We do not propose to go into what London, England. this means to the town itself. What we propose to touch on is, are the people alive to what is involved in its success or failure? There is yet tim to make either possible. If, however, the exhibition is to be the success that the conditions warrant the time that is now at the disposal of the management has got to be used to the the provincial exhibition at Halifax. much during the past six months in the eyes of the world by the manipu lation of their stocks. To this has been added disputes among the capi talists who comprise the managing di rectorate. We believe the elements that make up their names and on which those industries were established, form too solid a foundation for them to be overthrown by these variable currents The progress of the country has how ever been retarded and kindred industris that were slowly developing have, for the time at least, been blight ed in the bud. Could patriotic Blu nises see these enterprises back where they were a year and a half ago their f elings would be those of relief and gladness.

One of the hig retail grocers of St. John makes a good point when he says the man who is at peace with the world and contented with the po-gr, ss he is making is really better off gr, si he is making is really better off than the man of more money whose affairs are a constant worry to him, and whose life is one big endeavor to be get and hold as much as some other. A grocer with a philosophical mind like this would probably refuse to be hacked confidence, and if you examin-ed his flour stock vou would probably find some of Ogilvic's Hungarian, the parrel with the purple hoops.
