay.

—Thomas Salter was carefully reared by his wealthy parents at Montreal, but had not sufficient means to keep a place among respectable people nor honest enough to be trusted among thieves. He went into a scheme with some burglars to rob a jewelry store, and they betrayed his companions to justice. But in testifying against them, though he caused their conviction, he had not sufficient credit to keep a jail for perjury. Thus he found himself a convict in the St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary with men who were his revengeful foes. One of these was Dan Eberit, who deliberately resolved to throw away his own life in order to kill the traitor. He stabbed Salter to death, and then, knowing that otherwise he would surely be hanged, he committed suicide on the spot.
