

BRIEF NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

THE CABINET OF LITERATURE, as now offered to the British American public, will be found to contain some of the richest productions of human genius.

“WILSON'S BORDER TALES” will be read by all, and especially by Britons, with that deep interest which simplicity of diction, combined with a profound knowledge of human nature, never fail to excite.

This work will be issued in monthly parts, in a cheap and commodious form, each number containing 32 closely printed pages. And no exertion shall be wanting on the part of the proprietor to secure to the public a cheap and valuable periodical—and to himself a liberal patronage.

TERMS—Seven-pence half-penny, per No. (exclusive of postage) payable on delivery. A liberal discount made to responsible agents.
