

Trading in N. Y. Least for Full Session Since 1888

ALLEST VOLUME IN MANY YEARS

Trading on New York Exchange Very Limited Yesterday

MOVEMENT NARROW

Drifted Aimlessly to Apathetic But Firm Close.

London Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Operations on the stock exchange today were characterized by the smallest amount of trading for a full session since Feb. 27, 1888. Total sales amounted to $5,000,000, and the small volume was largely limited to about 100 of the most active issues.

The movement was narrow throughout, with a lowering trend, leaders yielding to a general recovery on settlement of short contracts. This continued, the drift aimlessly to a level of about 100 of the most active issues.

Failed to Regain. The movement was narrow throughout, with a lowering trend, leaders yielding to a general recovery on settlement of short contracts. This continued, the drift aimlessly to a level of about 100 of the most active issues.

MINING MARKET BECOMES STRONG

Hollinger, Juppiter and Chambers-Ferland Make Gains.

RUMORS BUSY AGAIN

Break in Big Dome—Price Drops to New Low.

The mining market turned strong yesterday, this characteristic being noticeable chiefly in Hollinger, Juppiter and Chambers-Ferland. A break occurred in Big Dome. This stock opened at 65 and sold down to 60. Evidently a block of stock has been placed on the market for sale during the past few days. Until an adjustment is made there may be seen a still lower price for this issue.
