293 Bay Street,

Toronto, September 21, 1927.

Sir Arthur W. Currie,
Principal, McGill University,
MONTREAL.

Dear Sir Arthur,

Acknowledging your wire of to-day, I am reserving four good seats for you for the game on the 8th. I expect to receive our allotment of 650 tickets on Friday, and will then let you have yours.

We are holding a Stag Dinner and Smoker at the Military Institute on the night of the game, and will be very pleased if you will honour us by coming. It is entirely informal, with no programme of speeches, and a programme of entertainment after the dinner, to give the graduates here a chance to meet each other.

Yours very truly,
