

This done, dictated word for word, and published and declared by the said Donald Ross for and as a codicil to his said last will and testament, to and in the presence of us the said Notaries, in the office of the said William Ross, on the day and year first above written, in the afternoon.

The present codicil has thus been made, declared, and published fait dicté et nommé by the said Donald Ross to us the said Notaries, and by the said William Ross twice duly read to the said Donald Ross lu et rélu in the presence of the said Donald Ross.

In faith and testimony whereof the said Donald Ross hath to these presents first twice duly read, set, and subscribed his name and signature—the said Donald Ross, in the presence of us the said Notaries and with said Notaries hath signed this codicil after its having been twice duly read to him by the said William Ross in the presence of his said confrere and in the presence of said Donald Ross, number Thirteen Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty.

(Signed),

DONALD ROSS.
