acres of ground, throwing upwards of 1,000 hands out of employment. The loss was for several days greatly exaggerated, having been stated at from $750,000 to $1,000,000. The more reliable accounts place it at something over $100,000, or according to some even less. "There is a number of policies of insurance which will go a great way towards covering the loss. There were several sensational rumors circulated as to the heavy loss which the Merchants' Bank was likely to sustain, but the most reliable information is that the bank was amply secured on all its advances to the firm. don, Scottish Union, Queen, $11,000 each; Niagara & Connecticut, $5,500 each; total $154,000. Incendiarism is supposed to have caused the fire. Although unfortunate by fires of late years, the well-known enterprise of Mr. Eddy is sufficient to warrant us writing over the scene of the disaster the word "resurgam," and it is but a question of a short time we apprehend when the whole of the employees will return to work on perhaps the same spot. Mr. Eddy was absent from home when the fire took place. On being telegraphed that a fire had broken out in the premises, and asking what they should do, he in his practical manner wired back,—"Put it out."
