SECOND DAY.

The Probs' change of weather arrived on Wednesday night. On the range in the early morning the weather was nice and cool. As the forenoon advanced the sun beat out strong, which made it about as uncomfortable as yesterday. There was one good thing, and that was the wind, which was so fickle on the first day, was, if anything, on better behavior. When shooting started at nine o'clock a little wind was blowing right down the target. Marksmen, therefore, were shooting about dead on, but now and again a puff would come away, which had the effect of making a good shot drop to the inner. The shooting was far and away the best that has

When living in a tent you can't have the luxuries of home; you must do without the china basin and the porcelain-lined bath.

You can have Indurated Fibreware, though; it is especially adapted for camp life, is almost unbreakable, light yet strong, can be knocked around, and has no hoops to fall off.

PAILS TUBS WASHBASINS PANS, Etc.
