

JANUARY LETTER

To the Teachers ;

From RUSSELL-LANG'S, the intensely Busy Educational Bookshop
Winnipeg, Manitoba

Notwithstanding market conditions, and prices are daily advancing, there is no shortage of School Supplies at this busy Bookshop. Lots of good value Exercise Books, Scribblers, Note Books, Manuscript Books, Loose Leaf Books and Refills, Pencils, Penholders, Rubber Erasers, Black Board Supplies, Dustless Chalk, Erasers, Geometrical Sets, both for Scholars' and Teachers' use; Construction Papers, Tinted Cardboards, Raffia (plain and colored), Nu-Reed (used instead of Rattan Reeds), Plasticine, Folding Papers, Scissors, Weaving Papers, Water Colour Paints, Crayons, Drawing Papers, in book or pad form, etc.

Teachers will do well to make up their lists and ask their Secretaries to rush in the orders while supplies are available. We have also a good supply of the Literatures used in Grades 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, and Public and High School Texts generally. We have just received and rushed into stock fresh supplies from the Comstock Pub. Co. (Nature Books); Ginn & Co., Educational Pub. Co., Amer. Book Co., A. Flanagan Coy., Macmillan Coy., Copp, Clark Co., etc., etc., so that library orders may be filled promptly. Winnipeg Public Libraries and High Schools purchased over thirty thousand books from Russell-Lang's in 1916. No library order is too big for us to handle.
