

Inquiries of the Ministry

member nations insist on a ten-year total ban on high seas fishing for salmon in the north Atlantic? If so, in view of the implications this action would have on our resources control, what response has the minister given?

Hon. Mitchell Sharp (Secretary of State for External Affairs): Like the hon. gentleman, Mr. Speaker, I have read this in the newspapers. I have not yet received direct information from the Danish government.

Mr. James A. McGrath (St. John's East): A supplementary question. In view of the importance of this question to Canada's Atlantic salmon fishery, is the minister prepared to call in the ambassador of Denmark and discuss this matter with him?

Mr. Sharp: Mr. Speaker, if that seems the best way of handling the matter, the answer is yes, but it might be more desirable to make our representations in Denmark.

EMBLEM ON MINISTER'S LETTERHEAD

Mr. Robert Muir (Cape Breton-The Sydneys): My question is for the Minister of Labour. I ask the minister the reason for changing the emblem, insignia or design on his letterhead. Would the minister be so kind as to explain this to the House and advise under whose authority it was changed?

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. I am not sure what the hon. member's question refers to in detail. I respectfully suggest to the hon. member that the question might well be placed on the Order Paper. If it is a matter of urgency, it can be considered at the time of adjournment. The question can be placed on the list of questions to be debated on the motion to adjourn this evening.

Mr. Muir (Cape Breton-The Sydneys): With all due deference and respect to Your Honour, I rise on a point of order. There is an element of urgency. Daily since it appeared many members have been trying to decipher this code, emblem or whatever it is. I think it is urgent to the extent that many members are spending time on this when they should be working on something else.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. It may well be urgent as the hon. member suggests. My suggestion is that it be considered at the time of adjournment.

[Later:]

Mr. Muir (Cape Breton-The Sydneys): Mr. Speaker, my question is for the Minister of Labour and is related to the previous question I posed. May I ask the hon. gentleman if this hieroglyphic that appears on his letterhead could be some form of graffiti which appeared on a wall some place?

CITIZENSHIP

PROVISION OF INFORMATION ON GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

Mr. Harold E. Winch (Vancouver East): I wish to direct a question to the Prime Minister on a matter that is becoming more and more urgent in my ethnic riding of Vancouver East. I ask the Prime Minister if, with his motivation toward a just society, any policy action is anticipated at this session to ensure that no person is denied citizenship or landed immigrant status without any reason or objection being given to the applicant in order that the applicant will know the allegations and be in a position to refute any charge if it is false?

Right Hon. P. E. Trudeau (Prime Minister): Mr. Speaker, I can only answer to the extent that the Secretary of State, under whom the citizenship laws come, is reviewing the situation of citizenship and the laws relating thereto and will be reporting to cabinet on the matter. I cannot indicate a date at this time.

WHITE PAPER ON REFORM—APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTOR OF REVALUATION AND ASSESSORS

Mr. G. W. Baldwin (Peace River): Mr. Speaker, I have a question for the Acting Minister of Finance. In view of the fact that there has now been appointed by the government a director of revaluation for the five-year capital gains tax plan under the white paper on tax reform, together with five assessors of valuation, are we now to take it that this part of the white paper has become firm and is no longer subject to negotiation or change?

Mr. Speaker: The hon. member for Annapolis Valley.
