

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA.

BILL 61.

An Act to amend the Yukon Quartz Mining Act.

R.S., c. 217;
1928, c. 53;
1932, c. 23.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. Section twelve of the Yukon Quartz Mining Act, chapter two hundred and seventeen of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1927, is repealed and the following substituted therefor: 5

Persons who may enter and locate lands subject to entry and location.

“12. (1) Subject to subsection two of this section, a person eighteen years of age, or over, may personally or by attorney enter, locate, prospect and mine upon any vacant Dominion lands in the Yukon Territory, for the minerals defined in this Act, and upon all lands the right whereon so to enter, prospect and mine such minerals has been, or hereafter shall be reserved to the Crown. 10

Limitation on number of claims within 12-month period.

(2) Subject to section forty-five of this Act during any period of twelve months no person shall be entitled to locate, whether personally, as attorney for another or by an attorney, more than seven mineral claims in the aggregate within a distance of ten miles from any other mineral claim (making a total of eight mineral claims) located by him personally, as attorney or by attorney, during that period. 20

Power of attorney to be filed.

(3) Every power of attorney authorizing a person to enter, locate, prospect or mine pursuant to subsection one of this section shall be filed with the mining recorder before the entering, locating, prospecting or mining is undertaken.” 25

Repeal.

2. Sections seventeen, forty-six and forty-seven of the said Act are repealed.
