

INDEX TO VOL. III.

ACT OF 1774 OF THE IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT, 484.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. Quebec Judiciary, 203.—Discussion in the House, 203.—The Powers of Local and Dominion Parliaments not properly defined, 203.—Judiciary of Lower Canada, 204.—Article from Montréal "Herald," 204.—The evils of the system, 205.—Political appointments, 206.—The case of Col. Gagy, 207.—Article of "Daily Witness," 208.—L'administration de la justice, 209.—Article of "L'Evenement," 210.—Room for Reform, 211.—"Evening Star" article, 212.—Article of "Toronto Globe," 213.—Article of "Witness," 215.—Article of "Herald," 215.—Article of "L'Opinion Publique," 217.—Article from "Le Courrier du Canada," 220.—Letter of Mr. Justice Torrance to the Attorney General of Quebec, 223.—The defects of the system, 224.—Number of cases decided in 1872, 225.—Two orders of Judges required, 225.—The evils of the Enquete System, 226.—The system in Rome, in France and England, 228.—The law of 7 Fructidor, 228.—Opinion of Toullier, 228.—Remarks of Lord Cairns, 229.—View of M. Bonjean, 229.—Suggestion of reform, 231.—In the Court of Queen's Bench, 302.

AMERICAN CIVIL WAR, 293.

ANSWER OF THE COMMONS TO THE HOUSE OF LORDS, 199.

ARE PROPRIETORS OF TUG STEAMERS COMMON CARRIERS? The law in England, 234.—Common Carriers not responsible for acts of force majeure, 234.—Law in Louisiana, 234.—Definition of a Common Carrier, 235.

BAR OF ENGLAND, 299.

BIBLIOGRAPHIE. Regne Militaire in Canada, 237.—The spirit of Laws, 238.—Treaties on Criminal Law, 238.—Commentaire sur le Code Civil du Bas Canada, 240.

BILL OF OATHS, THE PROROGATION AND THE ROYAL COMMISSION. Questions of Law arising out of these, 178.—Resolution of Hon. Mr. Huntingdon, 178.—Resolution of Sir John A. Macdonald, 179.—Citation of M. Starnes, 180.—Bill to examine witnesses on oath, 180.—Motion of Hon. J. H. Cameron, 180.—Adjournment of the House, 180.—Oaths Bill disallowed, 180.—Meeting of Committee, 180.—Publication of documents by Montréal "Herald," 180.—Prorogation of Parliament, 181.—Royal Commission appointed, 181.—Recusation of the Commission by M. Huntingdon, 183.—Topics suggested by the proceedings, 183.—Disallowance of the Oaths Bill, 184.—Sec. 56 B. N. A. Act, 184.—The New Brunswick Education Bill, 184.—The Power of H. M. Privy Council, 184.—Action of the Governor General in transmitting the Oaths Bill, 185.—18 Sec. of B. N. A. Act cited, 185.—Power