

Prof. Panson, Director of l'École Normale Supérieure.

Mr. Roger Perdriat, born in 1899, is agrégé since 1921, and preparing his Doctor's thesis.
He has already some teaching experience, having taught French in a college in Paris and in a French College in Rome (1922-1923). He has a pleasant appearance and good manners.
He likes sports, especially Tennis and boxing. I have every reason to hope that he shall succeed at McGill.

As a teaching-student,
