

Private Bills—Divorce

in the House of Commons rather than in the courts of Quebec, but it may not be. I continue:

By Senator Barbour:

Q. Are you able yourself to finance this suit?

A. Oh yes.

By Mr. Blank:

Q. You are still paying it on the instalment plan?

A. Yes. I still owe some.

She must owe quite a bit unless the lawyer and detectives came more cheaply than in most cases. If she saved one quarter of her money a month it would be a good saving allowing her less than $50 a month on which to live. I doubt if she could save more than $70 a month and in a ten-month period she would have saved only approximately $700.

Mr. Brunsdon: Mr. Chairman, on a point of order, is this committee legally sitting? Is there a quorum in the chamber?

The Deputy Chairman: The Clerk advises that there are 21 hon. members present; 22 including myself.

Mr. Peters: Mr. Chairman, may I call it six o'clock.

Progress reported.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. McIlraith: Mr. Speaker, would the house leader indicate the business of the house for the early days of next week?

Mr. Churchill: Mr. Speaker, the announcement I made on Thursday, May 12 at page 3850 of Hansard will hold true for Monday and Tuesday of next week. I am not in a position to announce the business for the balance of the week. Does the hon. member wish me to repeat the order of business which appears on page 3850?

Mr. McIlraith: No, Mr. Speaker, there is no need to repeat it if the information is correct.

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
