Mankind in the gross is a gaping monster, that loves to be deceived and seldom has been disappointed.—Mackenzie.

Thirsting for the golden fountain of the fable, from how many streams have we turned away, weary and in disgust!— Bulwer Lytton.

'Tis sad work to be at that pass that the best trial of truth must be the multitude of believers in a crowd where the number of fools so much exceeds that of the wise.
As if anything were so common as ignorance!
—Montaigne.

NOTHING STANDS AS HIGH, as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Here is the proof. It's the only medicine for women so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't cure, your money is returned. Can anything else, though it may be better for a tricky dealer to sell, be "just as good" for you to buy?

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a complete cure for all the fundamental derangements, painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls entering womanhood :
for women at the critical "change of life" ; for women approaching confinement ; nursing mothers ; and every woman who is "run down," tired, or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, piles, biliousness, indigestion, or dyspepsia, and headaches.

What is a man, if his chief good and market of his time be but to sleep and feed ! a beast, no more. Sure, He that made us with such large discourse, looking before and after, gave us not that capability and godlike reason to rust in us unused.—Shakespeare.

Nature is often hidden, sometimes overcome, seldom extinguished. Force maketh nature more violent in return ; doctrine and discourse maketh nature less importune ; but custom only doth alter and subdue nature.—Bacon.

A Tonic

For Brain-Workers, the Weak and Debilitated.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate is without exception, the Best Remedy for relieving Mental and Nervous Exhaustion ; and where the system has become debilitated by disease, it acts as a general tonic and vitalizer, affording sustenance to both brain and body.

Dr. E. Cornell Esten, Philadelphia, Pa., says : "I have met with the greatest and most satisfactory results in dyspepsia and general derangement of the cerebral and nervous systems, causing debility and exhaustion."

Beware of Substitutes and Imitations.

Plutarch says very finely, that a man should not allow himself to hate even his enemies ; because, if you indulge this passion on some occasions, it will rise of itself on others.—Addison.

Toronto, 28th November, 1893.

Dear Sirs,—

It is with much satisfaction that I learn that you have decided to establish a branch office in Toronto, believing as I do, that the more widely your Acid Cure is made known, the greater will be the gratitude accorded to you for the relief experienced by many sufferers in Canada. We have used your acid for over eighteen years, and are now prepared to state that it is worthy of a place in every family. We have found it thoroughly safe and effective and have commended it to many—for which we have been thanked. We wish you success in your new quarters, as we feel sure your success will bring relief here as it has already done to large numbers in the old land and other countries. Much will depend on the patient and persevering use of the Acid as set forth in your little book.

COUTTS & SONS.

Since happiness is necessarily the supreme object of our desires, and duty the supreme rule of our actions, there can be no harmony in our being except where our happiness coincides with our duty.—Whewell.

Our natural and happiest life is when we lose ourselves in the exquisite absorption of home, the delicious retirement of dependent love.—Miss Mulock.

As the sun breaks through the darkest clouds, so honour peereth in the meanest habit.—Shakespeare.
