

FROM BRIG. GENERAL SIR CHARLES DELME RADCLIFFE, K.C.M.G., C.B., C.V.O.

34, DOVER STREET,

LONDON, W. 1.

TELEPHONE NEWEST 5000

you had recently been ill, which I heard with great regret. I hope that you are all right again now and that I may have the pleasure of seeing you some time before I have to leave Montreal again. I would so much like to renew the acquaintance with you that I made when you came to stay at my Head-Quarters in Udine, in 1917, I think it was, or was it in 1916 ?

Yours very sincerely,

Charles Delme Radcliffe
