

3. Except as provided by this section, a certificate of naturalization shall not be granted to any person under disability.

(d) The expression "disability" means the status of being a married woman, or a minor, lunatic, or idiot.

5. Where an alien obtains a certificate of naturalization, the Secretary of State of Canada may, if he thinks fit, on the application of that alien, include in the certificate the name of any child of the alien born before the date of the certificate and being a minor, and that child shall thereupon, if not already a British subject, become a British subject; but any such child may, within one year after attaining his majority, make a declaration of alienage, and shall thereupon cease to be a British subject.

Sec. 12. (1) Provided that where a widow who is a British subject marries an alien, any child of hers by her former husband shall not, by reason only of her marriage, cease to be a British subject, whether he is residing outside His Majesty's dominions or not.

2. Any child who has so ceased to be a British subject may within one year after attaining his majority make a declaration that he wishes to assume British nationality, and shall thereupon again become a British subject.
