

NEW PROCLAMATION LACKS ONE CLAUSE

Government Retains Certain
License Powers Temporarily to Assist Board.

BREWERS' LICENSES

Minister Will Hold Right of Veto Until Board Settles
Into Work.

Altho the new Liquor License Act providing for the formation of a board of commissioners has been proclaimed as coming into operation forthwith, a vital clause of the original bill is missing from the act of proclamation. Section 12 which stated that "all power heretofore belonging to or exercisable by the minister under the Liquor License Act shall be vested in and exercised by the board subject to any regulations made by the lieutenant-governor-in-council," has been omitted from the act, and the commission will lack temporarily certain authority held by Hon. W. J. Hanna. It is understood that this is held back to avoid loading the board with unnecessary labor at the outset. This clause refers to the special powers which have been held in the past by the minister relating to some of the outstanding features of temperance legislation. For one thing the minister will retain the right to grant wholesale and brewers' licenses in the province. He will also hold the "veto" power on all licenses which have been granted. When the entire act comes into operation these will be in the hands of the board as part of their authority. If the appointment of the board is published in the official gazette as usual it would have to appear on May 1 or May 8. In the first case they would be in office for four days without the right to act, for the government announced their duties to begin on May 5. In the latter case they would not be formally announced until three days later. It is possible that a special gazette will be issued for May 5, starting their work, and at the same time releasing the old commissioners whose duties are supposed to be concluded by May 1. The government is making all provision possible to assist the new officers in the launching of their work. One important reason why the minister will retain the veto power will be to prevent any undue liberty being taken by members of the retiring license board. Some of them might become a little careless since the term of holding office is so brief.

LIGHT DELIVERY

Only a Moderate Supply of Hogs and Cattle on Market.

Firm.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Yards on Wednesday were 59 carloads, 720 cattle, 2075 hogs, 63 sheep and lambs, 69 calves and 100 horses. It will be seen that there was a light delivery in every class of live stock, extending from hogs and cattle, and only a moderate supply of them. This caused an advance in the higher classes, but not in the lower. The market was quiet in the trade for hogs, but there was a fair trade in the higher classes, and the trade will stand for some time. There were very few choice cattle or hogs on the top reported for the week. Choice stockers and feeders were again in demand, and prices held firm. Choice weighing 900 to 1000 lbs., dehorned, sold at $7.15, but they were what are called short weens. As there was some outside demand for milkers and springers prices were very firm, but no higher. Milkers and Springers. Choice fresh cows and forward springers sold at $5.00 to $5.50 each, and weaners at $4.50 to $5.00; common at $4.00 to $4.50. Veal Calves. Choice veal calves, 10 to 12 lbs., good, sold at $8.50; medium, $7.75 to $8.00; common, $7.25 to $7.50; hogs at $5.25 to $5.50.
